

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2741

Married at First Sight Chapter 2741-Erika continued: "If it's not yours, it's not yours. The prosperous life you have had for more than 20 years was stolen. From now on, you will be in poverty and live worse than a pig or a dog. Get out of here and go back to your hometown. It's so embarrassing to call our Kathryn a country bumpkin, but the real country bumpkin is you! Ugh!"

The three young ladies were very angry with Shiloh.

At this time, Shiloh was in despair, and they were all sarcastic.

Shiloh sat down and said, "I won't leave. I won't leave. I want to wait for my mom to come back and explain to her that it was not my intention. I was being plotted. Let me know who plotted against me. I will pay back a hundred times a thousand times."

She glared at her three sisters-in-law and suddenly asked, "Are you plotting against me?"

Erika stepped forward and slapped Shiloh hard on the face. She said, "A fake like you is not worthy of me dirtying my hands! You are shameless, so you have the nerve to rely on others. B*tch, let me tell you, no matter how you quibble, the scene last night was engraved in Mom's mind; she would never forget it. You, it's over."

Amora turned around and walked back to the villa. It didn't take long before it came out again.

She brought a basin of cold water. Without giving everyone time to react, she poured a basin of cold water on Shiloh's head.

Shiloh groaned, and her instinctive reaction was to jump up.

The weather was already cold, and a basin of cold water was poured on her. Shiloh shivered from the cold. Her clothes were splashed wet, and even the clothes on the ground were wet.

"Amora, Anya, go again and bring a basin of water out, wash all her clothes, leave her without any clothes to cover her, and freeze her to death. See if she still stays here and won't leave?"

Erika ordered them to bring out a basin of water again.

“I am coming too.” Anya also followed in.

Soon, the two young ladies came out, each carrying a basin of cold water.

Shiloh hurriedly picked up a few pieces of clothes that were not wet yet and ran away with the clothes in her arms, cursing as she ran, “Just wait for me; I won’t let you go! You are so vicious-hearted; no wonder my brothers don’t like you. If your parents’ family hadn’t had some status, do you think my three brothers still want you?”

When the matter of her husband’s cheating was mentioned, the three young ladies became angry again. In addition to splashing all the clothes on Shiloh’s pile on the ground, they also grabbed the basin and chased Shiloh.

They caught up with Shiloh, grabbed her, and beat her up.

Shiloh screamed repeatedly.

She had also learned some boxing and kicking skills, but she was not good at them, and she was at a disadvantage against the three young ladies by herself.

At this moment, she was extremely regretful that she had not practiced martial arts properly before.

“What are you doing?” Marco shouted loudly.

The melee ended.

Erika tidied her clothes and did not forget to kick Shiloh, who was knocked down.

She said to her husband, “Marco, Shiloh is scolding not only us but also dad and mom. She has reprimanded all of us. The scolding is so unpleasant that we really can’t help it. Let’s teach her a lesson.”

Marco came over and glared. “You are both young ladies, but you act like a shrew. If you don’t go back and let others see you, do you still want your face? Do you think we don’t have enough things at home?”

Almost all the people living here were members of the Farrell family.

They were from the family head's bloodline, and they were laughed at every day. Marco felt his face get hot.

Several people went back to the villa.

Marco walked up to Shiloh and kneeled down to help Shiloh.

Married At First Sight Chapter 2742-Shiloh said, "Brother."

After being helped up by Marco, Shiloh collapsed, threw herself into Marco's arms, and cried bitterly.

What did she do wrong?

Why did they do this to her?

She was also a victim.

Marco hugged her and said distressedly, "Stop crying; you leave first; last, they hurt you again. They have a lot of resentment towards you now, and if they get the opportunity, they will bully you hard."

Shiloh was on their side, and she offended their wives.

Even though Shiloh and them were both women, Shiloh was their sister. If she didn't stand on her brother's side, how could she stand on the sister-in-law's side? As a sister-in-law, how many of them really side with the sister-in-law?

Kathryn helped her three sisters-in-law, not because she was righteous but because she had no feelings for her brothers.

"I won't leave, brother; I won't leave. I want to wait for my mother to come back and explain to her. I really don't know how things happened. I am the victim. Someone must have plotted against me. There was a banquet at home last night. Come on. Someone killed so many people, but I was the one who got tricked. Someone must have framed me and wanted to kill me."

The person who harmed her was more vicious than her.

Everyone was aware that someone had manipulated what happened last night. As long as they calm down and analyze it, they can guess who is responsible.

Marco didn't dare say it because he gave Holden most of the bottle of wine that Holden and Shiloh drank. The wine he drank in his room was not finished and was placed on the wine cabinet of the small bar in the room.

Holden came to him in a bad mood and asked for a bottle of wine.

He was worried that Holden would get drunk, so he didn't bring a whole bottle of wine to Holden, so he opened the bottle and gave it to him after he drank a glass of wine.

Someone had drugged the wine to plot against Holden and Shiloh.

Who gave her the drug?

If Marco didn't, that's Erika.

Why did Erika drug Marco?

Marco remembered that he opened the bottle of wine and filled himself with a glass. After taking two sips, he felt urgent and went to the bathroom. When he came out of the bathroom, Erika was sitting at the bar in s-e-x-y pajamas.

Erika poured half of the glass of wine Marco had not finished into the empty glass, saying that she wanted to drink with him.

Marco was disgusted, but he still drank with Erika.

Then, that night, the couple fell in love as if they were newly married.

He struggled until late at night before falling asleep.

Marco knew in his heart that Erika's intention in adding the drug to the wine was to rekindle the romance of their newlyweds with him, not to plot against Holden and Shiloh. It was because he unknowingly gave Holden the spiked wine that caused yesterday's incident. Late things happened.

How dare Marco say that?

because he couldn't escape the relationship.

The couple was tied to a boat.

“Shiloh, Mom is done with her anger. She will find out. If you do not leave now, they will continue to beat you. Look at you now. What do you look like now? I’m very distressed when I see you like this, but there’s nothing I can do to help you.

You also know what the situation is in our family. As an elder brother, my words are useless.”

Shiloh also knew that it was not advisable to stay for a long time, but she was afraid that it would be even more difficult to see Matriarch Farrell again after she left.

Everyone would stop her from seeing her.

“Shiloh, you leave first. When mom comes back, I will help you talk and explain.” Marco coaxed her.

Shiloh thought for a while and nodded. She raised her face with tears in her eyes, but her face was covered with scratches. Some scratches were oozing with blood, and they were red, swollen, and shocking.