

Mistaken Marriage, Unexpected Love

Chapter 133

Chapter 133 Who Caught Joe

Camila didn't believe Robin. After all, Stevie had clearly told her that Robin was the one who had ordered Joe's kidnapping

She blew through her mouth and tried to keep her composure. "Joe is Isaac's child. If you don't believe me, you can do a paternity test and see for yourself!" Robin slightly frowned as a look of disbelief flashed in his eyes. "What did you just say?"

"I said Joe is Isaac's child," Camila repeated, emphasizing each word

As soon as he heard this, Robin almost lost his balance.

Thankfully, one of the servants was quick enough to catch him

"Go and call Stevie! Hurry!" Robin ordered the servant

"Okay." After helping Robin back into his seat, the servant left and did as he was told

This time, it was Camila's turn to be confused. "You're not the one who kidnapped my child?"

"Why would I lie to you?" Robin responded. "While I did want you to bring Fidelia and Isaac together, I had nothing to do with what happened to your child. If I wanted to kidnap him, I would've asked someone to take him away directly last time in the villa. Besides, I owe your grandfather a debt of gratitude. I would never do something like that for his sake."

"Then why did Stevie kidnap my child and pretend that you were the one who gave the order?" Camila still couldn't piece together what was happening

As she mulled over the events in her head, the servant who went out to find Stevie returned in a hurry. "Master, bad news! Stevie is missing!"

the servant reported

"What?" Robin could no longer keep up his calm facade.

He stood up and urged,

"Go and find him!"

In an instant, Camila's face turned pale. She was in utter disbelief with everything that was happening. She staggered two steps back and almost stumbled. If Robin didn't know anything, then was her child in danger?

Left with no other choice, Camila gnashed her teeth and vowed to find Stevie herself

But before she could leave, Robin stopped her. "You have no idea where he is," he told her. "Where are you going to find him?"

"Am I just supposed to wait here and twiddle my thumbs?!" Camila snapped at him

Although Robin was old, he wasn't stupid. He didn't believe that Stevie would ever betray him. Something must've happened!

"Give me some time. I'll ask someone to look for him," Robin tried to assure her

However, his words failed to assuage Camila's growing panic. She couldn't just sit still and wait quietly for the news to come

"I'm going to look for him!" Camila insisted

Robin waved at the servant and told him to stop Camila.

"Will you be able to find him if you go out?" Robin asked her

"So you're telling me to do nothing?!" Camila's eyes were on the verge of tears

Her shoulders looked tense, as if she was having a hard time breathing. She couldn't bear to do nothing while her child was missing!

"I'll ask someone to find Stevie. Then, we can ask him ourselves what happened," Robin said. "It's no use being anxious now. If you go out like n aimless fly, do you think you'll get any results? As long as you give me some time to look for Stevie, everything will be clear!"

Even though Camila was aware of her impulsive nature, she still couldn't bring herself to calm down

After all, she wasn't sure whether her child's life was in danger or not

She was so restless that she couldn't help but pace back and forth in the room

"I promise you that I will find him," Robin assured her. He was confident in this promise because Stevie had been with him for a very long time. Robin felt like he knew Stevie like the back of his hand

Camila took a deep breath and began to calm down
She had never expected the turn of events
She studied Robin's face up close and felt that he wasn't lying

If that were the case, then who had ordered Stevie?

The same question ran in Robin's mind

Immediately, he thought of the family of his second son

After all, they had done something to Isaac before

Although Robin had warned them before to behave themselves, it wasn't impossible for them to start playing tricks in secret

"Does Isaac know about the baby?" Robin asked

"No," Camila answered

She hadn't told him yet

"Keep that a secret for the time being," Robin whispered.

"We don't know what's going on with the child. If he finds out now, he'll definitely act on impulse and do something dangerous. You don't want that, do you?"

"I don't." Camila pursed her lips

She was also aware of Isaac's temper

If he knew that the child was still alive, he would travel the ends of the earth just to look for him. @

At this time, one of the servants ran to the room. He was catching his breath when he reported, "Mr. Stevie's family is gone! They must've been transferred in advance!"

The look on Robin's face turned serious. He stood up and said, "Go out with me." Remembering Camila, he turned to her and said, "Wait for me here."

Camila kept her mouth shut and didn't say anything She couldn't bear to wait any longer. She had to go out herself and find her child Waiting here and doing nothing was like waiting for death!
Robin went to his second son's residence by car At the same time, Camila left the mansion. She stood by the door and mulled over the possible suspects who would've kidnapped her child While deep in thought, her phone suddenly rang As soon as she picked it up, she heard Rowena's voice on the other end of the line. "Mila, come back soon!" Rowena said. Her tone sounded urgent
"What's wrong?" Camila asked "Someone is looking for you! He's holding Joe as we speak!"
As soon as she learned of Joe's whereabouts, she squeezed the phone in her hand and steeled herself for the task ahead. "I'll be back soon," she answered
After hanging up, she booked a taxi on her phone immediately
At this time, a car came over. The door opened, and out came Willie
As soon as he saw Camila, he looked away Camila felt that Willie was acting strange. Why would he come at this hour?
With narrowed eyes, she asked him, "Why are you here?"
"I'm here to pick up something," Willie answered After that, he walked past Camila and entered the mansion

Camila didn't attempt to pry any further. The only thing running in her mind was Joe—anything else was considered trivial and not worth her attention

After all, nothing was more important than her child Soon, Willie came out holding a box in his hand When Camila saw this, she thought this box looked familiar

She remembered Robin saying that it was very important to Isaac

"Why are you taking that?" she asked curiously

Willie told her the truth. "Mr. Johnston had asked me to get it for Fidelia."

Camila almost gasped in shock

"Isn't that very important to him?" she asked

"No matter how precious it is, it's just an item. Miss Haynes, I may not have time to go to your company in the future. If you need any help, you'd better ask someone else," Willie said. The entire time, he actively evaded Camila's gaze

After that, he got into the car

Before he could drive away, Camila chased after him.

"Willie! What did you mean by that?"

"Mr. Johnston had asked me to do so. I'm just following his orders. If you have any questions, you can ask him directly." Then, he twisted the keys in the ignition

"Isaac ordered you?" Camila repeated Willie let out a long, melancholic sigh. "Mr. Johnston treats you well. In fact, you're the one he has most patience with. Ever since I started working for him, I've never seen him love another woman more than he had loved you However, you ran away and pushed him into another woman's arms time and time again. I think Mr. Johnston has already given up on you."

"So is he flirting with Fidelia now? By giving his most precious possession to her?" she asked, her voice on the brink of breaking

"I don't know," Willie replied. "I'm just doing what I'm told. If you have any questions, you can ask Mr. Johnston yourself."

After saying that, Willie stepped on the gas pedal and drove forward

As Camila watched the car speed into the distance, her face turned pale. Was it true that Isaac wanted to divorce her now?

Not only that, he was also starting to please another woman not long after they had that confrontation in the parking lot. He was even willing to give her his most prized possession!

A bitter smile flashed on Camila's face. Although Isaac had said he liked her, he never gave her anything as precious as that box

That meant Fidelia was more important to him, right?

With this in mind, she couldn't stop the tears from flowing in her eyes

With a sniffle, she wiped her face with the back of her hand and forced herself to look strong

Indeed, men were fickle creature. Isaac was probably the most fickle among all of them

Perhaps he had grown tired of her

And here she was, still hoping that she could be with him.
What a fool!

After wiping her face dry, she looked up and stared straight ahead. Such a man did not deserve her sadness, nor did he deserve to be the father of her child

Right now, she didn't have time to cry for such a man. There was something more important that she had to do: finding her child as soon as possible!

The taxi that she had hailed finally arrived. She quickly got in and headed straight home. As soon as she entered the door, she asked anxiously, "Who kidnapped Joe?"

Before Rowena could answer, a man in the living room stood up. "It's me," he said
