Chapter 1071

Then, Andrius carried Lewis's body and headed in the direction of Bardan. Without the disturbance of the wolf pack, Andrius' pace was much faster going downhill. The next day, just as the day was breaking, he arrived at the foot of the mountain. To his surprise, a small and exquisite tent had been set up here. There were many warriors on constant alert in the surroundings. "Wolf King!" the soldiers greeted Andrius when they saw him. However, when they saw Lewis's body on his back, they fell silent. The morning was destined to be wordless and sorrowful. "Andrius..." Upon hearing the commotion outside, a person walked out of the small tent. It was none other than Princess Yule, Anna Faulkner. When she saw the body on his back, she also froze in place. "I'm sorry..." Andrius seemed to be speaking to Anna, but it also sounded like he was speaking to himself. "We encountered a wolf pack on our way up the mountain. I couldn't bring them back alive." The group fell silent. "Wolf King..." Anna whispered comfortingly. "The snow wolf pack is ferocious and ruthless. My father organized several hunts, but they all ended in failure. It's not your fault. Don't blame yourself." Andrius paused for a moment, then continued, "I already buried the guide, Koby, and the other soldiers on the spot. "As for the wolf pack... The white wolf king has been slain, and most of the wolf pack was killed. They should no longer pose a threat to Bardan in the future." Upon saying that, Andrius shook off the snowy white wolf's head from the spear behind him.

Anna sighed and said softly. "Thank you for what you've done for Bardan." She knew very well that Andrius must have fought the white wolf king out of guilt. She had also heard of the fierceness of the white wolf king. Andrius must have paid a heavy price to bring back its head. It was also a consolation to the fallen warriors! Andrius chuckled bitterly and did not speak.

Anna turned to her maid and ordered, "Prepare generous gifts immediately. Come with me to console the families of the fallen soldiers."

"I'll go too."

These soldiers set foot in Mount Valdez because of Andrius and met their demise there. Andrius could not just stand idly by.

An hour later, Andrius met the families with Anna.

"I'm sorry. I couldn't bring them back..."

After Anna went forward to express her condolences, Andrius also expressed his remorse.

When he appeared without any soldiers following him, the families already knew the outcome and wailed loudly.

"My son, my son..."

"You were only thirty. How could you have left..."

"You said that you'd retire after this mission..."

The families' cries made Andrius fall into silence again.

"Wolf King, don't blame yourself! It was my son's honor to accompany you to Valdez. It was fate that he wasn't able to come back!"

An old man went up to comfort Andrius. He sobbed as he spoke, but there was a glint in his eyes. He was proud of his son!

"That's right. Wolf King, we've heard from the princess. You've already avenged them by killing the white wolf king, eliminating future troubles for Bardan."

"Wolf King, it's really not your fault. It's just their ill fate..."

Chapter 1072

"Wolf King..."

The families expressed their understanding, feeling honored that their children could accompany the Wolf King of Florence.

Bardan was located northeast of Florence, with potential enemies in all other directions. As the Wolf King, Andrius had repeatedly helped Bardan repel invading enemy forces, cementing Bardan as an independent nation.

Thus, Andrius' prestige in Bardan far surpassed that of the emperor. The people of Bardan respected him greatly, almost treating him like a deity.

Andrius' heart felt better at their words.

"In fact..." An elderly woman suddenly grabbed Anna's hand and went up to Andrius.

"Wolf King, you should consider Princess Yule.

"She has deep feelings for you. She studied Florentian culture, learned about Florence's medicines, and researched Florentian cuisine. All of this is for you.

"If you marry her, it'll be a blessing to Bardan."

At those words, Anna's face instantly turned as red as an apple.

Andrius did not expect the mood that was originally filled with sorrow to suddenly shift into a matchmaking situation, catching him off guard. He instinctively wanted to refuse.

However, when he saw the grieving face of the elderly woman with only a glimmer of light on her expression, he could not seem to speak.

"Okay" In the end, Andrius nodded and agreed.

"Great, great" The old woman instantly beamed with joy, placing Anna's soft hands into Andrius' Then, she patted them lightly "We'll wait for the day when the entire country celebrates your wedding."

Anna was also overjoyed. She raised her head and looked at Andrius shyly, her eyes sparkling.

After leaving the area....

"Wolf King..." Anna hesitated to speak but plucked up the courage. "When do you plan to marry me?"

This made Andrius choke for a moment. He already had Luna and a somewhat ambiguous Halle waiting

At that thought, Andrius raised his head and looked directly at Anna, saying sincerely.

"Your Highness, I just said that because I didn't want to make the old lady sadder. Don't take it to heart."

The bright smile on Anna's face instantly froze. However, she was not a self-pitying person.

"Wolf King, Anna quickly adjusted her mindset and said sincerely. "Is there anything you think isn't good about me? Tell me I'll definitely change."

"That's not it" Andrius shook his head and said, "You're knowledgeable and reasonable, and you're the princess of Bardan. Your status is revered. There's nothing wrong with you.

“However, the situation in Florence is currently unpredictable, and I’m in the center of the whirlpool | don’t want you to be involved in this turmoil. It’ll be dangerous for you if you’re too close to me
Anna’s expression instantly dimmed at those words.
Andrius knew that now was not the time to be indecisive and continued frankly. To be honest, I currently have a very important and dangerous task. I’ll be leaving now.”
With that, he left without looking at Anna’s expression.
According to the agreement with the Insect Ruler, the Ancient Martial Assembly was right around the corner. He needed to rush to intercept the upcoming experts on their way to Mount Valdez
