

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2732-"Yes, Your Majesty. I will make the preparations right away. Don't worry, we will pay attention and will not give the Vingeans any opportunity."

After saying that, she left.

Isa knew that the Vingeans were already hiding on the edge of the Misty Forest.

They would attack once they knew that the collection was done.

Originally, everything was going according to Isa's plan.

However, something unexpected happened on Evie and David's side. They still had not arrived.

Something unexpected must have happened.

Did Evie remember the wrong destination?

This idea was rejected by Isa as soon as she thought it.

Impossible!

How would Evie remember such an important detail wrongly?

The Elven Forest was the Elves' hometown and Evie had lived here since she was a child, so she would definitely remember it, just like the Vingeans would never get lost in the Misty Forest.

There was another possibility.

Perhaps Evie had told David the plan. Once David knew that this was a trap for him, he would not come.

Isa figured this was more likely.

After all, David was Evie's savior.

In addition, the girl took a fancy to David and persuaded Isa to give up this plan many times.

With everything combined, the chances of Evie telling him everything were very high.

'That silly girl, she's making trouble for me!' Isa thought through gritted teeth.

She knew that now was not the time to blame the girl.

They should move on to the next plan as soon as possible.

From Evie's perspective, there was nothing wrong with what she was doing.

She did not want to take advantage of her benefactor, so there was nothing wrong with her returning the favor.

At this moment Isa regretted telling Evie the plan.

However, Evie was the most important part of the plan.

Without Evie to lead the way, David would never find his way here.

If David did not come, her plan would be a complete failure.

Not only that, but they must now face the interception of the Vingeans.

However, it was none.

Before making this plan, Isa considered the consequences.

Even if David did not show up, she still had a plan to deal with this.

On the surface, she was leading the Elves to collect the Water of Life, using thousands of Elven women and the Water of Life as bait to lure the Vingeans into being deceived.

At least, she could still explain to the Elves.

The next step was how to deal with the attack of the Vingeans.

As long as everyone could return safely, the clan would not lose anything even if the plan failed.

Instead, they would have gained the Water of Life that they had never dared to collect.

Of course, Isa knew that it was not easy to protect the safety of her people from the Vingeans.

However, she had no choice now.

She must do everything she could to protect the people who followed her.

Thinking of this, Isa no longer cared about whether Evie and David would come or not.

She left the hiding place and took the Elves' combatants to guard against the Vingeans' raid
