Married at First Sight Chapter 2637-The girl who suffered severe beatings had to endure everyone's criticism after Matriarch Farrell took Holden away.

Knowing that she was a mistress who ruined other people's marriages, no one sympathized with her, even if she was beaten badly.

She got up with difficulty and stumbled away.

She had no idea that the old man, Holden, was the husband of Matriarch Farrell. If she had known, she would not have played with him.

She didn't expect that the support she had brought out in the past would be useless this time, causing her to be beaten violently.

Kevin took Hayden into the hotel.

When the two of them entered the private room and waited for the food to be served, Kevin asked Hayden, "Is this show good?"

They only arrived at the hotel a few minutes later than Matriarch Farrell.

When Matriarch Farrell caught an adulterer in his room, Kevin couldn't bring himself to take Hayden to watch a show, so the two of them sat on the sofa in the rest area on the first floor for a while.

If the girl hadn't wanted to run away, they wouldn't have seen the excitement in this drama.

"Wonderful." Hayden responded. "It's very covert, right? Don't let Matriarch Farrell find out about you. She has an assistant beside her, which every head of the Farrell family will have. The most loyal person to Matriarch Farrell, his ability is outstanding. Most of the things that Matriarch Farrell does, the other party helps her plan and arrange things."

Kevin said, "I wasn't the only one who pushed for this. Kathryn was behind it. That girl was chosen by Kathryn. It happened that her father met her and became obsessed with her.

Of course I won't let Matriarch Farrell's people find out. Everything is such a coincidence. There is absolutely no clue that anyone is behind it. I can not only protect myself but also prevent Matriarch Farrell from finding out about Kathryn."

Kevin knew that Hayden admired Kathryn very much. Seeing that Kathryn was still genuine, he helped her.

Kathryn was actually taking advantage of Kevin.

“Besides, even if Matriarch Farrell knows that I am behind this, what can she do to me? It’s only a matter of time that our York family and her Farrell family become enemies. The position of the matriarch she snatched is not secure. She has been sitting there for decades. She is old enough. It’s time to return the position of matriarch to my sister-in-law and her family.”

After Hayden was silent, she said, “It’s such a pity for Kathryn.”

“Kathryn is fine.” Kevin said, “Even without the Farrell family, Kathryn is still outstanding. She has her own career. Before she was recognized by Matriarch Farrell, she owned several companies, and she held shares in three of those companies. One hundred percent, and one company holds 60% of the shares.

I think Kathryn is more comfortable without the Farrell family. With her ability, she can grow the company under her name and live well.”

Hayden looked at him and said, “You know a lot.”

Kevin smiled. “We have the help of the Bucham family. Kathryn can hide it from others, but she can’t escape the eyes of the Bucham family.”

Knowing what the Bucham family was capable of, Hayden stopped talking.

After a few minutes, Hayden suddenly said, “A woman who marries into the Farrell family is unlucky. Several sons of Matriarch Farrell have all cheated on her. Holden has bad genes, and the upper beam is not straight and the lower beam is crooked. I wonder if Holden will be beaten after being brought back by Matriarch Farrell? She is really merciless.”

Hayden looked at him and asked, “Why are you feeling unfair toward Holden? Do you think it’s pitiful for Holden to be beaten? Do you think Matriarch Farrell is too cruel?”

Kevin said, “No, absolutely not. Holden deserves it. How could I pity him? He deserves it. He is simply a disgrace to us men.”

Kevin was afraid that the topic would spread to all men, so he quickly dropped the subject to avoid affecting Hayden’s impression of him by chatting.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2638-At the same time, Kathryn was on her way home.

After Matriarch Farrell returned to Jensburg, Kathryn received the news of her return through Pedro Fraser.

She also knew that Matriarch Farrell came back from the airport and went straight to the Fortress Hotel. Without asking, she knew that Matriarch Farrell went directly to catch the r@pist.

Kathryn didn't know about Holden's recent love affair on the surface, but she knew it very well in her heart. In Kevin's words, Kathryn was mainly planning this matter, and Kevin was just adding fuel to the fire behind the scenes.

At this moment, after being told to go home, Kathryn knew that Matriarch Farrell's anger had reached its highest point.

She first lit a candle for Holden silently in her heart.

Kathryn's three brothers were always on tenterhooks.

They didn't know why Matriarch Farrell suddenly informed them all to go home.

They didn't even know why Matriarch Farrell came back early? Didn't she say it would take a few more days to come back?

When Kathryn returned home, Shiloh and her three sisters-in-law were all there.

Her brothers were behind her.

When the three brothers and Kathryn met at home, Eldest Young Master Farrell said to Kathryn, "Kathryn, didn't you even know that mom was coming back early? You didn't even know to tell us. The news about you, the successor of the Feng family, is too late."

Kathryn said, "Eldest brother, you and mom are even closer. You don't even know that Mom is coming back early, let alone me. When mom is at home, I am the one who gets scolded every day. I won't tell anyone if Mom comes back early. Also, you are not cooperating with me. I have no supporters, and the news is lagging behind. Is it not as good as you want?"

With that said, Kathryn left her three brothers behind and went into the house first.

Eldest Young Master Farrell said to his two younger brothers, "Look at this country bumpkin. I said a few words to her, and she replied with a lot of words. She has no ability, and the news is delayed. She has the nerve to blame us. It is obvious that she has no ability."

"That's correct, a country bumpkin is a country bumpkin, and a dragon robe will not transform her into a prince."

The second young master, Farrell, echoed his eldest brother's words.

"Eldest brother, second brother, let's go in too. I don't know why Mom called us back. I always feel that the atmosphere is wrong. Even the servants can't see it. Who knows if they will complain to Mom, and Mom will settle the score with us?"

The three brothers laughed. They were all the same thing.

If there was something wrong in their hearts, they always worried that things were related to them.

“Mom didn’t just know what we were doing outside today. We were just having fun, and we won’t marry those women back. We have to socialize every day and often walk by the river. Who doesn’t get his shoes wet? In Shiloh’s words, As long as we know how to go home and our wives’ position does not change theirs, it will be fine.”

Eldest Young Master Farrell said so and hurriedly walked into the house.

The three brothers entered the room and noticed that the atmosphere was tense and quiet. No one dared to speak, so they subconsciously slowed down their steps.

When the three young ladies saw their husbands coming back, they all looked at them.

The eldest young master Farrell asked his wife what was going on with his eyes.

However, soon, they knew what was going on.

They saw their father, Holden, kneeling at the keyboard.

Holden’s face was bruised, his nose was swollen, and there were blood stains on his clothes. The blood should be his own, because there were blood stains on his face and mouth.
