Married at First Sight Chapter 2702-Ben nodded.

As long as the two babies were fed and drank enough, they could sleep for two to three hours during the lunch break.

The young ladies who were waiting for their seats went out and made sure they couldn't hear their conversation. Zachary said to Ben, "Ben, you may be being stared at. To be precise, it's Titus."

Hearing this, Ben looked stern.

Josh didn't know why.

Zachary said, "Josh said that a mysterious man came to Wiltspoon with a bodyguard group. He came in a hurry and left in a hurry. Today you happened to come over again, and you brought Titus with you. I always feel that the two may be related."

Ben was the head of FC & Co. and a well-known figure in Annenburg. Anyone who dared to stare at Ben couldn't be underestimated.

Mainly, they knew that there was a totem behind Titus and that Titus was still carrying a blood feud. Except for him, the little boy, everyone in Titus's family was taken away to Meadspring by the wet nurse and nanny, and everyone else was killed.

The people who killed Titus's family have been chasing Titus.

Jane picked up Titus, raised him by her side, and adopted him as her son. Jane had many people around her to protect her, so Titus was safe.

The old miracle doctor took Titus away after returning to Annenburg. From the beginning, Titus was safe.

He would occasionally follow Titus when he returned to FC Manor.

There were so many old friends around the old miracle doctor. They all looked like old naughty boys, and none of them should be messed with.

No one wanted to offend those old naughty boys.

Moreover, Titus's news was blocked very well.

"The news about Titus is well sealed. If it is discovered, it may be during the summer vacation. Serenity took Sonny there and took the children out to have fun. And this time, we brought Titus here."

Ben looked at Josh and asked in a low voice, "Mr. Bucham, can you find out that mysterious person? What is his surname? Where is he from?"

Josh shook his head. "We can't find it yet. If it's like Zachary said, it may be related to Titus. I'm afraid it can't be found. The power of Titus's original family is not inferior to that of our Bucham family, and my Bucham family may not take it seriously."

Zachary said nothing, knowing that what Josh said was the truth.

Ben knew better than the two of them how powerful Titus's enemies were; otherwise, Titus's large family and those who were loyal to Titus's parents would not have been destroyed.

It's not as simple as a family.

The totem behind Titus was the source of murder for their family.

Although they didn't know what secrets that totem hides,

Titus's family carved the totem on the back of a little baby, regardless of whether the baby was in pain or not. They knew that Titus and the totem would live and die together.

"If they are here for Titus, they are really capable of this."

If Titus's enemies weren't so powerful, Jane wouldn't be willing to let the old miracle doctor take Titus away.

Jane regards Titus as her own.

As soon as Titus learned to call mama, he started calling mama to Jane.

"They may or may not be sure. They came in a hurry and left in a hurry. Did they find that they couldn't do anything, or were they unsure?" Ben guessed.

Zachary said coldly, "He doesn't dare to do anything in Wiltspoon."

“He is somewhat afraid of the Bucham family.” Josh thought so too.

Otherwise, it won't be gone in a hurry.

After Ben thought for a while, he agreed with what the two people said.

He asked the two of them: “Don't tell Jane about this matter, so as not to worry her. It's only two days. Titus is leaving again. If I want to see him again, I'll probably have to wait until the New Year, so I'll let the kids play for two days.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 2703-Zachary and Josh both nodded and promised to keep it secret.

Titus was young, and he didn't know that he was carrying a blood feud at such a young age.

He didn't understand why his master, his mama, his other masters, and his uncles had particularly strict requirements on him.

Everyone didn't want him to kill anyone, but they couldn't let him be killed either.

He must have enough ability to protect himself.

As for revenge,

There were laws.

When he grew up and collected enough evidence, all his enemies would be brought to justice.

Having experienced the changes in the Lafayette family, they knew how to use the law to seek justice for themselves. They could take revenge and vent their anger without falling headlong into it and affecting the rest of their lives.

Now the Lafayette family was living a comfortable life.

The law was now punishing those who had harmed the mother and son of the Lafayette family.

There were only two old people who were too old to go in, but they were worse off than dead.

Even if he died, he could be done with it.

Life is worse than death. But it was the best revenge for them.

Sam walked in.

He walked to Zachary and said softly, “Young Master, Fourth Young Master Lewis is here.”

“Duncan is here; I’ll go out and push him in.” Zachary said, stood up, and left.

Sam said, “Fourth Young Master Lewis is followed by bodyguards. He is watching Sonny play with the airplane in the yard.”

Zachary sat down again and said to Ben, “Duncan will accompany Sonny; let him do it.”

Ben smiled understandingly and asked gossipingly, “When can Mr. Lewis and Sonny’s mother treat everyone to a wedding banquet?”

“My eldest sister is not resisting remarriage now. She and Duncan are already interested in a romantic relationship. However, Duncan has not fully recovered. Now it is he who is resisting getting married. He is afraid that he cannot return to normal and will drag down my eldest sister.” After finishing speaking, Zachary sighed.

As early as Zachary noticed that Duncan was interested in Liberty, he warned Duncan that things would not go well between them.

Liberty was divorced and had a son. Many women who were mothers-in-law would dislike Liberty.

Not to mention a wealthy family.

Mrs. Lewis reacted violently and disagreed with Duncan and Liberty.

Duncan didn’t listen to his parents, and he still had an accident.

Now the Lewis family no longer opposes Duncan and Liberty being together. The price they paid was that Duncan lost his legs.

The price was too high.

Ben said comfortingly, "Let nature take its course. They are both people who have gone through a lot of things. They will cherish each other. They will not dislike each other."

Zachary said, "My eldest sister has now gone to Jensburg again... It feels like the relationship between them has not yet come to an end so quickly. Good things are hard to come by."

Josh listened on the side and said with a smile, "I am still the best."

He and Jasmine had a smooth journey, with no one blocking them and no love rivals.

Unlike his two best buddies, accidents always happen.

Ben and Zachary both gave Josh jealous looks.

At the same time, Jensburg

As soon as Liberty and her bodyguards left the Fortress Hotel, members of the Farrell family blocked them.

"Miss Hunt, excuse me."

Liberty wanted to go out for a walk and inspect the market. When the people of Matriarch Farrell stopped her when she was leaving, she did not act surprised.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2704-Sooner or later, Matriarch Farrell would have someone come find Liberty, but Liberty didn't expect it to be so soon.

Liberty: "Is something wrong?"

The Farrell family bodyguard said respectfully, "Miss Hunt, our madam holds a banquet at home tonight and invites you to come over for dinner. She said that she hopes you will not refuse. They are all relatives and should move around normally.

Our madam also said that the family has packed up the room and asked you to move in with her. She said that you're here. It's okay if Madam doesn't know. As she knows, she will definitely not let you live in the hotel."

Even though the Fortress Hotel was owned by the York Corporation.

Liberty said, "You go back and tell your madam that I will come over for dinner in the evening, so there is no need to stay. It's fine for me to stay in a hotel, so it's not good to disturb them."

If she moved to Farrell's house and Matriarch Farrell wanted to squeeze her to death, it would only take a matter of minutes.

If Liberty moved into Farrell's house, she knew her life would be in danger. Although it is said that if she doesn't enter the tiger's den, she won't catch tiger cubs, when there are too many tigers, life is more important. If life is gone, nothing will be left.

The Farrell family bodyguard was only responsible for bringing a message to Liberty. Once the message was brought and Liberty got a reply, he could go back.

He said, "Miss Hunt, I will go back and tell our madam. Then, I will leave first and won't disturb you."

Liberty nodded slightly.

Liberty said to his bodyguard, "You guys wait for me downstairs; I'll go see Kevin."

Shw was going to tell Kevin that Matriarch Farrell invited her to have dinner at the Farrell family.

She would definitely go to the Farrell family. It was her mother's former home, and she wanted to see where her mother lived.

A few minutes later,

Liberty knocked on Kevin's office.

Kevin was writing something when he saw that the person coming in was Liberty, so he quickly picked up the document and covered the paper in front of him.

He moved so fast that Liberty was afraid to see him.

Liberty guessed that Kevin was writing a love letter to Hayden.

She pretended not to notice Kevin's little move.

“Sister Liberty, aren't you out?”

Kevin stood up, walked around the desk, and invited Liberty to sit down on the sofa in the reception area. Then he went to get Liberty a glass of warm water.

Liberty said, “I went out in the morning. I came back for lunch and rested for a while. Now I wanted to go out, but I was stopped by the people of the Farrell family.”

Kevin suddenly asked nervously, “Do people from the Farrell family dare touch you in the Fortress Hotel?”

This was a provocation for Liberty and Kevin.

Did they think Liberty and Hank were paper tigers?

“That's not true. No matter how stupid they are, they will never touch me at the Fortress Hotel. Matriarch Farrell said that she held a banquet at home tonight and invited me to dinner. I think her banquet is specifically for me. “

Kevin said, “It must be the Hongmen Banquet. Sister Liberty, I will accompany you.”

Liberty smiled and said, “No need; she won't do anything to me now.”

Kevin said, “No matter whether she will attack you or not, I can't let you go into danger alone. That old woman is cruel and ruthless. Don't think that she doesn't dare to attack you. She knows that even if she doesn't do anything, we and the Farrell family will be together, and we can't live in peace.

That old woman will never let you go, and the Farrell family won't come back to you. Only then can you become Kathryn's opponent.”

His sister-in-law, Serenity, was not convenient right now.

Elisa made it clear again that she did not have the ability and did not want to take over the Farrell family.

Only Liberty was a suitable candidate. Soon she would become Kathryn's most powerful opponent.
