

The Wolf's Bride by Coffee's Tea Novel

Chapter 997

“Pfft-

Osian was once again pushed back by Andrius' fist and vomited blood. He could not stand the humiliation any longer and began to use his family's ultimate technique.

“Andrius Moonshade, you forced me to do this. You forced me to do this!”

Osian waved his hand, gathering strands of inner energy in the air.

Vaguely, it seemed as if there was an illusory tiger roaring in the inner energy, rushing toward Andrius.

Osian was close to madness after Andrius' repeated taunting. He had only recently learned this technique and had not fully mastered it yet.

However, he did not care anymore. Even if it meant risking self-injury, he was determined to end Andrius' life here.

“That's one of the Swallow family's ultimate techniques, the Tiger Subduing Fist!” the bald man hissed in shock while watching this move and subconsciously blurted out.

“It's said that the threshold for learning the Tiger Subduing Fist is the Martial King realm. Young Master Osian is truly an exceptional talent to have learned it so quickly.”

“The Tiger Subduing Fist's power is ferocious and unparalleled. Andrus is definitely going to die this time!” “Yes, he's done for.”

The remaining two people marveled while looking at Andrius coldly.

From their perspectives, the moment Osian executed the Tiger Subduing Fist, Andrius' life was already on a countdown.

“Die, Andrius!”

After a long period of preparation, Osian's Tiger Subduing Fist had reached the peak of its power and was unleashed upon Andrius.

A fierce wind swept through in an instant, and a tiger roared. It was as if a ferocious tiger had opened its enormous mouth, about to devour Andrius in the next moment.

"Andy, watch out!"

"Wolf King, be careful!"

Noir, the Black Hawk, and the others saw the astonishing power of the attack and instinctively shouted out.

However, Andrius did not care. He watched as Osian's fist, charged with all his inner energy, was about to hit him.

Andrius did not dodge or defend. Instead, he confronted the fist head-on!

Seeing this, Osian was both shocked and delighted, shouting disdainfully. "You're seeking death!"

Bam!

The next moment, the fist struck Andrius' chest. The surging inner energy was like waves crashing against the shore, hitting Andrius violently.

"Heh... Ugh-"

Osian was just about to gloat when he felt a piercing pain throughout his entire arm. His attack on Andrius had left his arm numb and tingling as if it had been fried in oil.

He instinctively looked over.

Not only was Andrius not blown away, but he stood calmly in place with a vague smile, as if he had everything under control.

“Impossible!”

“How... How could this be?!”

“Andrius actually took Young Master Osian’s Tiger Subduing Fist head–on. Is this some kind of joke?”

The Swallow family experts were shocked at this scene, their eyes wide open. It was just unbelievable!

The Tiger Subduing Fist was an amazing martial technique that could be used in battles against higher- level opponents!

Furthermore, Osian had been charging the attack for a long time, maximizing its power. Yet, not only did it not hurt Andrius, but it even looked like Osian was injured by the rebound...

Was this some kind of joke?

Chapter 998

Osian’s face turned pale as he asked in astonishment, “Andrius Moonshade... What kind of cultivation technique did you practice? How is your physical strength so incredible?!”

He was frightened by Andrius’ strength.

“Do you want to know?” Andrius glanced at him and spoke with a vague smile while casually approaching him.

Andrius’ approach was relaxed, but it gave Osian a huge sense of pressure, causing the latter’s heart to race. He kept retreating but soon found his back against the wall with no way to escape.

The three martial realm experts wanted to help him, but in the face of Andrius who was advancing step by step, their legs felt as heavy as lead, making them unable to move at all.

A few seconds later, Andrius reached Osian.

“It’s not some magical technique. It’s just pure power!” Andrius said, then delivered a punch to Osian while maintaining eye contact.

He hit Osian in the same manner that Osian had hit him earlier.

Swoosh!

Osian instinctively raised his hands to block the blow.

However, Andrius' seemingly unimpressive punch concealed overwhelming force. It effortlessly pushed aside Osian's hands and landed squarely on his chest.

Thud...

A muffled sound echoed, followed by crisp cracking noises.

The punch shattered countless ribs in Osian's chest, leaving his chest sunken and the corresponding area on his back swollen. Then, he was sent crashing into the wall, creating a human-shaped hole.

Crash...

Countless bricks and debris fell.

"Pfft..."

Osian vomited a mouthful of blood on the ground, painting a shocking sight. Upon closer inspection, the blood was mixed with fragments of internal organs.

Andrius' simple punch had nearly sent Osian to the afterlife, giving him a chance to have tea with the Grim Reaper.

"Ugh... Pfft-"

Osian struggled to get up, but it was in vain. He spat out another mouthful of blood and collapsed on the ground, completely devoid of any strength.

"Young Master!"

"Young Master!"

The Swallow family experts finally snapped back to their senses and prepared to rescue Osian.

“Heh. We are your opponents!” Noir shouted and led the Lycan Manor experts to block the three men on the spot.

Chapter 998

The three men fought with all their might but could not break free.

Meanwhile, Andrius looked down at Osian with an inexplicable smile on his face. “I think you’re no good at all. I barely did anything, but you’re already running away, not knowing how to strike back.”

The Swallows were the head of the four families and had led the extermination of the Kleins years ago. They had long become sworn enemies.

After that, the Swallow family’s First Elder recently severed Andrius’ meridians, attempting to make him a cripple. Then, Norvin forcibly took away Andrius’ jade pendant and pushed him into the magma...

That was grudges stacked upon grudges. Such grudges could only be cleansed by blood!

“W—what do you want to do?” Osian looked at Andrius in warning and threatened, “I’m warning you, I’m the legitimate heir of the Swallows. If you dare to kill me... My family head will surely annihilate you and leave you with no resting place!”

“Hahaha...”

How hilarious.

Andrius laughed and looked at Osian mockingly, saying, “I’ve long been sworn enemies with the Swallows. Why would I care if your family spares me? Is there something wrong with your brain? That threat is too childish!”

Chapter 999

With Andrius’ words, a chilling murderous intent suddenly burst forward.

Osian felt like he had fallen into an icy abyss. His entire body turned cold in an instant.

“However, I won’t kill you.” Andrius’s tone suddenly changed, but his gaze fixed on Osian became even colder. The Swallow family has committed many evil deeds in the world. I won’t let you die that easily.”

At some point, Andrius’ hand held a bloody insect that looked exceptionally sinister and eerie.

As soon as he finished speaking, the insect swiftly shot into Osian’s nostrils and entered his body.

“Y–you...” Osian was terrified. He instinctively questioned, “Andrius, w–what did you do to me?”

“This is the Meridian Devouring Insect.” Andrius explained earnestly, “It feeds on a person’s meridians and can clean out your meridians in no time. After that, it will devour your internal organs piece by piece.

“Back then, your family’s First Elder severed my meridians. This time, I’m here to collect the interest on that debt.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Osian felt excruciating pain from inside his body. In just a few seconds, he curled into a fetal position, his body twitching uncontrollably.

“Ahhhhh...”

Osian emitted a miserable and horrifying howl. Veins like giant pythons bulged on his forehead. He was drenched in cold sweat as he screamed.

Compared to what Andrius experienced on that day, Osian’s suffering was at least a hundred times worse,

After this, Andrius no longer paid attention to him and instructed Terry, “Go and take all the people from the Hardys into custody, and bring them back to the Central Warzone headquarters for questioning and sentencing!”

“Yes, sir!” Terry immediately complied.

Osian had fallen.

The three Swallow family experts were occupied with Noir and the others.

When Jim saw Andrius deal with Osian, he was so frightened that he pissed himself. He slumped on the ground, already devoid of resistance.

Ten minutes later, all the people from the Hardy family were taken into custody and led away by the soldiers.

Andrius, Noir, and the others also left.

“Young Master!”

“Young Master...”

“Young Master-

The three Swallow family experts immediately hurried to Osian.

However, he had already been rendered unconscious by the excruciating pain. His meridians had been devoured, leaving him no different from a cripple.

Seeing this, the three could only carry Osian back to the Swallows in fear and anxiety.

Chapter 999

In the Swallows' residence, everyone in the Swallow family was filled with anger as they gazed at Osian, who was covered in blood and on the brink of death.

“Sir, Andrius has acted so arrogantly. He must pay with his life!”

“Sir, the Swallow family has reigned dominant for decades and never had our legitimate heirs being cripples. Andrius must die a painful death! We must display his head for forty–nine days and nights at our family gates to seek revenge!”

“Sir, please give us your order!”

“Sir, since Andrius dared to attack the Swallows today, anyone will dare to trample on us tomorrow!”

“Sir...”

The Swallow family elders were furious and urged Norvin to give his orders.

It was only when Norvin raised his right hand did they quieted down.

Norvin glanced at the crowd and said solemnly, “Andrius’ meridians were already severed by the First Elder. I personally verified that his meridians were broken beyond repair.

“Furthermore, I also made him consume the Hundred Day Soul Scattering Pill, Logically speaking, he should have been reduced to mere trash. How did he cripple Osian? There must be something afoot.”

The elders were first stunned, then began clamoring again.

“Andrius must have recovered.”

“With the Medicine Sect’s assistance, Andrius’ recovery isn’t surprising.”

“Wade Klein is indeed powerful, and the Medicine Sect has always revolved around medicine.”

Just as the elders were voicing their opinions, the First Elder suddenly stepped forward and said solemnly, “Sir, there’s an important matter I have yet to report to you.”

At his words, all the other elders fell silent.

Norvin also looked at the First Elder.

“What is it?”

“Before this, a major incident occurred in Sumeria.” The First Elder said slowly, “A person in black kidnapped Luna Crestfall, who is Andrius’ wife, and brought her to Skyscraper Cliff to force Andrius to reveal the Klein family's treasure."

The Klein family's treasure?

Chapter 1000

Chapter 1000

Norvin frowned slightly upon hearing those words.

He had already seized Andrius' jade pendant. Did Andrius still possess something related to the Klein family's treasure?

Could it be...

The First Elder continued, "The person in black was exceptionally powerful. If it weren't for Old Hagstorm, Andrius' master, and the Medicine Sect's Wade Klein intervening, Andrius and Luna would undoubtedly have died.

"However, during this process, Old Hagstorm also fell off the cliff."

The hall fell into a dead silence at those words.

Old Hagstorm... That old fox was actually forced off a cliff by the person in black?

"Where did you get this information? Is it reliable?" Norvin's eyes gleamed as he asked the First Elder.

The First Elder nodded solemnly. "It's true. After Andrius returned, he immediately went to Kiyoto to inform Registus. Registus has already decided to erect a grave for Old Hagstorm."

A grave!

That meant it was most likely true.

The entire hall was plunged into silence as everyone processed this vital information.

“Could it be...”

After a moment, Norvin narrowed his eyes and said, “Andrius was seemingly pushed into the magma, but in reality, he stumbled upon the Klein family’s hidden treasure that was unknown to outsiders?”

“That’s very possible!”

“That speculation is reasonable. Otherwise, how could Andrius have recovered his meridians and regained his strength?”

“There’s no doubt that Andrius must have obtained the secret treasure of the Klein family and used it to restore his own power, resulting in drawing the attention of the person in black.”

The First Elder listened to their discussion and suggested solemnly, “I think we should take action before the person in black and capture Andrius first.

“*On one hand, we can use torture to force him to reveal the other hidden treasure of the Klein family. *On the other hand, we can also avenge Osian!”

All the other elders agreed with the First Elder’s proposal.

“That’s the way to go!”

“Time waits for no one!”

“Sir, the person in black was able to force Old Hagstorm off a cliff, indicating that he possesses extraordinary strength. If Andrius falls into his hands, it’ll be difficult to bring him back!”

“Sir...”

The voices caused Norvin to get a headache. He could not decide what to do.

Chapter 1000

Andrius had now recovered his strength and gained support from Wade. The re might even have been some secret agreement between the two.

The Swallows were already being watched by the Ander, Sheppard, and Fuller families. If the Medicine Sect was added to the mix... The pressure would become unbearable.

“I’ll consult the Forebearer for a final decision.”

With that, Norvin went to the ancestral hall behind the mountain.

In the secret room, Norvin said humbly, “Forebearer, I, Norvin Swallow, request an audience.”

Creak, creak, creak....

As the stone door opened, Norvin quickly went in.

Norvin bowed respectfully and asked, “Forebearer, has there been any progress with the two jade pendants?”

After he brought the two jade pendants back, he researched them for a long time but did not discover anything. Thus, he handed it to the forebearer, hoping that the wise forebearer could unravel their mysteries.

“These things...” Duncan opened his palm and revealed two jade pendants on them. He shook his head and sighed. “If you hadn’t personally retrieved them, I would’ve thought they were just a smokescreen.”

Norvin fell silent.

Duncan’s words made it clear that he did not find anything.

“What did you come here for?”

Norvin immediately reported all the events related to Andrius and asked, “What should the Swallows do now?”

A glint flashed in Duncan's eyes as he said coldly, "Since Andrius has crippled a member of the Swallows first and appears to have obtained another Klein family's treasure, why hesitate any longer?"

"Capture him and force his mouth open. Don't have any reservations.

"That way, we can ensure the Klein family's treasures won't be leaked to the outside and also instill fear in the small fry, establishing the reputation of the Swallows!"

"I understand." Norvin left after receiving the order and went back to the meeting hall where the elders were waiting for him.

When they saw him return, they all asked, "Sir, what did the forebearer say?"

Norvin looked at the elders and said, "The forebearer supports our plan to capture Andrius. Let's discuss when we should take action."

The First Elder stepped forward and said, "The emperor has decided to erect a grave for Old Hagstorm at Mount Dragon Tiger in two days. Andrius will definitely attend the ceremony. We can choose to take action on that day."

Norvin pondered for a moment and agreed, giving the order, "So be it. We'll proceed in two days. Go prepare yourselves well."

"Capturing Andrius is a matter of utmost importance and we must not fail."
