

Chapter 141
The Hanshus?!

Luna had an instant headache when she learned the truth.

“Luna!”

Harry came rushing into her office with a bitter look on his face. “The shareholders got together and demanded a meeting. They don’t seem too happy. What is going on?” Luna’s heart skipped a beat. She had yet to come up with a solution to deal with the banks, but the shareholders were already teaming up against her internally.

What a headache!

Luna went over to the meeting room. She updated Harry about what happened with the banks, and Harry’s expression turned even more terrible.

“Luna, we want out!”

The shareholders made a racket when she came into the meeting room.

“Yeah! We want out!”

“We can’t do this anymore!”

“New Moon Corporation is finished!”

“Hurry up and get on with it!”

Luna’s expression turned bitter. She suppressed the emotions in her heart and said politely, “Listen to me. The Valiant Institute project has already started, so as long as

...

“There’s nothing else you could say to persuade us.”

One of the shareholders stopped her before she could finish. “We know about the banks rushing us for the loan repayment.”

“But you can’t pay them back unless you sell the company.”

“If you can’t pay

bankruptcy.”

the banks, we will get blacklisted and we are one step closer to

“So, there’s nothing else for us to discuss. We want out!”

With that, the others echoed in agreement.

“We want out!”

“Luna, we want out!”

“We are leaving!”

They all seemed strangely united and insistent about leaving. They did not give Luna the chance to talk and threatened her with their departure. In fact, they were also instigated by the Hanshus.

The Hanshus’ plan was to tell the banks to urge New Moon Corporation to pay back the loan, and then the shareholders would threaten to leave the company. It would be the fastest and most effective way to crush the company.

Once the company was destroyed, it would be easier for Wayman to go after Andrius.

The news about the shareholders soon spread across the company. Everyone was nervous and anxious.

Fatty Frank got the news and immediately ran to Andrius. “Boss, sh*t has gone down! I suspect someone is oppressing the company.”

Andrius was having a relaxed morning until he heard Fatty Frank’s words. “What?”

“Here, look...” Fatty Frank sat down and started to analyze the situation. “First with the banks. They urged us to pay back the loan before the original due date. Now, the shareholders are clamoring to leave the company. It feels as if this has all been arranged.”

Andrius glanced at Fatty Frank.

Fatty Frank might be a Trust Fund Kid, but he was quite sharp and smart.

Loan repayment?

An easy solution.

Andrius took his phone out and called Noir. He wanted the largest bank to approve a loan for New Moon Corporation.

“Good news!”

Suddenly, Angel came over with delightful news. “Someone came through with a huge investment!”

Someone came to invest at this particular time?

Andrius was surprised. "Who is it?"

"The granddaughter of Bruce Timberland, Sonia Timberland!"
