I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2425-“Lovewood, you’re wrong, very wrong,” Selena said all of a sudden.

“Wrong? How am I wrong?” Lorraine asked curiously.

“You hate David because you don’t know enough about him. By your standards, everyone here should hate David, including Celia!”

Selena pointed at the crowd in front of her.

‘What do you mean?’ Lorraine was puzzled.

“It’s simple. All of us have been rejected by David. Some more than once, including Celia. Do you know that David rescued Celia in middle school, and Celia confessed to him later, but was rejected? Immediately after that, David went on to date another woman. Can you imagine how Celia felt at that time? She has to watch the person she liked falling in love with another woman. Finally, Celia confessed to David again after learning that David had broken up in university. They were only together after that. The relationship between the two can be said to be full of twists and turns.”

‘Was there someone better than Celia?’ Lorraine asked, looking at Celia not far away.

Although she did not think Celia’s looks could threaten her, Lorraine had to admit that no matter where she was, Celia was very outstanding.

Coupled with the advantages of character, there were probably not many women who could better Celia.

“Maybe David felt that he was not worthy of Celia back then! He found a more ordinary girl but in the end, he was kicked away mercilessly. Don’t you think it’s funny?”

‘Um...’

Lorraine did not know what to say anymore.

Someone actually kicked David away?

“I think the woman who did that to David must be so remorseful now.’

“I have no idea. I’m only telling you this because I want you to know you’re not the only one who has gone through rejection. All of the women here, including me, were rejected by David. Yet, to be honest, no man could interest us anymore after knowing David. So, even if we’re like moths flying to a flame, we still do it without hesitation,” Selena stared at David’s handsome face and said.

“King, I know what you mean! Honestly, I don’t hate David anymore. From the moment he saved me, my hatred toward his man disappeared. I can’t hate him even if I want to.” Lorraine shook her head.

“In that case, what are we still standing here for?”

Selena grabbed Lorraine’s hand and pulled her quickly toward David.

Lorraine’s face was red as she was being pulled forward. After what Selena said, how could she not understand?

However, the current Lorraine was still a little restrained.

This was who she was and she could not change in a short time.

The two quickly joined the rest of the women.

When the sound of the women gradually died down, David found a chance to speak.

“Everyone, listen to me, now that I’m out of seclusion, I won’t go back in for some time. I’m going to take everyone back to Earth. After such a long time, everyone must be homesick, right?”

“Dave, are you serious?” Sandy was the first to ask excitedly.

“Of course! When have I ever lied to you? We’ll leave after I bid farewell to Nova.”

After getting a positive answer from David, the women jumped up happily.

“Great! I can finally go home.”

“Yeah! We’ve been away for so long and we can finally go back.”

“Although Star Kingdom is much better than Earth, I still like my hometown.”

“Right? It’s so good to be able to go home.”

They hugged David one by one, leaving their lipstick stains on his face.

David was helpless!

His mood was so lifted when he saw everyone so happy.
