

Home / Mistaken Marriage, Unexpected Love / Chapter 121

Mistaken Marriage, Unexpected Love

Chapter 121

Chapter 121 Something Happened

Camila explained to Isaac in a low voice

Isaac didn't know the details until now. After all, the location Trudy had chosen was very remote, so they knew nothing about what happened

there

But when he heard that Trudy wanted to kill Camila, he became anxious

"Were you hurt?"

Camila shook her head quietly

Thinking about Ryder's injury, Isaac sighed in relief. After all, Camila was a doctor skilled in using scalpels

But at the end of the day, she was still a girl. It didn't matter how smart

she was; her physical strength was still limited

"Then from now on, be careful," he said gravely. "Call me if anything happens."

"Okay..." Camila's clear, bright eyes were suddenly filled with hesitation

"Isaac, I..."

She wanted to tell him that she had given birth to a child

But she didn't know how to say it

"Yes?" Isaac urged

She lowered her head and tried to organize her thoughts.

"I wanted to tell you something last time..."

"What is it?"

"pom

The phone in her pocket suddenly started to vibrate

"You can be honest with me. I don't want you to hide anything." Isaac could see the hesitation in her eyes

"I gave birth to my baby!" she blurted after plucking up the courage

Isaac pursed his lips. He already knew that. Camila had said this before

Judging from the lack of a reaction, Camila knew that he didn't understand

"I mean—"

"I don't care," Isaac said again

At this time, her phone kept buzzing relentlessly

Worried that it might be Rowena calling, she couldn't delay it any further. "Forget it."

She turned around to leave

Isaac stopped her abruptly

"Where are you going? Sleep next to me tonight," he said in a hoarse voice, his eyes burning with longing

"There's something I have to do," Camila said, refusing him

"What is it?"

"I have to call my mom. My dad's sick, remember? He really wants to see my mother, so I have to tell her." While this wasn't a lie, it wasn't the complete truth either

But she knew that Isaac wouldn't stop her if she used her parents as an excuse

After all, it was a serious matter

Sure enough, he let her go, albeit reluctantly. "Okay."

Then Camila walked out and retreated to her room

Closing the door behind her, she sat down on the edge of the bed and checked her phone

To her surprise, it wasn't Rowena who called, but Laura

After hesitating for a while, she called back

The call connected soon

"Mila?"

"Yeah?" As a friend, Camila also cared about Laura's relationship with Forrest. "How's everything going between you and Forrest?"

Laura fell silent. From the other end of the line, Camila could hear Laura sobbing softly

"Are you crying?" Camila asked vigilantly

Laura still didn't respond

Obviously, something was wrong

"What's going on?" Camila asked anxiously

On the verge of breaking down, Laura could barely communicate with

Camila

"Okay. Where are you?" Camila changed tactics

After a long time, Laura finally responded. "I'm at Forrest's house. Can you come and pick me up?"

Camila immediately agreed, but she didn't know where Forrest lived

She had never been there before

"Send me the location, okay? I'll be there soon."

Laura nodded tearfully

As soon as Camila hung up, she immediately went out of her room. Just then, Isaac also happened to leave his room. It seemed he was also going out

Their eyes met. Isaac opened his mouth first. "You're going out?" "Something happened to one of my friends. She asked me to pick her up,"

Camila explained. "Are you going out, too?"

"Yes."

While they both trotted down the stairs, Isaac asked, "Where are you going?" Camila showed him the location on her phone

Isaac stopped in his tracks and said, "Turns out we're going to the same place."

"Huh?"

Camila was confused. Then it occurred to her that Forrest and Isaac were friends. "Is Forrest looking for you, too?"

Isaac nodded. "Let's go together."

Camila followed him to the car obediently

Isaac drove, whereas Camila sat in the passenger seat

The two remained silent throughout the trip

They both wanted to say something, but neither of them knew what to say

After a while, Camila finally broke the silence. "My friend's name is Laura. She was in a relationship with Forrest before."

Isaac didn't pay too much attention to Forrest's private affairs, so he didn't know about Laura

Only now did he understand that the reason why Forrest was so depressed lately was that his relationship was on the rocks

"Are they breaking up right now? Is that why they called us?" he asked

with a frown

Camila didn't know how to describe the situation. "Well, Laura wanted to break up with him some time ago, but Forrest hasn't wanted to let her go

Rather, it seems he can't let her go."

Isaac nodded and fell silent. He didn't ask any more questions

It seemed that he didn't want to pry into other people's business

After a while, they arrived at their destination. Camila got off the car first, followed by Isaac

Forrest opened the door upon their arrival

He wasn't surprised to see the two show up together. After all, he was right beside Laura when she called Camila

He moved aside to let them pass. "Come in."

Camila went straight to Laura, who was sitting on the floor, leaning against the sofa with her face buried in her arms.

Camila squatted down in front of her and patted her back gently. "Laura, are you okay?"

Laura raised her head. Her eyes were red and puffy. It was obvious that she had been crying for a long time.

"Take me away from here," she said in a weak, hoarse voice

"Okay." Camila helped Laura stand up

Laura had cried so hard that she didn't have the strength to stand on her own. She had to lean on Camila as they headed towards the door

"You can go back home," Isaac said, handing the car keys to Camila

"Thank you."

Isaac nodded slightly

Back at the villa, Camila helped Laura to the sofa and gave her a glass of water to moisten her dry throat

Laura took two feeble sips

Seeing that they had a guest, Glenda came over and asked, "Mrs

Johnston, is this your friend?"

"Yes."

"Will she stay the night? I'm afraid Mr. Johnston—"

"Isaac knows about it."

This was Isaac's home. He didn't like strangers invading his home, and Glenda was worried that there would be misunderstandings between the couple again if he came home finding an uninvited guest. Camila knew what Glenda was thinking, so she patiently explained the situation to her

Hearing that, Glenda sighed in relief and said enthusiastically, "Okay! I'll clean up a guest room for your friend right now."

"Thank you, Glenda," Camila said gratefully

Glenda set out to arrange a room for Laura

By now, Laura had calmed down a little
"Are you okay?" Camila asked with concern
"No," Laura said bluntly, sniffing pitifully
"What happened?" Camila asked with a sigh Laura didn't intend to hide anything from her friend. After all, Camila
knew what had happened between her and Forrest
"Did you know that Forrest went to the tea house earlier for a blind date?"
"Yeah, he told me." Locking eyes with Laura, she asked carefully, "Did he botch the blind date because of you?"
--- The new chapters will update daily ---