

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2500

Married at First Sight Chapter 2500-“That’s fine.”

Darrell personally took out the things sent by Matriarch Farrell and threw them into the big trash can outside.

Audrey went to Remy’s new home next door, which would also be her daughter’s home in the future.

Hearing the worker say that Audrey had come in, Remy and Elisa quickly returned to the front yard from the backyard, where they had just been watching the workers working.

“Mom.”

“Auntie.”

Elisa and Remy called Audrey one after another.

Elisa walked to her mother’s side, took her mother’s arm affectionately, smiled so hard her eyes were crooked, and said, “Mom, you are finally willing to come over and take a look.”

Audrey lightly poked her daughter on the forehead and said to her, “You should be happy.”

The Johnson family expressed their stance, and all the things caused by Julian’s interference made Audrey finally agree to Remy and her daughter being together.

Elisa and Remy could get married whenever they wanted.

Audrey wouldn’t stop them anymore.

Remy had two houses in Wiltspoon. This one was next to their business and belongs to a neighbor. Remy had been working at Wiltspoon for a long time. Elisa still lived mostly in Wiltspoon after marriage, which did not affect their ability to see each other.

The main reason was that Elisa had liked two men since she was so old; one was Zachary and the other was Remy.

Zachary didn't like Elisa, and now he was Serenity's husband. The couple's relationship was stable. Serenity was pregnant, so Elisa could no longer be obsessed with him.

Audrey was glad that Elisa had the correct outlook on life. After learning that Zachary was married, she immediately left and never pestered Zachary again, simply and neatly.

If Elisa and Remy were not allowed to be together, Audrey was worried that her daughter would never marry again in her life.

Between letting her daughter be an old aunt and allowing her to marry into the Johnson family, Audrey definitely chose the latter.

"I'm happy, very happy. Mom, please call me when you bring food to my sister-in-law later. I miss my nephew so much."

Audrey smiled and said, "Your brother said we don't need to go there tonight because his mother-in-law sent them food over there, and your sister-in-law will be discharged from the hospital the day after tomorrow, and then you can see your nephew every day."

Audrey also missed her little grandson.

Elisa: "Instead of sending food over, we can go and see the baby. It was my elder brother who drove me back. Otherwise, I would have stayed in the hospital all day to accompany my sister-in-law and take care of my nephew."

Alice was still in the hospital. Here, she had a natural birth and was able to get out of bed and move around soon after giving birth. She did not need many people to stay in the hospital to take care of her.

Clive and his mother-in-law are enough.

Elisa: "Mom, did someone come to our house just now? I seemed to hear a stranger talking in our house."

Remy invited his mother-in-law to come into the house, which was decorated to the nines.

Audrey smiled and answered her daughter's question: "Matriarch Farrell from Jensburg came here."

“Matriarch Farrell? Isn’t she Kathryn’s biological mother, d*mn... aunt?”

The smile on Elisa’s face disappeared all of a sudden.

Elisa: “Mom, what was she doing here?”

Audrey’s eyes flashed with hatred, and she said, “She came here to confirm my identity for the last time. When your grandmother had the accident, I was already sensible. When Matriarch Farrell sees me, even if she is much older, she can recognize me. In the same way, she can also recognize me.

At Serenity’s wedding, I knew that she came to have a wedding banquet, but there were too many people, and I didn’t see her. I thought she left after the wedding. Today she came to my door, and I found out that she has been staying in Wiltspoon. And she stayed for a long time. I think she has to ask around for confirmation.”