

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2697

Married at First Sight Chapter 2697-Mr. Labbe said deliberately, "I'm not interested in broken shoes, but if you want to be angry, you can ask my people to help you vent your anger. As long as you follow me and help me get things done, I won't treat you badly.

Also, for those who have bullied you, I can also help you vent your anger at that time."

Mr. Labbe could make decisions as long as he had the totem and was the real leader.

When that day came, he didn't even look down on the York family.

That is to say, the Bucham family could take a second look at it.

Carrie asked, "Who are you?"

"I won't tell you for now, but you will know later. Anyway, if you follow me, I will ensure that you enjoy everything."

As Mr. Labbe spoke, he scented Carrie's face.

"Okay, I won't disturb you anymore. I'll leave two people with you to protect you. If anything happens, just ask them to contact me. I have to go back. There's too much business, and I'm too busy."

Mr. Labbe squeezed Carrie's thigh again, stood up, and ordered the two bodyguards to stay. The others followed him and left Carrie's rental house.

After Mr. Labbe left, one of the bodyguards said to Carrie, "Miss Newman, you can go and tell the landlord to check out and then come with us. Mr. Labbe has already bought a villa and a new car for you. You can move into the villa today.

Carrie said, "We won't cancel the lease for the time being, but it will still be useful if we keep it."

Carrie thought that her mission was to put on a human skin mask, change her face, get close to Serenity, and gain the trust of Serenity and Sonny. When Serenity and Jane get together one day, the children can also get together. She can kidnap Titus and hand him over to Mr. Labbe.

If Carrie suddenly disappears without a trace, Zachary and the others will definitely investigate her traces everywhere because of their cleverness. It is better to keep this rental house and tear off her human skin whenever she is not around Serenity.

That way, everyone knew that Carrie was still active in Wiltspoon and had not disappeared. That way, even if a new face appeared around Serenity, it would not be easy for anyone to suspect her.

She didn't know what the new identity Mr. Labbe had prepared for her was.

The two bodyguards were not stupid either. When Carrie said this, they quickly figured it out.

“Then do as the boss says. The boss has told us that outside, you will be called madam. The people you want to approach are the principal members of wealthy families. If you really appear as the mistress of the boss, you will not be able to get along with them.”

Carrie's face looked much better, and she said, “That's pretty much it.”

Mr. Labbe was not from Wiltspoon, so even if Carrie carried the name of his mistress, she felt that she was worthy of her background as Miss Newman by walking around in Wiltspoon and appearing as Mrs. Labbe.

She didn't know anything about Mr. Labbe. He had so many bodyguards with him when he went out, and he is very cruel. He most likely had a lot of power and wasn't easy to get along with.

Carrie was sitting on the same boat with Mr. Labbe, slowly coaxing Mr. Labbe, and everyone took advantage of each other. She also wanted to become a real Mrs. Labbe and did not want to just be Mrs. Labbe in Wiltspoon.

Carrie followed the two bodyguards and quietly left her rental house.

...

In Zachary's villa, two children gathered around the stroller, teasing the two children lying on the stroller.

Titus: “Avah smiled.”

Sonny saw Avah smiling at them and smiled too. He said to Titus, “Avah always smiles at you, not at me.”

Ben brought Titus over early in the morning. He originally planned to have breakfast at Zachary's house and then go to Remy's house together. Unexpectedly, Remy sent Jane and the two children over first, and the group stayed at Zachary's house.

As soon as Avah and Enzo arrived, Sonny and Titus stopped running and circled around the two little babies.

