

Chapter 116 Wishful Thinking

Camila knew that rich young people like him, who had never been through hard times, were terrified of dying

“Let me go,” she demanded with a calm look

Ryder replied, “I don’t believe you have the guts to kill me.”

He did not think that a girl like Camila would be so daring

But he failed to realize that a doctor who dared to use a scalpel could not be timid

The blade slashed through his skin. 4

Ryder was terrified as he felt the sharp pain and touched the warm, wet blood

“You, you, you really dare kill...”

He could not even finish a sentence out of fear

“You want to ruin my reputation. If I still don’t fight back, I couldn’t blame anyone else for it.” For someone who had to hold scalpels all the time, Camila controlled her hand strength well. For this reason, Ryder had a lot of pain and blood that seemed severe but posed no real danger to his life

It had something to do with the location of the cut she had chosen

As a doctor, she knew all about how the human body works

So, she knew where it would be fatal. And where it was safe to cut him

“I simply want to leave something on you in case you back out of your words. It is not my intention to harm you. Do not take the pictures if you do not want to!” Eventually, Ryder decided to give up and submit

Camila increased the force to hurt him more as she said, “Just let me leave here!”

“Didn’t you say that you would fight against Isaac with me?” Ryder still thought that she held a grudge against Isaac!

Camila scoffed and asked, “You believe what I said?”

“You lied to me? But I do know that he treats you badly.”

“He is not good to me. But if I ever feel the need for revenge, I would do it myself. I hate working with other people. That’s all.” She forced Ryder to move toward the door. “Open the door.”

When Ryder hesitated momentarily, Camila made him feel like death was right before him

He opened the door quickly

As the guys at the door realized Ryder was a hostage, they became hypervigilant and gazed at her with murderous eyes

Realizing that his neck was bleeding, Ryder had no intention of fighting Camila. He told his subordinates, “Do not come over. Let her go.”

Camila took Ryder downstairs

The hall was packed with people. She took the chance to run away after pushing Ryder away

She ran so fast that she could not clearly see what was around her. She bumped into a man who was coming in through the door

When she looked up to say she was sorry, she saw Isaac standing before her

She looked startled, and her eyelids fluttered. “Are... Are you looking for me?”

Isaac’s face was blank and not as kind as it had been before. It was almost cold

He turned his attention away from her and toward Ryder, who was protecting his neck not far away, but said nothing

Ryder was unable to shake his fear. Since his neck was bleeding, he was afraid he would die. He yelled, “Call the emergency services! Quickly! Are they fking dead?”

Just looking at Ryder, Isaac could guess how he got hurt

He lowered her eyes to look at Camila, and turned around without a word

Camila was very confused!

Just what was his problem?

Did he get angry again?

Camila followed him while biting her lower lip

She did not try to talk to Isaac because she thought he was strange. Even though she was now safe, he still managed to embarrass her before she could sigh relief

Unfortunately for him, she was not in the mood to please him

When she was about to open the car door, Isaac, who was already in the car, said to Willie, “Let’s go.”

Willie spared Camila a helpless glance and stepped on the accelerator

Camila stayed still, and she got a whiff of tail gas!

She made a tight frown

Just what was Isaac getting at?

Did he regret having been in love with her?

If he regretted it, he could tell her directly

How could he use subtle violence?

She took a taxi to get home

Glenda greeted her as soon as she got to the villa and asked, "Mrs

Johnston, where have you been?"

She thought Camila had disappeared again

Camila told her that she had gone out for something and then went upstairs

When she got back to her room, she took out her phone. It showed a missed call

It was from Laura

She then called her back

Not long after, it was picked up

"Mila." Laura nervously called her

"I'm here," Camila responded

"Are you okay? When I could not reach you, it made me worry."

"I am fine. Did you come here? Where are you at this time? I'm going to see you," Camila said

"I have work to do now, but I have time tonight. Call me after six, and we will make an appointment," Laura replied

"Okay." After that, Camila asked, "How about my mother and Joe?" "Well, they live in my place. So you don't have to worry about a thing." "Okay."

Camila had really missed them, especially Joe. They had been separated from each other as soon as she gave birth to him

She wanted to embrace him even more now

“Madam, I have made some food for you. Come down and eat some.”

Glenda suddenly came up

Laura heard the voice and said goodbye from the other end of the phone

“Now that I know you are safe, I can relax. Hang up the phone first. Let’s talk again later tonight.” “Okay.” Camila finally hung up and went downstairs with Glenda

Isaac was already sitting down at the table

She hesitated

“Mrs. Johnston.” Seeing that Camila was not moving, Glenda said, “Mrs

Johnston, it’s time to eat.”

Camila quickly changed her mood and walked over

She pulled the chair out and sat next to Isaac

Isaac had not looked at her since she came. He took the fork without hurrying

Camila could no longer hold back her feelings. “If you regret, just say it

You should not be so indifferent. I’m not a person who will pester you.” She was well aware that Isaac would never accept a lady who was not a virgin and had a child

It was just her wishful thinking before

She thought she could have a relationship with him

Isaac’s face turned cold. Without blinking, he lifted his gaze and stared at her

“Where did you learn to make baseless accusations, Camila? How did you get so good at it?”

When he returned the night before, she was nowhere to be seen

He even saw the card on his desk with the letter that said, “Isaac, I want to divorce you.”

He thought Camila had run away again at that time

And he was so furious that he almost passed out

He spent all night sitting there and did not sleep

Finally, he could not take it any longer and headed out to search for her

Soon after, he learned that she had left that night with Trudy

He followed the clue and finally found the hotel

The fact that he suddenly showed up at the hotel was not coincidental

A puzzled Camila asked, "What are you talking about?"

Why couldn't she figure it out?

Isaac thought what she said was funny

How could she pretend to be innocent?

"You gave the card back to me, right? You were the one who wrote the divorce note, right? What? Why is it that you are suddenly pretending you know nothing? You have the guts to do it but not the balls to admit it?"

Camila slapped her forehead in frustration. And how could she possibly forget it?

When she saw Isaac holding Fidelia the day before, she was so mad that she wrote him a note

She probably would have forgotten about it if Isaac had not brought it up

Was that what made him so mad?

"Well..."

"It's me," Camila confessed

The moment she was done talking

The expression on Isaac's face darkened

In fact, it was even colder than just now!
