

Read I am a quadrillionaire

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2865-“Lufian, the universe is far bigger than what you imagine, so nothing is impossible in this almost boundless universe.

Don't waste your efforts anymore. You won't be able to get out,” David said slowly.

“Impossible! David, I don't believe that you can cultivate Origin Power and become a partial Almighty in such a short time! No matter how talented you are, you can't! This must be an illusion!”

Lufian refused to give up. He screamed in disbelief while frantically attacking the cage.

Unfortunately, no matter what he did, it was useless.

How could a peak Heavenly Overlord break through the formation composed of four partial Almighties?

“Lufian, you have been guarding Leila for so long, so even if you get no credit, you'll still be rewarded by hard work. I didn't want to kill you, but unfortunately, you are no longer the same person you were before. I can't give you another chance to grow. Otherwise, many lives will suffer because of you, but don't worry, Leila's creatures will still remember your great achievements after you die.”

David did not want to delay any more time. So, after he finished, he instructed the clones to kill Lufian.

Upon hearing that David was going to kill him, Lufian panicked.

He wanted to conquer the universe, so how could he die?

With Devour's help, he would one day get into Origin Realm and become an Almighty if he continued to devour the vitality of various civilizations. He might even go one step further and be on top of the universe.

No! He could not die!

Lufian could not wrap his head around this. He had fused his dual souls and awakened Devour, so he should stand at the top of the universe and achieve unparalleled achievements. However, he was going to die here before he could get out of Leila.

He did not understand that all things in the world were interdependent.

Devour was indeed powerful. He could already become an Almighty by devouring a few level 8 or 9 civilizations.

However, if used excessively, there would also be intense side effects.

If David had not stopped him and allowed Lufian to swallow up Leila's vitality, the powerful side effect would slowly destroy Lufian's consciousness, and then, he would gradually become a bloodthirsty monster.

If such monsters were allowed to wander the universe, they would be killed by the Almighties very soon.

So, Lufian would only go so far by relying on Devour alone.

Yet, of course, he did not know that.

He only knew that Devour was very amazing. That it could not only heal his injuries but also improve his strength.

Therefore, he was the one favored by God and should not die here.

"David, you can't kill me! God favors me. I want to conquer all realms of the universe and be on top! If you kill me, you are violating God's will!" Lufian shouted in panic.

David ignored him.

If they wanted to talk about who God favored, it would be David.

How long did Lufian live, and how long did David live?

It was clear who was truly favored by God.

Furthermore, even if it went against God's will, David would still kill Lufian.

The main reason was that the Lufian's Devour was too strong.

The consequences would be disastrous once it came into contact with living planets and continents.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Four clones of the partial Origin Realm erupted simultaneously.

Lufian was in the center and contained by four partial Almighty's. He could not move an inch.

In the blink of an eye, the four clones disappeared from their original positions and appeared next to Lufian. At the same time, four hands were placed on Lufian's body.

Then, a trace of Origin Power surged into Lufian's body.

A Heavenly Emperor's body was very strong, so even if it encountered another Heavenly Emperor, it could still withstand it.

However, it would have almost no resistance against the Origin Power, and it would directly cause permanent damage to Lufian's body.

"Ah!"

The Origin Power destroyed Lufian's body, causing him severe pain.

Knowing that he was doomed, Lufian endured the severe pain and yelled decisively, "David, even if I die, I have to drag a few people down with me!"

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2866-Boom!

There was a loud explosion, and Lufian's body was turned into ashes.

However, the self-detonation of a Heavenly Overlord should not be underestimated.

It might not cause any harm to Partial Almighty David, but others would die if they came into contact with it.

Of course, David would not let Lufian's self-detonation affect others.

When he realized that Lufian wanted to self-detonate, he controlled the four clones to form a defensive formation and restricted the detonation to a small area.

Even so, a peak Heavenly Overlord's self-detonation still created a small gap in the array composed of the four partial Almighties.

A ray of light shot out from the gap. It was Lufian's soul.

Even though his body detonated, his soul remained.

As long as he could escape, he would still have a chance to return to the top in the future.

Since he was a Heavenly Overlord, how would he want to die?

Unexpectedly, as soon as his soul escaped from the gap, a red light chased after it. However, Lufian ignored it. He knew that he would never have a chance again once he stopped.

David was not only a partial Almighty, but he also had Cloning. Therefore, it would be wishful thinking if a Heavenly Overlord soul wanted to escape from him.

The only way was to escape the blockade by catching David off-guard and forcefully entering Leila to hide quietly.

There were countless creatures in Leila, and David would not destroy Leila just to kill him.

Besides, Leila was a magic weapon left by the Almighty, and it would be hard to say whether David could destroy it.

After struggling to withstand the blow, Lufian's soul was also severely damaged.

Hence, he took this opportunity to force his way into Leila and hide.

However, one might have great dreams, but sometimes one has to face harsh realities.

Lufian found that he could not force his way into Leila.

After looking around blankly, he saw several of David's clones had appeared around him.

"Lufian, give up! I've already blocked this area. You can't enter Leila anymore,"

David said.

"David, do you really want to eradicate me?" Lufian asked through gritted teeth.

"I don't want to, but I must. Keeping you alive is tantamount to leaving a disaster for Leila! I have no choice," David said helplessly.

"Let me go, and I promise not to step foot into Leila again. How about that?"

David did not answer and just shook his head.

He did not believe Lufian would keep his promise.

If the other party grew stronger and went back on his word, a lot of lives would die in his hands.

So, the safest way was to just kill him once and for all.

"Hahaha! I would never expect this! I, Emperor Lufian, have been protecting Leila for hundreds of epochs, but this is how I will die. What a huge irony!"

Lufian burst out laughing.

"Lufian, on behalf of the countless living beings in Leila, thank you for everything you have done! So, even after you die, your statue will still stand on Five Continent and be worshiped by all the living beings in Leila! You can go in peace!"

Sylvio was the one who spoke this time.

He was afraid that David would be too kind and spare Lufian, so he decided to chime in.

"Sylvio, I will remember you!"

As soon as Lufian finished speaking, a red sword penetrated his soul. He was already seriously injured, so now, his consciousness started to blur.

The Evil-Splitting Sword could kill everything in the world, even souls.

□