Seeing that his men were about to lose, Rohan refused to just stand by.

For the first time since the attack, he made a move.

A punch with tremendous power rushed for Liam's face.

Liam's face changed as he saw this. He protected himself with both hands, but the blow still sent him back about a dozen steps before he stabilized himself.

Rohan sneered and said, "You are indeed powerful."

Liam said with cold face, "I don't have much strength now, but what I have is enough to kill you."

With that, Liam disappeared and appeared a second later in front of Rohan. Without further ado, he stabbed the dagger into Rohan's heart.

Not only did Rohan not fight back, but he smiled mockingly.

Sparks flew in all directions at the contact.

Liam said with cold face, "I don't have much strength now, but what I have is enough to kill you."

With that, Liam disappeared and appeared a second later in front of Rohan. Without further ado, he stabbed the dagger into Rohan's heart.

Not only did Rohan not fight back, but he smiled mockingly.

Sparks flew in all directions at the contact.

Confidently, Rohan raised his fist to hit Liam who narrowly avoided it. In that action, they were separated for a moment with a short distance between them.

The only thing the dark dagger did to Rohan was reveal an armor.

It was this armor that Rohan counted on to bring the Duncan family to the greatest level. It was a perfect armor made of rare metal, invulnerable to weapons, even the dark dagger.

Rohan looked at Liam with a sneer. "Have you eaten yet, cousin? I'm not in any pain, but I can let you eat something before I beat you up."

Enraged, Liam lunged forward and attacked again.

Now, he didn't attack like the last time. He and Rohan fought with each other, using their fists, feet and body.

After more than fifty consecutive moves, Liam still couldn't penetrate or find a flaw in Rohan's armor.

Rohan was extraordinarily powerful. Even without the armor, he was undeniably the strongest enemy Liam had ever had to face.

It was normal for a fighter to be injured during a fight, but Liam already had old wounds, and now, new ones had added to them.

Rohan, on the other hand, was totally unaffected thanks to his armor.

His armor gave him such an advantage that Liam couldn't beat or come close to him.

Knowing that he had the perfect protection, Rohan attacked without scruple, punching Liam several times and as hard as possible.

Liam's present strength was not enough to withstand Rohan's attacks. Blood flowed out of the corner of his mouth, and he gradually lost the ability to defend himself.

"Don't tell me this is your limit!" Rohan sneered mockingly.

Then, he threw another powerful punch, breaking through Liam's almost non-existent defence and knocking him to the ground.

Liam spat out a mouthful of blood and used up all of his strength to stand up.

He was surprised by the turn out of this. His face was a mess. His blood was burning, and his energy fading. Liam had lost. For the first time, he had actually lost in a battle.

Rohan looked at him and said, "I heard that the Hoffman family spent a lot of resources training you. But look at you. If I had the resources that were wasted on you, I'd be invincible by now. But not to worry. I'm invincible now, and I'm going to get everything I want."

With a wry smile, Rohan made a fist and threw a powerful punch at Liam, one that could kill him on the spot.

Liam's breath had not yet stabilized, so he couldn't do much. He couldn't even dodge.

Suddenly, a figure fell from the sky and stood in front of Liam, taking the powerful hit that was meant for Liam.

Felix had been hiding, watching Liam until he needed to step in to protect him like now.

Felix's face turned ghastly pale after that huge hit. He shouted to Liam, "Mr. Hoffman, get out of here quickly. Go to No. 31, Samuac Street in Invone and inform them of danger. Cancel the action immediately."

Liam was puzzled by Felix's presence here.

If Felix was alive, that meant his grandfather was still alive too.

Rohan's face darkened as he saw this. He didn't let them talk and rained down blows on Felix.

However, Felix was ready to die. His strength was on the same level as Liam's. There was nothing he could do as he realized that Rohan's strength far exceeded Sergio's expectations.

This strength alone affected the entire plan they had put in place.

If Sergio followed the original plan they had put in place, they would be doomed.

Felix didn't mind dying here if he could save Liam and get the message to Sergio. He believed that his sacrifice was worth it.

Liam knew that Felix was covering for him to escape. He wished he could stay back and fight, but he had no choice.

He didn't have time to feel sad right now. He grabbed the stunned Javier and quickly pulled him out.

Seeing this, Rohan shouted at the four Steelmen, "Go and stop Liam from running away!"

However, there was no way for them to run after Liam. Felix blocked their way and let them attack him as much as they wanted to.
