

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2679-The fact that David came from level 7 civilization Star Kingdom made everyone present unable to recover for a long time.

Their strength and identity determined their vision.

Planet Brechen was just a living planet on the edge of the level 4 civilization Boundless Galaxy.

It was also the most inconspicuous one in the entire Boundless Galaxy.

Moreover, there was a huge gap that could not be crossed between level 4 civilization Boundless Galaxy and level 7 civilization Star Kingdom.

To put it simply, Planet Brechen was not even a speck of dust in front of Star Kingdom.

Even if David was at the bottom of the society in Star Kingdom, he was still not someone they could mess with.

Even if Reva had a high status in the Boundless Galaxy, she still could not afford to offend someone from a level 7 civilization.

Therefore, Reva's attitude changed drastically after learning that David came from a level 7 civilization.

"Oh, Master David! Please be the bigger person and not fuss over the minor matters with two weak women like us for offending you just now. My name is Reva Marwood and this is my direct disciple, Lucia Darling. She was a civilian of Planet Brechen but after her family was wiped out by Spencer because of a groundless charge, she started wandering out here. Luckily, she ran into me and I took her in. And I am the elder of the Divine Snow Mountain," Reva introduced herself respectfully.

"Master David, in order to qualify for the throne of the Great Quinn Empire and his own merits, Spencer accused my family of treason against the Great Quinn Empire and slaughtered all 37688 members of my family. He and I have a sworn hatred, so I asked Master to put this curse on him so we can torture him to death to comfort the souls of the more than 30 thousand people of the Darling family in heaven. I hope you won't interfere in this business of ours, Master David. I will kneel and thank you!"

After Lucia said that, she knelt in front of David in hopes that David would not help Spencer.

She knew very well in her heart that once David interfered, she might not have a chance to get her revenge in this lifetime.

A person from a level 7 civilization was so powerful that even her master was afraid of him. Even if she reached the height of her master in the future, she would still not dare to offend David.

"Miss Darling, please get up."

David waved his hand gently and a force helped Lucia up. He then continued, "Don't worry, Miss Darling! I never said I would help Spencer lift the curse, and I will not do so. If you didn't come, he would be dead now. However, I still have a few words to say to you, Miss Darling."

"Master David, I'm all ears. I will definitely keep it in mind."

"Miss Darling, Spencer slaughtered your whole family and you want to kill him to avenge your clan. As the saying goes, an eye for an eye. It's only a matter of course and there is nothing wrong with it. However, you will be the one suffering a disadvantage if you choose to torture him like this. It will affect your state of mind and limit your future achievements. Since you have tortured him for more than a year, let's just end this matter completely today! In the future, you can also let go of everything and focus on your path of cultivation. With your talent, you shouldn't have any problems getting into Eternal Realm. Don't be blinded by hatred anymore. The ones who survived should continue to live well," David persuaded patiently.

He understood how Lucia felt.

Her whole family was slaughtered, and among tens of thousands of people, she was the only one left to live alone. Not everyone could bear that kind of loneliness. Perhaps it was the belief in revenge that made Lucia live until this day.

David did not want to see an excellent woman get restricted by hatred.

He laced a little special technique within these words.

He used a trace of mind power in them and they could directly reach the depths of Lucia's heart.

Sure enough, after hearing what David said, Lucia seemed to be frozen and fell into deep thinking.

It then took a full minute for her to come to her senses. After that, she bowed to David again and said gratefully.