Married At First Sight Chapter 2811-Serenity smiled and said, "I'm not worried that they will be difficult to get along with. I'm just curious about what grandma would choose for them."

She's all about gossip.

Serenity was not worried that her future sisters-in-law wouldn't get along well. She knew that Grandma May had a good taste.

If they could be chosen by Grandma, they must have good character.

There's no need to worry, even if it's bad and they don't get along with her. Each person had their own villa at Wildridge Manor, where they all lived.

They can talk more clearly if they don't live together. They can keep up a superficial relationship even if they don't get along.

Zachary said, "I don't know what kind of people they are. I think they must be good-looking. After all, my cousins are all the best among people. If they are too ugly, my grandma will not choose them. It's been a long time since Evan came, and I don't know how he and his other half are doing."

He didn't even know the last name of Evan's other half.

It's not his woman, so why should he care so much about her?

Sooner or later, the younger brother would bring them back to meet their parents.

"I don't know what grandma saw in me in the first place. Although I am not ugly, I have no background, and the gap between my reality and yours is so big. You are the eldest son and grandson, but she arranged for me and forced you to be with me. Getting married was too difficult for you."

After Zachary was silent, he replied, "Maybe we owe it to that master."

Grandma May trusted the master the most. The master told her that Zachary and Serenity were destined to be husband and wife for a lifetime. If he missed Evan in this life, he would be a bachelor for the rest of his life. Grandma May loved him the most. How could she let him be a bachelor?

After secretly observing Serenity's character, she felt that Serenity was a good person, so she found an opportunity to get close to Serenity and then seduced Serenity step by step to become his wife.

The only variable was probably that Serenity was in a hurry to get married.

Grandma May probably wanted to spend a year or two abducting Serenity, but she never thought that Serenity would become Zachary's wife in a few months.

"Zachary, do you regret it?" Serenity suddenly raised her head and asked him.

Zachary pinched her face seriously and said, "I regret it so much that my intestines turned blue."

As soon as the sound fell, serenity took revenge. She punched him twice, but the force was not very strong. "If you regret it, just divorce. You think I can't live without you."

Zachary couldn't hold himself any longer, so he grabbed her pink fist and said with a smile, "I regret it. I regret not knowing you earlier and marrying you earlier. If I had married you earlier, we would have spent a lot longer together, Seren. I cherish the time we spend together very much."

Serenity softened her expression, then she blushed again, scolded him, leaned on his chest, and hugged his waist tightly with both hands.

In the past, she was very happy to get a divorce if he said he didn't love her.

Then she loved him, and it would be painful for her to lose him.

He was afraid of losing her, so why wasn't she?

Zachary hugged her and said seriously, "I will never divorce you in this life, and let's not say the word 'divorce' easily. It's too hurtful."

Serenity hummed, "I won't tell."

He said he regretted it just now, and she was anxious and angry, so she said it.

As soon as they arrived at the vegetable and fruit business that Serenity and her friends jointly own, the driver stopped the car.

Serenity picked up her bag and said to Zachary, "You don't have to get out of the car. Come back to the company. Josh is on vacation, so you should be busy."

"I'll accompany you in." Zachary got out of the car and insisted on sending Serenity into the office.
