

An Understated Dominance By Marina Vittori

Chapter 1967

Billy Ruso was very powerful. Between the swings of his two scimitars, countless sword lights bloomed, shooting towards the golden tree vines overwhelmingly.

Each of its blades has the power to crack mountains and crack rocks.

Wherever it passes, the wind howls and the light shines.

"Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh..."

When Billy Ruso attacked, a large number of silver tree vines turned into spears, ejected at extremely fast speeds, and accurately hit all the swords.

"Bang, bang, bang..."

With a burst of explosions, all the sword lights in the sky were shattered, and all the silver tree vines were knocked back.

"Hmph! I want to see how hard you are!"

Billy Ruso sped up and rushed forward, crossed his swords, swung forward suddenly, and shouted: "Destruction Slash!"

"Boom!"

The air burst.

I saw two half-moon-shaped sword lights, instantly ejected, slashing towards the golden tree vines one after another.

These two sword lights are extremely sharp and swell when exposed to the wind.

When the sword was drawn out, it was only three feet long. When it got close to the golden tree vine, it had grown to three feet.

At first glance, it looks like two cutting edges, unstoppable.

"Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh..."

As if aware of the crisis, all the silver tree vines started to move.

Half of them are intertwined into a net and used as a defense in front of the golden tree vines.

The other half of the silver tree vines turned into spears, and with the force of thunder, they crashed crazily into the two half-moon-shaped sword lights.

"Bang, bang, bang..."

There was another explosion.

In front of the two half-moon-shaped sword lights, the silver tree vines that took the initiative were shaken away one after another, unable to stop them at all.

"Boom!"

The half-moon-shaped sword light, which was still powerful, finally hit the large net intertwined with silver trees and vines.

The large net that was originally invulnerable to water and fire was suddenly cut open by Billy Ruso's sword. A big gap.

Among them, dozens of silver tree vines were directly broken.

With just one blow, dozens of silver tree vines were cut off. This is the destructive power of a martial arts master!

"What a sharp sword light!"

"As expected of a desert dragon, it is really powerful!"

"With Senior Billy taking action, it seems we are saved today!"

"..."

Seeing that Billy Ruso was so powerful and unstoppable, Everyone couldn't help but look overjoyed.

The silver tree vines that were difficult for them to deal with were nothing more than chopping melons and vegetables in front of the martial arts master.

This is strength! This is the gap!

"Vulnerable!"

After cutting the gap, Billy Ruso did not hesitate. Instead, he seized the opportunity, stepped forward, and went straight to the roots of the golden tree vines.

As the saying goes, to capture the thief first capture the king.

In his eyes, the golden tree vine is the true nature of the monster and the only existence that poses a threat to him.

As long as the golden vines are cut off, the remaining silver vines and gray vines will not be able to make waves.

With a little time, it can all be cleaned up.

"Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh..."

At this moment, both the silver tree vines and the gray tree vines began to attack Billy Ruso crazily.

The dense attacks were like a violent storm, never stopping and impossible to dodge.

"How dare you try your best to do the same thing?!" Billy Ruso sneered, and without dodging or dodging, he swung his swords quickly, forming a protective shield made of swords in front of him, and charged head-on.

The ejected tree vines were cut off directly as soon as they came into contact with Billy Ruso's sword shield.

No matter whether it was silver vine or gray vine, it could not hurt Billy Ruso at all.

Centered on Billy Ruso's body, the area within a three-meter radius was almost a death zone.

Anything that comes close will be strangled to pieces.

Wherever Billy Ruso passed, he was devastated and unstoppable.

Such power attracted many people to applaud it.

However, at this moment, the golden tree vine that had been silent finally reacted.

The front end of it was raised high, and then it was whipped toward Billy Ruso like a long whip.

“Wha~!”

Because the speed was too fast, the golden tree vine directly cut through the air, carrying a sharp roar, and smashed down hard.

This blow was earth-shattering, the situation changed, and it made people’s scalp numb.

“Huh?”

Billy Ruso’s pupils shrank and he didn’t dare to enlarge his eyes. He immediately crossed his swords and raised them up in a block position, facing the blows of the golden tree vine head-on.

“Boom!!”

When the two sides touched, there was only a loud bang.

A powerful shock wave, centered on the impact site, swept away in all directions.

Wherever he passed, flying sand and rocks were flying, and smoke and dust were everywhere.

Some gray tree vines and silver tree vines that were close by were blown to pieces, leaving a mess on the ground.

When the smoke clears.

A huge deep pit appeared where the golden tree vine was cut.

Billy Ruso stood in the deep pit, sweating profusely and panting.

His arms were numb, his mouth was cracked, and traces of blood slowly dripped from his fingers to the ground.

At this moment, his face was solemn, and he no longer felt relaxed at all.

The blow from the golden tree vine just now was so powerful that even though he blocked it with all his strength, he still suffered some minor injuries.

It is certain that in terms of strength, he is no match for Golden Tree Vine.

If you go head-on, I'm afraid you won't get any benefits.

"I didn't expect this thing to be so powerful."

Billy Ruso frowned slightly, staring at the golden tree vines in front of him, his expression a little uncertain.

To be honest, no one in the world would have expected that a mere vine could have the attack and defense power of a martial arts master.

"Why are you still standing there? Run away!"

Billy Ruso turned around and yelled: "This thing is very difficult to deal with. I can only buy you some time for a cup of tea, and then life or death will be your destiny!" As soon as these words came out, everyone was stunned. There was an uproar and a sensation.

Seeing Billy Ruso's majesty, they thought they were sure of victory, but they didn't expect the situation to change so quickly.

The majestic Desert Dragon, a powerful martial arts master, actually fell behind after a duel.

How powerful is that golden tree vine? !

"Escape!"

Everyone did not dare to hesitate and immediately accelerated their charging speed.

If Billy Ruso really couldn't stand it, wouldn't they all have to explain it here?

Under the leadership of Margaret, the large army fought hard like a sharp sword and quickly penetrated the encirclement of gray trees and vines.

Flee outside.

However, at this moment, the golden tree vine attacked again.
