

An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2020

Chapter 2020:

Being able to have s*x for free is already a secret pleasure. If you have other ideas, it is disrespectful.

“I hope so.” Margaret looked indifferent.

Lily Zhang’s greed has already made her very unhappy.

Some people are like this. The more you retreat, the more the other party advances.

“Forget it, since Miss Margaret doesn’t want to, I won’t force it.”

Lily Zhang glanced at Margaret meaningfully, then turned her eyes to the spiritual liquid controlled by Dustin, and said in a resigned tone. : “According to the previous agreement, I will share half of the treasures here, including these spiritual liquids, I also want half!” “

Hey! Are you too greedy!”

Hearing this, Leo Alexander and others were a little unhappy. He retorted: “You are following behind. You haven’t done anything, you haven’t taken any risks, and you have to open your mouth half way. Why do you have that?!” “That’s right!”

The short-haired woman echoed, “Miss Margaret If we take half of it, we will be convinced. As for you, do you have the qualifications?” “

Without my information, can you find the treasure? Besides, we have already discussed something before, are you going to go back on your promise?” Lily Zhang narrowed his eyes. Squinting his eyes, a cold glow overflowed.

“The plan cannot keep up with the changes. Even without the information you provided, we can still find this place with the help of visions. Therefore, your existence has no value to us at all, let alone contribution.” Leo Alexander argued with reason.

Along the way, he lost troops and generals, and even sacrificed his brothers in order to explore the treasure at the bottom of the lake.

They have paid so much, so naturally they are not willing to have most of their benefits taken away by a woman who has made no contribution.

“Brother Snow, these people want to cross the river and burn the bridge, what do you say?”

Lily Zhang was very smart and did not stand up for himself, but asked the people around him for help.

“This...”

Kevin Snow was speechless for a moment.

“I think what Captain Leo said makes sense.”

A disciple of the Golden Blade Sect suddenly said, “You alone have to occupy half of the treasures, and let us drink from the northwest wind?” “

That’s right! Don’t be greedy. There are so many treasures, everyone has their share, and they should be divided equally. If you want to eat half of it, I will never agree!” Another Golden Blade Sect disciple expressed his support.

The reason why they sided with the Black Scorpion Team was, on the one hand, to fight for their own interests, and on the other hand, they looked down upon Lily Zhang’s character.

They had fought tooth and nail to rescue Lily Zhang, but what they got in exchange was betrayal.

Due to Kevin Snow's kindness, they didn't care too much, but that didn't mean that the matter was over.

"We Yuanyang Sect and Jindao Sect have always been on good terms, but I didn't expect that you would actually speak for outsiders. It's really too much!" Lily Zhang became angry with embarrassment.

"Friends? Huh! If that's the case, why did you cross the river and burn the bridge before?" Several Golden Blade Sect disciples sneered.

"You..."

Lily Zhang was speechless for a moment and could only hold Kevin Snow's arm and said pitifully: "Senior Brother Kevin, look at these people, they don't take me seriously at all. , as a senior brother, you should educate them well."

"Okay, okay, you all should say less. What happened before was just an accident and must not be mentioned again."

After Kevin Snow reprimanded, he continued: "As for how to distribute the treasure, I think we should listen to Miss Margaret's opinion and let her make the decision."

As soon as these words came out, everyone's eyes were focused on Margaret.

"Me?"

Margaret looked around and was about to say something.

A sudden sneer sounded from the door of the tomb.

"You don't have to fight. You can't take away any of the treasures here!"
