Chapter 1251

Chapter 1251

This whole dark web thing cauand quite a stir

Ever since Wayne got a hitman hired on him, people kept tabs on the dark web. At first, everyone was just watching, and most didn't even believe it was for

"Celebrities around the world had been targeted on the dark web, and I've yet to see anyone actually get offed"

"Why is there one person missing? Couldn't afford a fourth hitman for a family of four?"

"That's hilarious was the job posted by a fan of Secretary Tesdal?"

"I don't get the world of the rich Fifty mil for a head? Any pros care to explain, is that steep in your line of work?"

Someone actually did respond to this. "Even top jobs don't reach that figure I've got a buddy in H country who book the job. He says killing Wayne is harder than winning the lottery"

"LOL he's really selling it"

While people were laughing, the blogger who was broadcasting the dark web news posted an update

“Help! Secretary Tesdal also posted a bounty on the dark web. It’s specifically for the person who put a hit on her kids and husband, she’s offering 150 million?”

There were screenshots attached and netizens were shocked is it really Secretary Tesdal?”

“Don’t make stuff up, I’m starting to believe this?”

“Wow, I just checked, there’s a new job. The ID includes Gabriella, if it’s not Secretary Tesdal then who

“Guys, Hilaria Jared just added another 50 mil to the bounty!”

“You can do that? Up the reward? give it a try

Like that, countless netizens flooded into the dark web

Some just spectated, throwing in the minimum amount, others were disgusted by the hits involving kids. So, they also upped the reward

Before long the identity of the person who hired the hitman was revealed on the dark web

Everyone was shocked

Turns out it’s Olivia’s ex-husband?”

“Ex? Didn’t they reconcile last summer?”

“Wasn’t he a playboy? Now he’s blowing all his money on revenge for Olivia? I’m kinda moved I’ve been following this feud Can’t believe this hitman hiring stuff is real. I don’t get your rich people world! Tossing around billions like it’s nothing, how can they just hire hitmen?”

“Honestly though is Simon worth all that?”

“Remember the news from three years ago? A little girl accused Simon of sexual assault, but the royal family squashed it. We, the netizens of H country, did not let it slide, LOL” “Wow you guys need to see this Baillie’s mom also added 30 mil to the bounty! I’m gonna be good this life, hope to be born into a good family next life

“I thought Baillie’s mom didn’t like her daughter-in-law? She even registered on the dark web and made it clear she’s also Paige’s mom!”

“Seeing the bounty, I’m tempted to quit my job and take out a loan to go to R country and off Simon!”

“Yeah, should we pool resources and charter a plane? Once it’s all over we split the 250 mil

While netizens were passionately discussing teaming up to hunt Simon, the royal family posted an apology on their official website. The statement was simple claiming Simon had become mentally unstable due to heavy drinking and the pain of losing his wife.

Chapter 1252

The bounty on the dark web has been pulled

Chapter 1252

Finally, an apology was expressed to Mr Silverman and his two kids. It was also stated that they were willing to bestow the titles of prince and princess on the two children as a form of apology

Meanwhile, the royal family was actively reaching out to Wayne and Rosalynn

But, to everyone’s surprise while the royals were trying to make amends, it was reported on the internet that the bounty Rosalynn had posted on the dark web had been claimed, and no more applications were being accepted

The news shook the royal family “sant Simon in his cell? The queen asked sterly. “Has he escaped again?”

Simon’s brother had a grim look on his face. I’ve sent people to check it out. Our castle is secure. Think there must be some glitch on the dark web

Almost at the same time, an old servant opened the door to Simon's cell, where the light was dim

The first thing the old servant saw was Simon's back. He was relieved and was about to close the door and report back to the crown prince

But as he was about to shut the door something seemed off. He quickly pushed the door back open and switched on the light. The sight that met his eyes made him collapse to the floor

There was Simon's body on the bed, but the head was missing. The ventilation window at the top of the secret room was wide open, with dried bloodstains on the edges

Almost simultaneously, outside the majestic palace. A kid, who looked about ten, was standing still in a black raincoat, yellow rain boots, and a black backpack on her shoulder, as the rain drizzled down

Soon, a black van pulled up next to her. The door was pulled open and a man with one blind eye looked at her, frowning "You

The kid looked up at him, walked towards the van, and handed the backpack to him "The head"

The man was taken aback, not by the head, but by the kid in his organization, he was in charge of confirming the goods. He had dealt with all kinds of hitmen, but this was the first time he encountered one so young and so calm

He patted the front seat, and the driver immediately drove off

After checking the face and making sure there was no prosthetic mask or anything like that, he turned to the girl who was looking out the window emotionlessly

"Did you do this?" He asked seriously after confirming the target

Slowly, the girl turned to look at him "Yes, I need you to contact the buyer. I have something to say to her

"The money has been transferred to our account. After deducting the pre-agreed service fee, we'll legally transfer the money to you. You don't need to contact the buyer directly" the man replied "What about your family?"

"She's got them," the girl replied

"Who?"

"Her the buyer"

Chapter 1253

Even though Rosalynn knew Simon was a good-for-nothing, she was still shocked that the mission was completed so quickly.

Soon, a video of Simon's decapitated head was posted on the dark web. The sender asked. "The person who took this job would like to speak with you? "Why?" Rosalynn asked.

"She says her father is with you"

Rosalynn was taken aback. She didn't think it was possible. But after a moment, she decided to accept the request for a call.

A video call came in soon after. Rosalynn answered. The screen shook a bit, then a child wearing a yellow rain hat appeared on the screen.

The child had a small face with beautiful eyes, a pointed nose, and a mouth that was redder but smaller than most. The blood on her right cheek was particularly noticeable

"Did you dial the wrong number?" Rosalynn was confused.

She looked no older than ten

"I don't need your money, just release my dad" The child on the screen threatened, "if my dad is already dead, I'll make sure you all die too

"Your dad?" Rosalynn frowned, then seemed to recall something. "Are you talking about that tall, skinny man who always claims to be a top assassin?" "Yes." The girl nodded, then said, "Let him go."

Rosalynn chuckled, "So you're the kid that Simon kidnapped to threaten him?"

"Yes, my name is Molly. The girl nodded.

"Got it, he's doing fine with me. Give me your address, and I'll send him to you" Rosalynn replied.

But the girl seemed uncertain, she lowered her eyelids in thought.

"You give me the address, I will go pick him up."

"Sure, do you want to talk to him? I can arrange that."

"Is he really alive?" The girl asked suspiciously.

1-don't kill people indiscriminately." Rosalynn answered, "But.. you killed Simon?"

"Yes"" The girl nodded.

Tm curious, how did you do it?"

She had received reliable information that Simon had been brought back to the queen's castle.

Molly blinked slowly.

After being kidnapped by Simon, she was always looked after by Simon's old servant. When they left, the old servant couldn't bear to leave her behind, so he had other servants take her back to the castle with them.

Among the servants, she watched as Simon was slapped by her mother and then locked in solitary confinement

It was because of Simon's argument with his mother that Molly found out about the bounty. She stole a servant's phone and logged into the dark web using her father's account. After some thought, she decided to take the job.

Then, she broke a pencil she used for homework and took out two tiny pills from inside. While the old servant was away delivering food, she added the pills to Prince Simon's meal.

After the old servant left, she took a knife she'd stolen from the kitchen, a backpack, and a plastic bag, then calmly picked the lock with a piece of wire:

She slowly walked in.

Simon, who didn't have much of an appetite, was enjoying his meal. That's when the drug started to take effect. He was paralyzed but still conscious, although speaking was very difficult

"You're..."

Chapter 1254

Simon's eyes widened as soon as he saw Molly.

"I'm really sorry. But if I kill you, I can get two hundred and fifty million. Then I can confront my dad's organization, sever his ties and he won't be hunted or threatened by anyone anymore, Molly said seriously to Simon.

Those beautiful eyes looked very sincere.

“No...” Simon was extremely terrified; he wanted to struggle and shout for help. But he couldn't move, nor could he make a sound.

“My dad taught me, before attacking someone much stronger, make them powerless first. My drugs are really good. You can't struggle no matter how hard you try. With that, Molly raised the chef's knife.

Seeing this, Simon hurriedly said, “Are you going to kill for the person who harmed your father?”

Molly's knife stopped mid-air. “Is my father dead?”

“He took my mission to kill the person who put a bounty on my head and her child. He was caught a few days ago. I can't reach him, and I guess he might have been killed! Simon's voice gradually faded, he could only whisper, “You can't help the person who killed your father to kill me!”

Molly's eyes widened momentarily, then she looked at Simon and said, “Til I earn this two hundred and fifty million first, if dad really has been killed, I'll take revenge later.”

After she said this, she didn't give Simon any more chance to argue for himself.

Simon didn't even have the chance to leave a last word before he was beheaded by her

Molly took a wet wipe out of her pocket, slowly cleaning the blood off her face. She then picked up Simon's head, and looked up at the window,

She had noticed long ago, that this position was an excellent escape route, not within the patrol range of the royal guard on three sides. So, she slid down a big water pipe with Simon's head.

She put on the raincoat she had prepared, avoided the patrol's line of sight, and calmly left “You're so good, why didn't you escape earlier?” Rosalynn asked in shock.

“If you ran away, Simon would notify my father's previous organization. My father is a defector, and they would hunt him down.”

Molly paused, “But my dad is old now, he's not a strong assassin anymore, the people in the organization are young and strong. Once his whereabouts are exposed, they can easily kill him.”

Rosalynn said, “I see. I'll have someone contact you, you can meet your dad.

“Thanks”

“You’re welcome.”

Molly hung up the video.

“Are you Felix’s daughter?” The blind man next to her asked with a frown.

Molly looked at him, she seemed to be a girl who didn’t know fear

She blinked, “Are you my father’s enemy?”

The gentleman quickly waved his hand, “He used to come to me for missions, I’ve seen him a few times. I heard he quit being an assassin over a decade ago, turns out he had a daughter!”

Molly thought about it. Her father didn’t quit because of her. He just felt he had made enough money and didn’t want to live that life of struggle and fighting anymore. She was just a girl he found in a garbage dump during his wandering days.

“How much does it cost to change my identity?” The girl asked the gentleman.

The gentleman laughed loudly, “You just completed a big mission for us, and my boss made a fortune if you want a new identity, we’ll give it to you!”

“I need a new identity as soon as possible, by tonight.”

“Don’t worry.” The gentleman nodded.

He looked at this girl, thinking she was even more badass than her father.

This little girl seemed even tougher than her father. He was very much looking forward to her completing more missions in the future.

Chapter 1255

Before she even saw Felix’s video, Molly had already envisioned his father in a terrible state.

He might have lost an arm or a leg. His father had once told her that this was the fate of a caught killer. But when she got her disguise, got her new identity, rushed to the airport, and made a video call

“I won! Pay up!”

A figure, who looked strikingly like her father, was loudly banging on the table, his arms and legs intact.

The man across from him was bandaged across his face, looking like he had a broken face bone. He angrily threw some bills on the table.

Molly froze, then she hung up the video call. She thought with AI so advanced now, it must be that rich beautiful woman's way of messing with her head

After a flight of over ten hours. Molly finally arrived at the H City airport in H Country. At the exit, someone was holding a sign with her new identity. She figured it must be someone sent by the rich, beautiful woman to pick her up.

She didn't stop but walked straight past them. She had only gone a few steps when she felt someone following her

Molly frowned and quickened her pace, but the person behind her noticed and started running

She looked around. H Country had good law and order, so she couldn't possibly get away with killing someone at the airport.

She had to resort to this

"Help, sir! Someone's been following me she looked pitiful.

She grabbed a man who looked very upright, and said with tears in her eyes and a face of terror.

Others around heard her cry for help.

Her father had once told her that the people of H Country despised human traffickers Upon hearing this, people nearby immediately shielded Molly in the crowd and chided the person who followed her

"What are you doing? Stay away from this girl, if you don't leave, we're calling the cops!"

"Why don't you do good things, instead, you choose to do bad ones?"

Molly saw that everyone was angry. She slowly tried to slip away from the crowd and escape from the airport.

However

"I'm her father! Not a stranger!"

A familiar voice came from behind the crowd, "Molly, it's me!"

"Do you traffickers have any other tricks? All you do is impersonate parents? Let me tell you, today we're here, you won't lay a finger on this child!"

Molly peered out from the crowd and sure enough, she saw her father with some bruises on his face.

I'm sorry, he really is my father." Molly interrupted everyone.

"Huh? Didn't you just say he was a human trafficker?"

"Yes, little girl, don't be afraid, we'll protect you!"

"Everyone listen, I was separated from my father when I was very small and haven't seen him for a long time. So, I didn't recognize him at first, but now I can confirm that he's my father!" Molly said.

People around asked for verification several times before they slowly dispersed.

Molly walked over to Felix, touched his hands, and then pinched his legs. She was filled with disbelief: "Is this all real.."

So strange

"Of course it's real, you should be expecting your father!" Felix happily opened his arms and hugged Molly, "I didn't expect that Mrs. Silverman actually brought you

heref

Molly was taken aback: "Mrs. Silverman brought me here?"

"Yes, isn't it?"

Molly stared at Felix

That rich beautiful woman didn't tell her father about her killing Simon
