

Chapter 803 Being A Powerful Fighter

When they left, a thought occurred to Yesenia, which prompted her to say, "Julie, I'll take care of the company affairs. Why don't you go to the Evergreen Cemetery today?"

As soon as she mentioned this, a heaviness formed inside Julie's chest. She nodded before slowly driving away towards the suburb.

Today was Ulises' death anniversary, and his remains were buried in the Evergreen Cemetery.

Because of what she had done in the past, Yesenia was too ashamed to face Ulises. Thus, every year, during the anniversary of his death, Julie was the only one who would visit.

While driving, Julie's mind began to wander. After a while, she took out her phone and called Liam.

"Today is the death anniversary of my father," she told him. "Would you like to go to the Evergreen Cemetery and accompany me?"

Liam had always been fond of Ulises. Without hesitation, he replied, "Okay. I'll bring Asher with me."

After hanging up the phone, Liam woke Asher up. Once they were both dressed up, they headed straight towards the Evergreen Cemetery.

Along the way, Liam tried to put himself in Julie's shoes.

Even at this time, Ruben was still forcing her to get engaged. It was so obvious that he had an ulterior motive.

Thinking of this, Liam remembered what had happened five years ago. Ulises died after he rescued Julie, and then there were the events happened in the delta region. The events during that time was the original reason why he and Julie had been separated for five years.

Memories of the past washed over him, and before he knew it, he had already arrived at the foot of the mountain where the cemetery was located.

Since Julie arrived earlier than Liam and Asher, she had to wait for them at the foot of the mountain. When the three of them met, they slowly hiked up the mountain together.

Upon arriving at the cemetery's gate, they found that the gate was locked securely. As Julie and Liam wondered why that was the case, a flock of men suddenly rushed out of the gate. They all sported fierce expressions while holding machetes in their hands.

After surrounding Liam and Julie, a man walked forward. It was none other than Ruben.

As soon as she saw him, Julie's face darkened. "What are you trying to pull, Ruben?"

With a sneer, Ruben responded, "Today's your father's death anniversary. I knew that you'd be coming here. You've caused me great shame by running away from the wedding. As punishment, I will destroy your father's grave in front of you!"

As soon as he said that, he burst into a maniacal laughter. Then, he waved his hand, signaling the several men behind him to take action. With a sneer, they picked up the spades they had prepared in advance and began to move.

"Don't do that!" Julie cried as her face turned pale.

Ruben stopped and flashed an evil grin. "Well, I can stop. However, if you want us to stop, you'll have to use this spade to slap that bastard standing next to you right in the face."

He then threw the spade directly to Julie's feet. With a loud snort, he continued, "You're both reckless, aren't you? Today, you will pay the price for your insolence!"

Julie stood defiantly, refusing to give in to this mad man's demand. "Ruben, you're such a beast!" she shouted, her eyes burning with rage as she seethed through gritted teeth.

She was not a weak woman. Five years ago, she had received special training from a killer organization. Although she hadn't participated in any battle for a long time, she was still skillful enough to fight.

Given her current skill level, she couldn't possibly defeat all the men Ruben had brought. The least she could do was to injure Ruben.

She took a deep breath and steeled her face in resolve. Today was the day she would be fighting death head on.

With this in mind, she picked up the spade and stared daggers at Ruben. Then, she planted her foot on the ground, poised to make a move. Naturalise chrissy.
