An Understated Dominance by Marina Chapter 1969

Chapter 1969

At this moment, hundreds of meters away.

Dustin, who was following the team, withdrew the Sky Sword without leaving any trace.

Just seeing that Billy Ruso was in danger, he deliberately walked at the back, and then slashed out with a sword at an extremely fast speed.

This sword was silent and did not alert anyone. It easily cut the golden tree vine into two pieces and saved Billy Ruso from the fire and water.

Dustin came to the rescue because, on the one hand, he was a good friend; on the other hand, Billy Ruso was still valuable.

As Margaret said, all forces have now entered the oasis, and there are many masters among them.

It is not appropriate for him to reveal his identity before he finds the Dragon Source Qi.

And Billy Ruso's existence can solve a lot of troubles for them.

After all, he is a martial arts master, and he is more than enough to intimidate many young men.

It was precisely because of these considerations that Dustin swung the sword just now.

Although the golden tree vine is strong, it is only equivalent to the level of a martial arts master and cannot stop the sword of a top master.

In the middle of the battlefield.

When the golden tree vines were cut off, the silver tree vines and gray tree vines all shook.

“Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh, whoosh, whoosh...”

Along with a sound breaking through the air, all the tree vines stabbed Billy Ruso crazily.

The dense attacks are overwhelming, making it impossible to defend against and unable to hide.

Billy Ruso didn't have time to think, and immediately picked up the two swords on the ground, circulated the master's energy, and began to kill the attacking tree vines.

Golden tree vines are fast, powerful, and extremely tough, making them difficult to break through.

But if it were these ordinary tree vines, it would be different.

Whether it is gray tree vines or silver tree vines, they are not a threat to Billy Ruso. Even if he is injured, he can easily deal with them.

Just when Billy Ruso thought he was out of danger.

The next scene made his face change drastically and he was frightened.

Because he discovered that the severed golden tree vine did not die directly.

After spraying a large amount of golden sap, the wounds of the golden tree vine began to heal at a speed visible to the naked eye, and the tail end was still growing rapidly.

Its powerful vitality is simply terrifying!

"How could this happen?!"

Billy Ruso's pupils shrank, and he was no longer calm.

Just now, an unknown master took action and cut off the golden tree vines with a sword, saving him from danger.

However, unexpectedly, the golden tree vine not only did not die but continued to grow.

Once the golden tree vine is allowed to heal and return to its original state, won't he be in trouble again?

Thinking of this, Billy Ruso immediately backed down.

He is injured now and has no capital to fight anymore, so he must retreat immediately.

“Get out of here!”

Billy Ruso roared, and his swords instantly erupted with a large amount of sword light, shooting out in all directions like a violent storm.

All the vines that came close were cut into several sections by the sharp sword light.

The remains of tree vines fell to the ground as if raining.

With Billy Ruso as the center, the area within a radius of five meters was completely transformed into a death zone. Any creature that came close would be strangled to pieces.

Billy Ruso attacked and ran wildly, the master's energy in his body spurting out like a tide, without any regard for consumption.

All the trees and vines that blocked the road were torn apart.

Billy Ruso knew very well that he had to work hard to break through the encirclement, otherwise it would be too late to escape when the golden tree vines recovered.

After a frantic fight, Billy Ruso finally broke out of the encirclement and then joined the large forces in front.

The tree vines did not chase after them. They were probably out of attack range. After some baring of teeth and claws, the gray tree vines and silver tree vines protected the golden tree vines and slowly retracted underground.

Everything became calm again, as if nothing had happened.

But the remains of trees and vines all over the ground, as well as human corpses, told of the tragedy of the battle just now.

“What a close call! I finally escaped!”

Billy Ruso wiped the sweat from his forehead and let out a long sigh.

Fortunately, there is no love war, otherwise once trapped, the consequences would be disastrous.

“Senior Billy is really powerful. He killed all the tree and vine monsters and fled with his own strength. It’s really admirable!” “He is indeed the famous desert dragon. He really deserves his reputation!” ”

Thanks to Senior Billy for saving me, otherwise We will definitely suffer heavy casualties this time!”

...

Seeing that the crisis was over, everyone gathered around and began to flatter them.

They just ran away in a hurry and didn’t see clearly what happened.

When they broke through the siege and reached a safe zone, they turned around and saw that the golden tree vine had been broken into two pieces.

Billy Ruso, on the other hand, was holding two swords and killing everyone in all directions, using his tyrannical strength to carve out a bloody path.

Such grace is naturally admirable.

“Huh?”

Listening to the compliments from the people around him, Billy Ruso couldn’t help but look weird, unable to tell whether he was happy or sad.

Others don’t know, but he himself knows it very well.

If it hadn't been for the secret help of an expert just now, he would be a corpse now.

He could easily cut through the golden tree vines with the light of his sword, and the opponent was far stronger than him.

He even had a bold guess that that expert was probably a great master!

But the problem is, there are no outsiders in this wilderness, how could it be such a coincidence that a top powerhouse suddenly appears?

Could it be that...that expert is hiding next to them?

Thinking of this, Billy Ruso's heart tightened and his eyes swept around, trying to find the master in his mind.

But it seems that they are all unknown young people.

Some of the older ones seemed to have mediocre strength, which was far from that of an expert with a sword.

Could it be that it's really just a coincidence?

Did an expert happen to pass by and save his life?

"Senior Billy, what's wrong with you? There seems to be something wrong with your face?" Kevin Snow asked strangely.

"It's nothing. I used up too much energy just now and I'm a little tired. I'll be fine after a while."

Billy Ruso shook his head, and then suddenly asked: "Oh, by the way, who among you just supported me with his sword? "
