

Chapter 581 Suicide Bomb

In an instant, Liam's figure shot forward. With a cold tone, he confronted the three men. "Leaving so soon? Did you bother to ask for my permission?"

The faces of the two bodyguards who immediately halted, turned dark. There was really no way they could match Liam's undeniable strength.

With a malevolent glint in his eyes, Dark Fiend muttered, "You're aware that he's a noble descendant of the Duncan family, right? Taking him on means making enemies of both Black Spider and the Duncan family. You should consider if you can bear the consequences."

Without further words, both of them dashed out with Cannon.

However, at this moment, Liam had blocked the exit. He remained resolute, showing no fear towards Dark Fiend's intimidation.

The bodyguards paled as their attempts at intimidation fell flat against Liam's unyielding stance.

It looked like there was only one option left. At this moment, Dark Fiend's mind was made up!

Unbeknownst to them, Fuller, lurking nearby, was also devising his own plan.

Although not a professional assassin, he understood that Liam's power exceeded the capability of Cannon's guards. Their attempt to leverage the Duncan family's might to threaten Liam had further confirmed this.

As Cannon aimed to escape, Fuller had no intention of staying behind.

He was quite smart. His experience in battling Liam multiple times taught him to always have an escape plan.

Meanwhile, the two bodyguards and Liam were involved in a battle again.

As top-level killers, both bodyguards were not reckless. While they fought, Black Fiend's face grew dark. He suddenly withdrew to Cannon's side, leaving Dark Fiend to face Liam alone.

Only with their combined efforts did they stand a chance against Liam's might. But with Black Fiend stepping aside, Dark Fiend faced an insurmountable challenge.

A fierce blow landed on Dark Fiend's face. He absorbed the formidable impact and refused to yield despite blood running out of his mouth. With determination, he grasped Liam's hand!

Liam's countenance changed as he saw Dark Fiend quickly pull something on his abdomen and a fuse ignited.

Boom!

A small bomb hidden in Dark Fiend's abdomen exploded immediately!

This triggered a chaotic collapse of the dungeon. Smoke engulfed the shaking dungeon as a result of the explosion.

Black Fiend was wounded but he managed to pull up Cannon and escape from the chaos.

And the well-prepared Fuller fled to a pre-arranged helicopter outside.

Compared to Clarence, Fuller had a strong instinct for self-preservation. He always had an escape plan.

When the dust finally settled in the nearly crumbled dungeon, Liam scowled and his gaze turned cold as he saw Dark Fiend's broken form.

He acted swiftly and evaded harm from the explosion. Nonetheless, Dark Fiend's desperate attempt facilitated Cannon's and Fuller's escape.

A tinge of irritation gnawed at Liam as he couldn't eliminate them this time. Allowing them to slip away would only escalate the underlying conflict.

But that was a tale for another day. Presently, the priority was to get Ulises to the hospital.

At this point, Julie was on the verge of collapse. Although besieged by numerous questions, she was consumed by worry for her father, Ulises.

Struggling to keep steady, she knelt and assessed him. When she placed a finger under his nose, she detected a faint breath.

Meanwhile, Yesenia crouched nearby, but it was as though she faded into the background as no one paid attention to her.
