

The Billionaire Ceo's Runaway Wife Chapter 18 - I've Been Watching Her All Night

C18 I've Been Watching Her All Night

Therefore, Bao Jingfeng could see her, but she couldn't see him.

But when she heard Bao Jingfeng's voice, she felt a little tired.

She yawned and pretended to be very tired.

"I want to sleep!"

"Then lie down and point the phone screen at yourself so that I can see you."

"Why?" Gu Wuyan looked puzzled.

"Because you hate me. When I see you, I encourage myself to have greater power and then eliminate idiots like you."

Gu Wuyan,... ""

What kind of magical reality was this? Magical man?

Were all wealthy people's thoughts so crafty?

She had no choice now, so she could only lie on the bed. However, she deliberately threw her phone to the side, allowing the camera to aim at the ceiling.

"Dumbass, are you itching for a beating?" The man's voice was filled with warning.

Gu Wuyan quickly grabbed the phone and pointed it at herself. She looked at him in a daze.

"Brother, where are you? Why didn't you come back today?"

It would be best if she was in Siberia, so that she could escape.

" I'm a bit busy today, so I won't be going back. I won't be able to go back tomorrow either. "

Gu Wuyan's eyes lit up when she heard this, but she quickly reacted and lowered her eyelashes again.

"I heard that you have a new brother today?"

Bao Jingfeng's voice was a little unhappy. Upon closer inspection, there seemed to be some unfriendly jealousy.

Gu Wuyan blinked blankly.

New brother?

Could he be referring to Dr. Mu?

It seemed like Dr. Mu had told Bao Jingfeng everything today.

Did he observe Bao Jingfeng's hand?

She suspected that Bao Jingfeng had been infected by the Arc Fungus of the Ocean, but she couldn't say it directly, so she could only use a reminder to deliberately hint at him.

If it was really infected by the Arc Sea Fungus, then it had to be treated in time.

Otherwise, he would face amputation, and even his life would be in danger.

Hey, hey, wait.

Was he worried about Bao Jingfeng?

What's wrong with him? Was he infected by Bao Jingfeng's strange thoughts?

Could she please ask him to infect the Arc Fungus of the Ocean, and then no one will discover her? She can die immediately like this, so that she can escape. Hmph! Hmph!

Gu Wuyan curled her lips.

Sigh, damn it, forget it. Don't let him die suddenly. Let him live well.

"Big brother." Gu Wuyan muttered.

"After you call me big brother, you acknowledge another man as your big brother. You, a little mental patient, are quite good at coming from both sides."

Bao Jingfeng's voice became more and more unhappy!

... ""

Hey, hey, who came from both sides? What nonsense are you talking about?

But he was very unhappy that she called another man older brother?

Then she should coax him.

"Brother, hug."

She had goosebumps all over the floor.

"Who is your brother? Don't randomly acknowledge relatives!" Bao Jingfeng's voice sounded even more annoyed.

Gu Wuyan,... ""

She had come, and now she had another problem.

He was unhappy that she had recognized someone else as her brother.

She called him big brother, but he didn't let her.

Then what should she do? Could she call him husband?

Pooh, pooh, pooh, how is that possible? What the hell am I thinking!

She insisted on calling him!

"Big brother, I'm sleepy..." Gu Wuyan's voice was very tired.

"Are you really sleepy?" Bao Jingfeng asked. He did not realize that when he heard the word brother, he did not get angry anymore.

Gu Wuyan yawned again and the phone slipped from her palm.

She turned around and fell asleep with her back to Bao Jingfeng.

Bao Jingfeng snorted coldly.

"You shameless little fool!"

In less than a minute, Liu Xiaoyun suddenly walked in.

Gu Wuyan heard the movement but she was pretending to be asleep. She felt that Liu Xiaoyun had brought the phone from the bed over.

Gu Wuyan secretly opened her eyes and saw Liu Xiaoyun pointing the phone at her face.

This man must be poisonous. He must have let Liu Xiaoyun come in and pointed the phone at her face to see her at all times.

Gu Wuyan laid like this for two minutes and then turned around.

Liu Xiaoyun acted as if she received an order and turned her phone in front of Gu Wuyan again. The camera of the phone was aimed at Gu Wuyan's face.

Gu Wuyan's brows were knitted together.

That abnormal Bao Jingfeng, could it be that he watched her sleep all night?

What dirty tricks?

Gu Wuyan could not sleep any longer.

She turned over again and laid on her side. However, she maintained this position and did not move again.

Roughly an hour later, Liu Xiaoyun saw that Gu Wuyan seemed to be sleeping soundly and secretly took a pillow and placed it in front of Gu Wuyan. Then she placed the phone on the side of the pillow so that she did not need to keep holding the phone.

This time, Gu Wuyan was really very honest. She did not move for a long time.

The young miss was finally obedient.

Liu Xiaoyun yawned and sat on the carpet. She laid her hands on the bedside and looked pitifully at Gu Wuyan.

Gu Wuyan also did not fall asleep. The reason why she kept lying sideways was to let Liu Xiaoyun not have to work so hard.

Sleep, good night, perverted Mr. Bao.

When he was sleepy...

Black clouds hung in the sky, and a cool breeze blew in the middle of the night.

Gu Wuyan's neck seemed to have been pinched, causing her to gasp for breath.

It was only when the man let go of her and pinched her face that she saw his appearance clearly.

His facial features were so handsome that not a single blemish could be found on his face. That pair of pitch-black eyes seemed to contain thousands of stars, but it was filled with endless coldness. At this moment, there was an oppressive feeling that even she did not dare to look directly at him.
