

The Mans Decree Chapter 2731 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2731-“Let me contact Kai again. Lead the men to gather all of the resources. If Hosen really bursts in, we’ll burn all the resources and make sure he gets nothing,” ordered Viola.

She had already made up her mind. If Hosen charged in and they were unable to stop him, she would demolish the entire base of Emerald Cauldron Sect.

“Understood...” Ghaylen nodded and left with his men.

At that moment, Kai was hurrying toward Emerald Cauldron Sect. He was traveling so fast that he was practically invisible.

Time passed, and very soon, hours had gone by. However, there was still no sign of Ghaylen and Sigurd.

“Mr. Holt, hours have passed. How long more do we have to wait?” asked Zsolt impatiently.

There was no response from Hosen. He looked at the sect with a frown.

For some reason, he felt something was amiss. After all, Ghaylen was not a man who would yield so easily.

Furthermore, he possessed the knowledge to open the medicinal treasury. Why would he give up so easily?

Throughout Hosen’s term as a sect leader, Ghaylen had never once surrendered. In fact, he had even set up a base on his own outside the sect.

Why would Ghaylen surrender to Ebenezer in such a short amount of time?

Hosen could not understand.

All of a sudden, he widened his eyes and came to a realization. “D*mn it! We’ve been duped...”

“General Kinsley, break the formation now! I have been fooled by those two! Sigurd, my eldest disciple, lied to me. Once I enter, I will rip them into pieces,” hollered Hosen in anger.

Zsolt immediately waved his hands, and the runes flew up once again.

Next, golden rays shone on the Mountain Defense Formation. Very soon, cracks began to appear on the formation.

Rumble...

With a loud explosion, the Mountain Defense Formation completely collapsed. Hosen and his men charged into the Emerald Cauldron Sect at once.

When Viola and Ghaylen heard the rumbling, they knew that the Mountain Defense Formation had been destroyed.

Viola took her men and stationed them at the main hall entrance while Ghaylen and Sigurd took some men and stood right in front.

When Hosen rushed in and saw Viola being protected in the middle, realization dawned on him.

“All of you lied to me. Today, I will rip you into pieces...”

Hosen was so furious that his aura kept soaring.

“Hosen, how dare you collaborate with outsiders and attack Emerald Cauldron Sect! This is treason. Do you wish to die like Ebenezer? He has already been killed. Anyone who plans to mess with Emerald Cauldron Sect will have to die...” said Viola coldly.

“Who the hell cares about Ebenezer? Today, I brought with me General Kinsley from Norwal City. He has achieved Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm. Ebenezer was nothing compared to him. Obey me if you wish to live. Those who submit to me, come over right now. Otherwise, I will show no mercy...” said Hosen to the disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect.

The disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect exchanged glances and remained still, which infuriated Hosen.

“Fine! Since you ask for it, I shall gladly oblige...”

He leaped into the air, and an unstoppable murderous intent rose with him.

Ghaylen froze and tensed up. At that moment, he was the only one who was Hosen’s match.

“Hosen, don’t be so arrogant...”

Likewise, Ghaylen did the same thing and emanated a horrendous aura in an instant as well.

Both Hosen and Ghaylen threw a punch in mid-air.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2732 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2732-Boom...

There was a loud explosion, and the ground shook. All they could see was dust everywhere.

A figure flew out of the dust and slammed into the ground.

Everyone looked over and saw that it was Ghaylen. He was in bad shape and coughing out blood.

“Ghaylen, even though we are both at the same level, you are still weaker than me. Today, I’ll slaughter everyone who has betrayed me!”

As Hosen said that, he swept a glance across the room, a cold glint in his eyes.

“Fellow disciples, protect Ms. Warwick with your lives!” Sigurd shouted all of a sudden. All the disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect quickly moved in front of Viola.

When Hosen saw that, he said through gritted teeth, “Sigurd, you’re my disciple, yet you betrayed me. I’m going to kill you and send you to hell...”

Hosen’s aura kept rising. The very next moment, he sent a punch flying toward Sigurd.

His attack caused a huge storm. It was so unbearable that several of the disciples of Emerald Cauldron Sect fell to the ground.

Sigurd’s eyes were filled with determination as he faced the massive storm.

Technically, he was no match for Hosen. There was no way he could withstand Hosen’s attack. Despite that, he did not try to hide.

He was prepared to meet his demise.

Just as the storm was about to hit Sigurd, a shadow clone stood in front of him followed by a flash of white light. The storm vanished the moment it hit the white light.

“Mr. Chance...” Sigurd called out excitedly when he saw who his savior was.

Kai smiled and asked Viola, “Am I late?”

Viola shook her head. “No, you’re just in time...”

“Kai?”

The moment Hosen saw Kai, colors drained from his face.

“Hosen, are you asking for trouble? How dare you attack Emerald Cauldron Sect! Let me tell you something. Emerald Cauldron Sect is under my protection. Don’t ever try to have any ideas on Emerald Cauldron Sect again,” warned Kai with a face full of disdain.

Hosen frowned and stared at Kai angrily. “Such a big talker! Looks like you have reached Body Fusion Realm too. But you are still new to it. How dare you talk to me like this! I think you’re sick and tired of living...”

Hosen sent a punch flying in Kai’s direction. His hatred for Kai had never ceased.

“Since you look down on me, let me show you the power of a newly-promoted Body Fusion Realm cultivator!”

As Kai spoke, he clenched his right fist, and a ray of golden light erupted from it.

“Sacred Light Fist...”

Kai also sent out a punch.

Boom!

The two fists collided with sparks flying everywhere.

Hosen felt an immense strength hitting his chest hard. It was as if a train had hit him.

Upon impact, Hosen flew backward. Many of his bones shattered, and blood began oozing out.

Hosen slammed onto the ground in front of Zsolt and the other soldiers. They saw that Hosen looked pale, and his arm was out of shape. It was apparent that it was broken.

Zsolt and those soldiers were dumbstruck. Hosen was a cultivator at Third Level Body Fusion Realm, and Kai had just reached Body Fusion Realm. Why couldn't Hosen withstand Kai's blow?

It simply did not make sense.

Hosen was trying hard to catch his breath. He got up from the ground with much difficulty and eyed Kai in disbelief.

"How could this happen? It's impossible..."

Hosen could not believe that he had been seriously injured by Kai's punch.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2733 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2733-"Now, do you still dare to look down on me, a newly-promoted Body Fusion Realm cultivator?" Kai sneered.

"I understand now. You're the reason why Viola successfully became the sect leader and why Ebenezer was killed!" Hosen said. There was no way they could've defeated Ebenezer and the other Demonic Cultivators on their own! It must've been because of him that they achieved victory!

"You grasped the situation too late. Today, you shall fall under the crowd's blade just as Mr. Erdell did!" said Kai.

Hosen cackled. "You're underestimating me! You may be able to defeat me, but I have the general from Norwal City on my side this time! General Kinsley is a cultivator at Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm! I doubt you're powerful enough to beat him!" Then, he turned to Zsolt. "General Kinsley, please help me slay this b*stard! Once I've taken down Emerald Cauldron Sect, you may pick whatever resources or pills you want from it!"

Zsolt grinned greedily at that.

“No problem. He’s but a new Body Fusion Realm cultivator. While he’s capable of battling against people of a higher level, I doubt he can beat me.” Zsolt promptly stepped forward, his terrifying aura immediately changing the color of the sky.

An invisible aura choked the members of Emerald Cauldron Sect, causing them to writhe in agony.

Upon sensing the aura exploding from Zsolt’s body, Kai smiled and waved his hand.

A huge wave of spiritual energy crushed Zsolt’s aura, which allowed the Emerald Cauldron Sect members to breathe again.

Zsolt narrowed his eyes. “You’re quite impressive, kid.”

“Oh, you’ll know just how much impressive I am when I take your life,” Kai taunted.

“What arrogance! Looks like I must teach you a lesson!” Zsolt lunged toward Kai like a beast.

As he moved, his body transformed into that of a leopard’s. The surrounding space began to tremble as he traveled through the void and immediately appeared before Kai.

That shocking scene startled the crowd. To think he can traverse the void! He must be incredibly fast!

“Be careful, Kai!” shouted Viola because she knew how much pressure Kai was facing with a cultivator at Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm as his opponent.

Kai merely smiled at her and assured her with a gesture. He didn’t view Zsolt as a legitimate threat.

Seeing how relaxed Kai was enraged Zsolt further.

“Runic Punch!” exclaimed Zsolt before the runes on his body and his fist, which was densely covered in them, lit up.

“A charm master, eh?” Kai’s lips quirked up. He used Dragonslayer Sword to block his opponent’s attack.

Bam!

The earth shook as both combatants were forced three steps back.

Even though both of them seemed to have equal strength, Zsolt was the attacking party, so he technically lost.

He stared at Dragonslayer Sword in disbelief. “Dragonslayer Sword? To think you possess a divine weapon from Divine Smithing Sect. No wonder it could block my punch.”

Kai did not expect Zsolt, a demon beast, to actually recognize Dragonslayer Sword.

“I didn’t expect you to be familiar with Dragonslayer Sword. But you should be honored that you’ll die under this sword!”

Kai stepped forward and swung Dragonslayer Sword, shooting a massive light at Zsolt.

Zsolt threw a punch to block the attack, afraid of Dragonslayer Sword’s power. However, his body was still pushed backward.

Hosen frowned when he saw that Zsolt was forced back by Kai’s weapon.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2734 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2734-Just as Zsolt kept moving backward and had yet to find his balance, Kai launched another attack.

He flung a second terrifying light with Dragonslayer Sword at Zsolt again. Zsolt was terrified and furious. After all, he, a cultivator at Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm, was losing against Kai, a new Body Fusion Realm cultivator. He could not even take a breather.

He let out a roar, creating an invisible shield in front of him.

When Kai’s light landed violently on the shield, it shattered at once.

That overwhelming power caused Zsolt to lose his balance and be thrown backward by a dozen meters before stopping.

At that moment, Zsolt appeared disheveled and pathetic.

The crowd went silent. Zsolt was a cultivator at Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm. His might was obvious to everyone. Otherwise, he wouldn't have become the general of Norwal City.

Yet, someone like him was beaten by Kai. He didn't even have an opportunity to retaliate before he was blasted away.

Hosen felt as though he was losing his mind. Kai has only become a Body Fusion Realm cultivator recently! How the heck is he winning against someone as strong as General Kinsley?

At that moment, Kai was holding his weapon with one hand, looking at Zsolt coldly. "Didn't you want to teach me a lesson? Are you teaching me how badly someone from Norwal City can lose to me?"

First, my Divine Bow was stolen by Mole Monster of Norwal City. Then, Xandros kept targeting me and even tried to kill me by working with Tigerus! Now, Hosen brought an army from Norwal City to attack Emerald Cauldron Sect. It's clear to me that Norwal City is my enemy! Since they're my adversary, I have no reason to be merciful to anyone from there!

Zsolt felt as though he was slapped by a giant hand when he heard Kai's words.

He was enraged because Kai had only recently become a Body Fusion Realm cultivator. To him, Kai was but an insignificant character he should've been able to eliminate handily.

Even when Kai had won against Hosen, Zsolt still looked down on Kai. Yet, the person he regarded as unworthy of his attention was making him lose badly.

"Kai may not look like he's at a high level, but his true might is immeasurable. You mustn't be careless, General Kinsley!" Hosen advised in a panic. Hosen was spinning Zsolt's defeat as the latter being careless in order to protect his dignity.

"Don't worry. I won't be careless again. If I hadn't lowered my guard earlier, I wouldn't have been forced back and fallen to the ground. This time, I won't make the same mistake!" Zsolt lunged toward Kai like an arrow shot from a bow.

As Zsolt delivered his formidable punch, strong winds were produced. Kai merely sneered. He pointed Dragonslayer Sword forward and didn't even look at Zsolt properly.

It didn't matter if Zsolt was being careless or not because Kai wasn't afraid of his opponent.

Besides, Kai still possessed Dragonslayer Sword while Zsolt was only using his fists. Therefore, Kai was even less fearful of his adversary.

When Zsolt saw the mocking smile on Kai's countenance, he was all the more livid. He aimed his mighty fist directly at Kai.

Kai swung Dragonslayer Sword, creating a shimmering, golden light. The projectile was instantly shot out from the blade.
The light was incredibly sharp, tearing through Zsolt's fist cyclone like butter and zipping straight toward Zsolt.
Zsolt was thoroughly alarmed. At that moment, he unleashed all of his strength with his next punch. It had enough power to potentially destroy the entire Emerald Cauldron Sect.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2735 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2735-However, that terrifying blow was effortlessly thwarted by Kai through a swing of the sword.

Utter shock flooded Zsolt. He hastily retracted his hand and fended off the attack. Otherwise, he would have been cut in half by that strike.

Clang!

A loud bang split the air as the light from the sword landed on the shield he unleashed, the immense recoil causing him to stumble back immediately.

Before he could regain his balance, another ray of light came from Kai.

He promptly waved his hands, forming shield after shield in front of him to block Kai's attack.

Alas, it was all to no avail. He kept stumbling back, but Kai's attacks continued incessantly as the man slashed ray after ray of light at him.

In the end, he was once again defeated. He toppled to the ground and rolled a distance away.

Seeing that Zsolt had been thoroughly defeated, Kai finally stopped attacking. This time, he held the man at sword-point and drawled, "Well? Were you careless again this time?"

That question had Zsolt flush bright red at once. At the side, Viola and the others burst into laughter.

After witnessing the ease with which Kai dealt with Zsolt, they relaxed and watched the showdown with great interest.

On the contrary, Hosen and the beast soldiers from Norwal City appeared as grim as ever when they saw Zsolt rolling back to them like a bowling pin once more, just like earlier.

Zsolt slowly struggled to his feet. The humiliation written all over his face receded, only to be replaced by fury. His eyes blazed with savagery.

“You were still too careless, General Kinsley. Kai has a weapon, but you’re unarmed. Aren’t you clearly at a disadvantage?”

Once again, Hosen came up with a reason to salvage Zsolt’s pride.

Nonetheless, no one there was a fool. Zsolt was a Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator, so he could have easily defeated someone who had just recently attained Body Fusion Realm even barehanded. In the current situation, it was clear that he was inferior to Kai.

“Indeed, I was at a slight disadvantage without a weapon. Besides, the sword in Kai’s hand is the Dragonslayer Sword, a divine weapon. If he hadn’t a divine weapon, I would’ve beaten him to a pulp!” Zsolt seconded, knowing that Hosen was trying to help recoup his pride.

“You think it was my Dragonslayer Sword that defeated you?” Kai sneered. With a wave of his hand, Dragonslayer Sword disappeared. “In that case, I won’t use it. How about I go barehanded as well?”

That action of his instantly stunned Zsolt. Never had he expected the man to do such a thing.

“How dare you humiliate me, Kai? I’m going to kill you!” he roared.

“Haha, so what if I do? Earlier, you threatened to kill me multiple times too. Am I not still standing here now, alive and well?” Kai guffawed with derision etched across his features.

Zsolt grew so livid that he almost burst a blood vessel. With innumerable people bearing witness, including the many beast soldiers under his command, he felt mortified to the core.

“You’ve completely enraged me, Kai. I’ll give you a taste of the consequences!” he hissed through gritted teeth, his eyes narrowed and his face contorted into a mask of murder.

“I’ve been doing that all along. If you have any other ace up your sleeve, go ahead and unleash it. Even without Dragonslayer Sword, I can still wipe the floor with you. If you don’t wish to die in disgrace, you can take your own life by self-destructing. Then, you’ll go out with a bang and die a glorious death!” Kai continued provoking and mocking the man.

At long last, Zsolt snapped. Feeling as though his lungs were about to rupture, he let out a resounding bellow. In a flash, the runes on his body flew into the air. On the heels of that, several rays of light shone on him, and he started trembling unceasingly.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2736 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2736-“Beast Blood Empowerment? He’s activating Beast Blood Empowerment, Mr. Chance. You must be careful!” Ghaylen shouted at Kai upon seeing Zsolt in his present condition.

“Beast Blood Empowerment?” Kai was wholly lost, oblivious as to the kind of technique it was.

“Beast Blood Empowerment is a secret technique that burns the blood essence of one’s ancestors within one’s body to boost one’s combat prowess. The beast race retains part of their ancestors’ genes and blood essence, and burning it can enhance their capabilities during battle. But the downside is the stagnation of their capabilities. Some even experience a regress in capabilities and grow depressed before dying in despair,” Ghaylen explained.

When Kai heard that, understanding dawned upon him. Ah, it’s the same principle as humans burning their blood essence!

“I want you dead, Kai. Even if it means sacrificing my life, I can’t allow you to insult my ancestors’ legacy!”

Following Zsolt’s furious cry, the runes in mid-air fell onto his body. Immediately after, they rapidly fused with every inch of his skin. From a distance, the dense runes resembled bugs wriggling all over him.

Right then, his aura surged wildly. Everyone from Emerald Cauldron Sect could sense the pressure coming from him.

The beast soldiers gazed at him in reverence. Not every member of the beast race could execute Beast Blood Empowerment. Although it would destroy one's cultivation entirely, it represented the beast race's indomitable spirit of resolution and sacrifice.

"Let us help you, Mr. Chance. I'm afraid you're no longer his match."

Ghaylen, Viola, and the others stepped forward.

Seeing that, Hosen likewise stepped forward with the beast soldiers. A fierce battle was imminent.

"Step back. With your capabilities, you likely won't even be able to draw close to him."

Kai waved a hand, signaling Ghaylen and the others to back away.

Despite his words, none of those from Emerald Cauldron Sect felt insulted, for they knew he was merely speaking the truth. If a fight broke out for real, they would have no way of approaching, considering Zsolt's capabilities.

Viola, on the other hand, had her eyes pinned on Kai, worry lingering within her.

"I believe in Mr. Chance, Ms. Warwick. He'll definitely be fine," Sigurd said just then.

In his eyes, Kai was already the epitome of omnipotence and could overcome everything.

Viola nodded. She stared at Kai, who was not all that tall yet radiated unparalleled dominance. The sense of arrogance was in his bones, and he remained fearless even in the face of Zsolt's Beast Blood Empowerment.

At that very moment, only Kai himself knew he was not all that confident as Zsolt's capabilities skyrocketed under Beast Blood Empowerment.

However, he could not exhibit the slightest trace of panic then. He was presently the pillar of strength for all members of Emerald Cauldron Sect, and the disciples would likely plunge into turmoil if he were to look anxious.

Buzz!

A tremor filled the void. The runes on Zsolt came to a stop, and rays of light enveloped the man. By then, his aura had already soared to a terrifying cultivation level.

“You forced me to activate Beast Blood Empowerment, Kai. I’m going to make your life a living hell!”

After Zsolt had been through Beast Blood Empowerment, his voice was beyond rough. It sounded like thunder, booming and deafening.

His face was also a contorted mask, rendering him exceedingly terrifying.

“Bring it on. I’ve had enough of your boasting!” Kai taunted with disdain written all over his face.

“Die!”

Zsolt gave a great roar before stomping his right leg on the ground. Like a ball of fire, he launched himself at the man.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2737-When Zsolt attacked, the crowd could clearly feel that his terrifying power had reached an even greater height.

Kai took a deep breath. With the aid of Beast Blood Empowerment, Zsolt’s might had far surpassed Kai’s expectations. Kai dared not hold back anymore.

Buzz...

As the air shook, a gigantic bell appeared above Kai’s head. An overwhelming wave of aura shot toward the sky before wrapping itself around Kai.

When the Dragon Bell appeared, the aura emitted from it enveloped Kai tightly. The space around Kai trembled because of the Dragon Bell’s presence.

The crowd couldn’t help but stare at the Dragon Bell above Kai’s head in shock.

Ghaylen and the others had witnessed Kai using the Dragon Bell. After all, it was because of the Dragon Bell that Kai had successfully subdued the ultimate demon beast inside Octo Ruler.

Gazing at the Dragon Bell above Kai's head, Zsolt couldn't help but furrow his eyebrows. He could vividly detect a type of beast race aura radiating from the Dragon Bell.

"Die!" Kai roared. Dragonslayer Sword once again emerged in his hand, and he swung it at Zsolt.

At the same time, a wave of powerful aura exploded from the Dragon Bell above Kai. It cloaked itself around him, providing him with formidable protection.

Bang!

Kai's light slammed against Zsolt violently, generating a deafening explosion as a result.

The destructive power of that blast tore the earth apart, causing rocks and sand to be catapulted in all directions.

The immense impact of the clash led to the collapse of the surrounding buildings.

"Everyone, hide!" shouted Ghaylen before retreating back.

Many used spiritual energy to defend themselves, but some were still launched away by the shockwave.

Even Hosen and the beast soldiers weren't spared.

At that moment, plenty of individuals vomited blood and flew far away because of the shockwave.

Everyone was horrified. If they could barely shield themselves from the residual impact of the battle, they definitely didn't have the ability to tackle any of the two individuals locked in combat.

Ghaylen, Viola, and the others realized right then why Kai had barred them from helping him.

Rocks and stones continued to shoot in the air as the earth quaked, and gullies appeared.

The crowd continued to back away. Amidst the loud rumbling, they could barely see the battle between Kai and Zsolt anymore.

Ding...

There was a loud chime, like the sound of something striking hard on top of a bell.

When the dust settled, the crowd saw that Zsolt had successfully overcome Kai's light and landed a punch on Kai's body.

However, Kai was defended by the Dragon Bell's power, so it was as if Zsolt's attack had made contact with the bell itself.

Even with the protection of the Dragon Bell, Kai still felt as if his internal organs had been reshuffled. He grimaced.

Zsolt couldn't help but frown, too. He didn't expect that the punch had failed to severely injure Kai even with Beast Blood Empowerment.

He glanced at the Dragon Bell, knowing that it was the reason Kai was fine.

Just as Zsolt stared at the Dragon Bell, it abruptly swelled in size and levitated toward him, intending to trap him.

Zsolt was startled upon seeing that and dodged backward.

While he didn't know what kind of weapon the Dragon Bell was, he had a feeling that if he was caged inside it, he would have a bad time.

A moment later, he transformed into a leopard and bolted away, completely vanishing from the crowd's line of sight.

Kai frowned and muttered something, spiritual energy exploding from his body.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2738 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2738-Soon, the space around Kai started twisting before pillars of light manifested. Then, those beams of light crisscrossed each other, enveloping Kai and Zsolt within.

That was the arcane array set up by Kai. Whenever Zsolt transformed into a leopard, his greatest ability was his speed. Kai planned to seal Zsolt within a confined space.

If Zsolt had virtually infinite space to move around in, then it would be extremely difficult for Kai to catch his opponent. With the aid of Beast Blood Empowerment, Zsolt's speed had reached an even greater height, making him appear as though he was teleporting.

When Zsolt spotted the beams of light caging him, his expression shifted. "You know how to set up arcane arrays too?"

"I know many things, and today you'll get to see them all!" Kai unleashed the Power of Dragons on Dragonslayer Sword.

A flame rose on Dragonslayer Sword. Although the burning flame was small, its temperature was suffocatingly intimidating.

Kai had used demonic fire on Dragonslayer Sword. He refused to believe that the combination of the Dragon Bell, Dragonslayer Sword, and demonic fire would fail to help him defeat Zsolt.

Zsolt snorted. "You know quite a lot. However, the gap between our strengths isn't something that can be closed with a few weapons and secret techniques!"

Ignoring his opponent, Kai shot a light from Dragonslayer Sword, which was mixed with demonic fire, at Zsolt. Meanwhile, the Dragon Bell above him continued to chase after Zsolt.

Zsolt remained composed. Seeing that the Dragon Bell and light were about to arrive before him, he vanished into thin air.

Kai missed his attack. He searched for Zsolt and noticed the latter had reemerged on the other side.

Zsolt cackled. "It's useless! You'll never harm me!"

He had moved so fast that, even though he had already relocated elsewhere, others still saw him standing at his original spot.

That was why Kai's attack fell short.

He summoned the Dragon Bell back to above his head. Its power continued to shield him.

As he thought about how to deal with Zsolt's frightening speed, he frowned. He had considered using Nine Shadows. It'd allow him to attack in many directions at once, so no matter where Zsolt escaped to, he'd be able to hit him.

Unfortunately, Nine Shadows would drain his spiritual energy quickly, so he wouldn't be able to keep it up for long.

Just as Kai was at a loss for what to do, he abruptly recalled Octo Ruler. His eyes lit up before he took out Octo Ruler. When the gemstone on Octo Ruler glimmered, beasts leaped out of it.

The roars of the beasts shook the entire mountain range where Emerald Cauldron Sect was located.

Zsolt, upon seeing the sudden appearance of beasts, was startled. After all, he didn't expect Kai to be hiding more divine weapons.

"Attack!" commanded Kai. Along with his beasts, he launched an assault at Zsolt with his sword in his hand.

No one could watch the battle unfolding in the arcane array clearly. All they saw were shadows clashing against each other.

By relying on various divine weapons and demonic fire, Kai was actually keeping up with Zsolt's might.

Unfortunately, Kai's spiritual energy was depleting rapidly. That was the cost of using so many divine weapons and demonic fire at once. He didn't know how much longer he would last.

At that moment, Zsolt was filled with horror. Although he was the general of Norwal City, he didn't possess a single divine weapon.

Meanwhile, Kai was only a new Body Fusion Realm cultivator, yet he already had many divine weapons.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2739 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2739-Zsolt stared at Dragonslayer Sword, the Dragon Bell, Octo Ruler, and demonic fire, feeling bitter. God*mmmit! This is so unfair! Why does he have so many magical items?

The battle between the two raged on. Kai was panicking hard. All this consumption was not a solution at all.

“I guess I’ll have to use that thing...” muttered Kai before he retreated from the battlefield, allowing the beasts to keep Zsolt busy.

Then, he closed his eyes, withdrew Dragonslayer Sword, and lifted his palms toward the sky.

The crowd spotted Kai’s bizarre action after he left the battle at such a critical moment and wondered what he was doing.

Boom!

Suddenly, thunder crackled in the sky. The crowd saw a giant palm materializing above them.

Dark clouds with lightning were spotted in the middle of the palm.

The ginormous palm slowly descended, and everyone could detect its frightening aura.

“Thunder Palm? H-How do you know Thunder Palm?” Fear swirled in Zsolt’s eyes as he raised his head and stared at the palm above.

He didn’t expect Kai to know an ancient technique like Thunder Palm.

Just as Zsolt was distracted, the beasts charged toward and encircled him.

Upon seeing that, Kai hastily sent the Dragon Bell to his opponent. Soon after, the colossal Dragon Bell slammed downward, trapping Zsolt and the beasts within.

Ding! Ding! Ding!

Zsolt was shocked when trapped inside the Dragon Bell. He relentlessly hit the bell, causing it to chime repeatedly.

Ignoring that, Kai struck the Dragon Bell with his palm. At that moment, the huge palm above him landed on the ground. A thunderous explosion followed.

When his palm struck the Dragon Bell, it produced a thunderous sound.

Thunder Palm passed through the Dragon Bell and struck Zsolt mercilessly.

As fast as Zsolt was, he couldn't evade the attack while trapped inside the Dragon Bell. Additionally, the chiming of the Dragon Bell was damaging his internal organs.

Blood spilled from his mouth and he collapsed on the ground. At that moment, his internal organs had been crushed.

The beasts inside the Dragon Bell were already long dead. It didn't bother Kai because he could just capture a few more beasts and keep them inside Octo Ruler.

Once there was no more movement from within the Dragon Bell, Kai removed it. There laid the corpse of Zsolt. His eyes were wide open with resentment.

The members of Emerald Cauldron Sect and even Kai breathed a sigh of relief when they spotted Zsolt's corpse.

Hosen was stunned.

Kai withdrew the arcane array, put away all his divine weapons, and looked at Hosen coldly.

"Do you want me to kill you, or do you want to do it yourself, Hosen?" he asked.

Hosen grimaced. An idea popped into his mind, and he fled.

There was no way he would surrender.

As he escaped, his beast soldiers followed him.

Ghaylen attempted to pursue Hosen with his men, but Kai stopped him.

A second later, Kai paled, spat out a mouthful of blood, and collapsed.

He had been forced to use all of his weapons and techniques in his battle against Zsolt to achieve victory. He was completely drained of spiritual energy and was weak.

“Mr. Chance!”

“Kai!”

Ghaylen, Viola, and the others called out to Kai, but his eyes remained shut tight.

“Mr. Samoll, please deliver all high-quality pills from Emerald Cauldron Sect here right now. Kai’s body is weak right now because he spent too much of his spiritual energy! The pills will help him recover!” ordered Viola.

Following that, she requested the crowd carry Kai to her room so she could personally tend to him.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2740 -

The Mans Decree Chapter 2740-In Imperial Beast City, Tigerus was released from the water dungeon.

He organized a banquet in his residence and invited Yuven and Ivasha for dinner.

“You punished Tigerus, so why is he inviting us for dinner, Dad? Doesn’t he hold a grudge against you?” Ivasha asked in puzzlement.

“Perhaps he realized he was wrong and wanted to apologize by inviting us to a meal,” Yuven answered.

Ivasha frowned. “I think Tigerus has changed. Also, Xandros left without so much as greeting us!”

“All right, don’t be so paranoid. Tigerus has been my subordinate for years. I know what kind of person he is. He’s just a brute devoid of any schemes. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have allowed him to keep his position as general for years. That’s a very important position, you know. I doubt anything will happen during our meal.” Yuven smiled.

“I hope so. I can’t help but think it’s a trap.”

Yuven laughed. “What trap? This is Imperial Beast City! Do you think anyone will dare to harm me here?”

He was confident that no one would dare to lay a finger on him in his own territory.

Ivasha kept quiet. Perhaps I was overthinking it and that Tigerus isn't harboring any ill intentions.

Yuven brought Ivasha to Tigerus' residence.

Tigerus had been waiting at the entrance. When he spotted Yuven and Ivasha, he welcomed them excitedly.

"I'm happy that you accepted my invitation, Your Majesty. I was afraid you weren't coming because you were upset with me," said Tigerus humbly.

"That's not the case at all! You've been my subordinate for years. I'm familiar with your personality. I know you're rash, but you should consider the consequences when you do something in the future." Yuven patted Tigerus' shoulder.

"I will keep this in mind, Your Majesty. Please, come in." Tigerus gestured for his guests to enter.

Ivasha and Yuven arrived in the dining room and spotted a table full of dishes. Tigerus enthusiastically entertained his guests. Yuven was so delighted that he drank some alcohol with Tigerus.

Ivasha was wary about the whole situation at first, but she soon lowered her guard when she saw that nothing was going on.

After the meal, Yuven and Ivasha left Tigerus' residence.

It wasn't until Ivasha arrived back in the palace that her heart was completely put at ease.

"See? I told you nothing would happen. Tigerus is a loyal man. He won't harm me. You should head to sleep now. Goodnight!" said Yuven before he staggered back to his room.

Clearly, he was a little drunk.

Ivasha returned to her room.

At that moment, Tigerus was staring at the palace coldly.

A figure slowly appeared and said to Tigerus, "How did it go, Mighty Tigerus? Did you do it?"

"Don't worry, Xandros. Princess Ivasha and His Majesty have consumed the drugged dishes. Tomorrow, the effect will kick in!"

"Good. The soldiers I brought here with me are already in place. Once the drug acts up, I'll attack Imperial Beast City while you aid us from within. When that time comes, Imperial Beast City will be ours!" Excitement was scribbled all over Xandros' countenance.

"Yes. Tomorrow, I'll ask my men to be ready. We'll kill whoever dares to oppose me!" A cold glint flashed past Tigerus' eyes.

He had truly turned evil, as he had even started treating his own people cruelly.

Xandros laughed, then his figure vanished into the darkness.

In Imperial Beast City, Tigerus was released from the water dungeon. He organized a banquet in his residence and invited Yuven and Ivasha for dinner.

“You punished Tigerus, so why is he inviting us for dinner, Dad? Doesn’t he hold a grudge against you?” Ivasha asked in puzzlement.

“Perhaps he realized he was wrong and wanted to apologize by inviting us to a meal,” Yuven answered.

Ivasha frowned. “I think Tigerus has changed. Also, Xandros left without so much as greeting us!”

“All right, don’t be so paranoid. Tigerus has been my subordinate for years. I know what kind of person he is. He’s just a brute devoid of any schemes. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have allowed him to keep his position as general for years. That’s a very important position, you know. I doubt anything will happen during our meal.” Yuven smiled.

“I hope so. I can’t help but think it’s a trap.”

Yuven laughed. “What trap? This is Imperial Beast City! Do you think anyone will dare to harm me here?”

He was confident that no one would dare to lay a finger on him in his own territory.

Ivasha kept quiet. Perhaps I was overthinking it and that Tigerus isn’t harboring any ill intentions.

Yuven brought Ivasha to Tigerus’ residence.

Tigerus had been waiting at the entrance. When he spotted Yuven and Ivasha, he welcomed them excitedly.

“I’m happy that you accepted my invitation, Your Majesty. I was afraid you weren’t coming because you were upset with me,” said Tigerus humbly.

“That’s not the case at all! You’ve been my subordinate for years. I’m familiar with your personality. I know you’re rash, but you should consider the consequences when you do something in the future.” Yuven patted Tigerus’ shoulder.

“I will keep this in mind, Your Majesty. Please, come in.” Tigerus gestured for his guests to enter.

Ivasha and Yuven arrived in the dining room and spotted a table full of dishes. Tigerus enthusiastically entertained his guests. Yuven was so delighted that he drank some alcohol with Tigerus.

Ivasha was wary about the whole situation at first, but she soon lowered her guard when she saw that nothing was going on.

After the meal, Yuven and Ivasha left Tigerus' residence.

It wasn't until Ivasha arrived back in the palace that her heart was completely put at ease.

"See? I told you nothing would happen. Tigerus is a loyal man. He won't harm me. You should head to sleep now. Goodnight!" said Yuven before he staggered back to his room.

Clearly, he was a little drunk.

Ivasha returned to her room.

At that moment, Tigerus was staring at the palace coldly.

A figure slowly appeared and said to Tigerus, "How did it go, Mighty Tigerus? Did you do it?"

"Don't worry, Xandros. Princess Ivasha and His Majesty have consumed the drugged dishes. Tomorrow, the effect will kick in!"

"Good. The soldiers I brought here with me are already in place. Once the drug acts up, I'll attack Imperial Beast City while you aid us from within. When that time comes, Imperial Beast City will be ours!" Excitement was scribbled all over Xandros' countenance.

"Yes. Tomorrow, I'll ask my men to be ready. We'll kill whoever dares to oppose me!" A cold glint flashed past Tigerus' eyes.

He had truly turned evil, as he had even started treating his own people cruelly.

Xandros laughed, then his figure vanished into the darkness.