I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2390-These two races had been included in the must-kill list in his heart.

When he got to Heavenly Overlord Rank, he would enter the lair of the Robotias and the Soul Devourers and completely eliminate these two malignant tumors.

“Lufian, thank you! But I want to settle my affairs and I hope you won’t interfere.”

Lufian was taken aback by Flora’s words.

He could not recover for a long time.

He found that Elora changed a little since she came back this time.

Although she was still as cold as before, a smile appeared on her face unconsciously when she talked about her experience in The Spirit Cage.

Lufian had known her for so many epochs and he had never seen this smile on her.

At first, he thought he was seeing things.

Now it seemed that Elora might have experienced something unforgettable in The Spirit Cage.

Lufian did not want to overthink.

After all, he had known Elora for too long.

It was only a few years since Elora was injured and disappeared.

Compared with the time that they have known each other, that time was insignificant.

That was to say, she had only glanced casually at the scenery in her life as she passed by.

Perhaps she noticed Lufian's reaction, Elora hastily added, "Lufian, don't get me wrong. What I was trying to say was that the Robotias and the Soul Devourers have caused me much harm and I want to take revenge myself. There is nothing else so I hope you won't overthink."

It would be fine if Elora did not explain.

Once she did, Lufian started to get suspicious.

One must know that the former Elora was notoriously cold.

She would never explain anything.

It seemed that Lufian needed to spend time to understand Elora's experience in The Spirit Cage.

Elora must have omitted something he did not know.

"Don't worry! I'm not thinking about anything!" Lufian smiled.

However, he started to pay more attention to this.

'That's good! Now is not the time for us to act impulsively. The Robotias and the Soul Devourers must have made preparations. So, we have to get through this crisis first.

Otherwise, revenge and the likes would just be empty talk."

"Elora, you seem to have changed a lot this time you come back. The old you won't bother to explain so much," Lufian said nonchalantly.

The expression on Elora's face did not change, but on the inside, she was shocked.

'Did Lufian discover something?

'Impossible!'

She did not say anything about David, so Lufian could not possibly know.

In fact, Elora was afraid that Lufian would know David's existence.

She knew Lufian.

On the surface, he looked like a modest gentleman, but that was only when his bottom line was not violated.

Once someone violated it and enraged him, the consequences would be very serious.

Lufian's other personality would come out.

That Lufian was cruel and would disregard life.

It happened once and caused countless casualties.

In the end, it was Sylvio who suppressed him.

If it were not for Elora's timely reminder just now, Lufian would have turned into that person.

Among the five Leila rulers, only Sylvio and Lufian were the most scheming.

Moreover, Sylvio was an old monster who had lived through epochs.

Lufian was not as old as Sylvio, but he was also very dangerous.

If he knew that during these two years, Elora had stayed in David's arms during the day and slept with David at night, it would be troublesome.

Even if Elora was still a little girl and had not recovered her memory yet, Lufian would never be able to accept it.
