

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2721

Married at First Sight Chapter 2721-Everyone here must have understood clearly that Kevin and Hayden both supported Liberty.

They had never heard of how capable Liberty was, but they couldn't resist the fact that there were several wealthy families standing behind Liberty. Her biological sister, Serenity, was the eldest mistress of the York family, and she had plenty of capital to invest in Liberty.

As long as Liberty has enough courage and vision, there is no need to worry about ending up without capital.

Those tribesmen, who were suppressed by Matriarch Farrell and had little ability, began to blame her in their hearts.

Liberty smiled: "I'm interested in any project that can make money. Is it convenient for Mr. Queen tomorrow? I'll go visit you."

Hayden said gently, "Come here; I'll be there at any time."

Kevin said with amusement, "Hayden, I will be jealous if you are so nice to Sister Liberty. When I go there, you always say that you are too busy and too lazy to talk to me. As soon as Sister Liberty goes, you say convenient at any time."

Hayden looked at him sideways and said, "Sister Liberty and I are in love."

Kathryn also smiled: "I also think that Liberty and I are quite compatible. If it's convenient for Mr. Queen, I wonder if I can pay a visit?"

Hayden said, "Miss Farrell, When you come here, I can still squeeze in some time. If it were someone else, I wouldn't have this time."

For the Farrell family, Hayden could only give Kathryn a face. She has always been optimistic and admired Kathryn, and she once wanted to bring Kathryn and her brother Hugh together, but Hugh didn't call Kathryn.

Hugh's excuse was that he was not the Farrell family's son-in-law.

In fact, he didn't call Kathryn.

When it comes to relationships, he has to be in love with her to be happy. Even if feelings can be cultivated, not everyone can cultivate feelings.

Kathryn smiled and said, "I also have a project in hand that I am very optimistic about. Mr. Queen, if you're interested, you can learn more about it."

"Alright." Hayden readily agreed.

Hayden would not cooperate with the Farrell family, but she could cooperate with Kathryn. The company Kathryn founded before returning to the Farrell family had a good future.

Seeing that Hayden had a good attitude towards Kathryn, the expression on the old face of Matriarch Farrell softened a little.

This meal was quite peaceful.

After eating and drinking, Hayden was ready to say goodbye.

If she left, Kevin would naturally follow her.

Liberty simply said goodbye to Matriarch Farrell and prepared to leave with Hayden and others.

Matriarch Farrell tried her best to keep her, so she had to lead her family to get up and see her off. At this moment, she remembered Shiloh, her adopted daughter, and asked Erika, "Where's Shiloh?"

"Shiloh? Oh, Mom, you asked her to bring food upstairs to Dad, but she never came downstairs. Anyway, I didn't see her again after she went upstairs."

Matriarch Farrell frowned and ordered Erika: "Go upstairs and have a look, and ask Shiloh to come down."

Hayden was about to leave. What's going on with Shiloh? Was she still sitting upstairs, eating and drinking with that useless old man?

Erika said, Oh, and went upstairs to find Shiloh.

Within two minutes, her screams were heard from upstairs.

Then she stumbled to the stairs and ran downstairs. When she was almost on the first floor, she missed her footing, fell, and rolled down.

Fortunately, there were only a few steps, so she tumbled down without being injured.

Just the look on her face was wonderful; it was shocked and frightened, as if she had seen a ghost.

“Honey, what’s wrong? Are you okay?”

Marco stepped forward to help Erika up. After all, she was his wife.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2722-Erika grabbed his hand and said in horror, “Marco, go and see Dad and Shiloh, the two of them...the two of them... I can’t tell. You will know when you go and take a look.”

Hearing what Erika said, Marco thought something had happened to his father and Shiloh, so he immediately turned around and ran upstairs.

Not only him, but also his brothers and Kathryn, all ran upstairs.

Finally, Matriarch Farrell also went upstairs.

Liberty and others, who were about to leave, stopped where they were and looked upstairs. They didn’t know what shocking event happened upstairs.

“Sister-in-law, what happened to Dad and Shiloh?”

Anya and Amora gathered around Erika and asked with concern and curiosity.

Erika’s face turned red. She hesitated, and she couldn’t speak. Finally, she whispered something into her sisters-in-law’s ears, which made her two sisters-in-law change their expressions.

The next moment, her two sisters-in-law ran upstairs quickly.

They couldn’t miss the good show.

Matriarch Farrell’s roars and the sound of smashing soon came from upstairs.

Now, not to mention the Farrell clan members were curious; even Liberty and others were also curious.

“I went to see what happened, and I can help.”

Relying on his thick skin, Kevin said he wanted to help, and he ran upstairs with several tribesmen to see what was going on.

Liberty thought that she had the blood of the Farrell family in her body and that going up to take a look could show her concern, so she followed Kevin upstairs.

In less than five minutes, Kevin trotted downstairs.

Those tribesmen were also rolling around.

When they got downstairs, Kevin pulled Hayden, turned around, and shouted, "Sister Liberty, let's go."

Liberty went downstairs in embarrassment and walked straight out of the house. As she walked, she said to Kevin, "Well, let's go. Let's go quickly. We can't wait to see."

The few tribesmen who had seen what was going on ran out as if running for their lives. One person kindly shouted to everyone: "Everyone, go home; don't stay here anymore."

To avoid being swept away by the snowstorm.

But everyone felt that it was not good that they ran away like this before Matriarch Farrell came downstairs.

But after seeing the distinguished guests coming upstairs, they all hurried downstairs to leave. The same happened to the tribesmen. Something big must have happened.

Some people followed those tribesmen and walked out.

Some of them still stayed, wanting to wait for Matriarch Farrell to come downstairs.

As soon as Kevin left the main house, Liberty and Hayden's bodyguards came to greet him.

"Hayden, I'll take your car."

Hayden did not refuse. Even if Liberty didn't say anything, she still wanted Liberty to ride in her car and ask what happened upstairs. She actually made Kevin, a shameless person, run downstairs in embarrassment.

After Liberty got Hayden's consent, Kevin said to his bodyguards, "Have you ever drunk? If you have, please stop driving."

The bodyguard group wanted to say that no one had drunk, but when Liberty winked at them, everyone was embarrassed to say that they had.

Liberty turned around and said apologetically to the Farrell family butler, who was escorting her out, "Butler, can you arrange for three people to help us drive back? They are all drunk and should not drive again."

The butler said respectfully, "No problem; I will arrange for three people to help Miss Hunt drive back now."

With that said, the butler took out his cell phone and made a call.

After the butler arranged for the Farrell family's bodyguards to help drive, Liberty thanked the butler and then said, "Butler, please tell Mrs. Farrell and Kathryn that there was an accident at home and we can't stay any longer. We should go back first. Let's get together another day when we have time."