Married At First Sight Chapter 2858-“It is true that Julian is a businessman, but he is not just a businessman. There must be something he is hiding from us and has not told us. Everyone has their own secrets, and you can’t tell everyone else.” Kiera spoke for Julian.

Mrs. Caron said, “Think about it: when you first met him, didn’t he pretend not to know martial arts? You helped him once, and he was a lifesaver. He insisted on repaying your life-saving grace, and then he treated you in various ways.

Maybe it’s because I have watched too many TV dramas. I always feel that Julian has been plotting against you from the beginning, planning for you to become his savior, so that he can approach you openly and treat you well, and you won’t think too much about it.

Perhaps the gangsters you met on the night you rescued him were all arranged by him. Public security is good now, and there are very few gangsters anymore, let alone the large number of gangsters. Can the police in Wiltspoon allow them to come out at night?”

Kiera: “Mom, you have watched too many TV dramas and thought too much. I have something worth Julian’s calculations. Our family is not a rich family. I work at my own martial arts gym. My personal fortune is not as good as Julian’s income in a day. He can’t plot against anyone else.

Besides, the night I helped him was indeed the first time I met him. When we met for the first time, no one knew anyone. Why did he plot against me for no reason? He is a businessman, and his business is very big. He knows how to do it. If someone offends someone and is retaliated by others, it is not impossible for the enemy to ask someone to stop his car to do harm to him.”

Kiera didn’t think she had anything worthy of Julian’s calculations.

If she had a net worth of tens of billions, it would be reasonable for Julian to plot against her.

Her monthly salary was tens of thousands of dollars. Her family had money, but it was her parents’ money, not hers. She could be said to have no power and no money. Who would plot against her?

Mrs. Caron really thought a lot.

She reached out and poked her daughter on the head and said angrily, “You, you always think too well of people. You are not just out of society, but you are still so naive and easy to trust. Julian is an unmarried older man. What do you think he wants from you? What does he want to plot against you?”

He has fallen in love with you, and he plans to have you become his woman. You don’t even have such thoughts. No wonder you have been ignored countless times on blind dates. It’s a good thing that Julian has fallen in love with you. Otherwise, it would really be impossible. I want your two brothers to support you for the rest of your life.”

Kiera: “Mom!”

She was ignored once or twice on a blind date, but she didn’t care. Originally, she didn’t want to go on a blind date, but every time it happened, her self-esteem was still hit.

Mrs. Caron even said it to her face, and even she would never say that.

Kiera: “Mom, you have already seen that Julian is interested in me?”

Mrs. Caron: “Looking at your reaction and your tone, do you know? Oh, that’s good. You’ve become smarter and more sensitive. I thought you wouldn’t be able to react after being targeted for a year and a half.”

Kiera: “...”

Mrs. Caron, even though she knew Julian was targeting her, didn’t even bother to wake her up.

On the contrary, it was better for Julian.

Mrs. Caron treated Julian as her son-in-law. No wonder Kiera’s parents and brothers were no longer as cautious and polite to Julian as they were at first. Instead, they treat Julian as casually as they treat family members. Mrs. Caron would even talk about Julian as much as she talks about her brothers and sisters.

Kiera was also worried that Mrs. Caron would often talk about Julian, and Julian would be angry. She told Julian in private not to take Mrs. Caron's nagging to heart, as Mrs. Caron was such a person.

Thinking about it, Kiera felt that she was the monkey—the one who was tricked the most.

“How did you find out?”

Mrs. Caron asked Kiera with interest.

In her opinion, Kiera looked like a boy. In just one month, she would not be able to discover Julian's thoughts.

Someone must have told Kiera!

Married At First Sight Chapter 2859-Kiera blushed. She replied in a low voice, “Julian brought us a barbecue just now. Mom, it's not me who wants to eat it; it's my class of students who want to eat it. Julian has always pampered them and bought them whatever they wanted to eat.

It just happened, by the way. Then, while I was eating, Julian suddenly told me that he liked me. He said that it was not between friends, but between a man and a woman. He said that his like was love. He loves me and wants to marry me.

Oh, he also sent me a bouquet of flowers. First, he asked me what I thought about receiving the bouquet of flowers. I was thinking of flower cakes.”

Mrs. Caron was staring at Kiera, so she spoke softer and softer. She said innocently, “What he gave me was a bouquet of roses. There were so many roses. All I could think of was a rose flower cake. It was also he who asked me what I had. I told the truth.”

Mrs. Caron poked her head again angrily. “Why are you so stupid? All you think about is food all day long. It's not that you like barbecue; why would Julian buy so much for you? Don't think that it's cold and you guys eat barbecue. You won't get angry; you will still get angry. I'll make you a pot of herbal tea later.”

Kiera: "Mom, no need. Julian also bought chrysanthemum tea for everyone. Isn't chrysanthemum tea also an herbal tea? Besides, they are used to it and won't feel angry."

Mrs. Caron gave up and continued to say, "Julian knows how to buy chrysanthemum tea for you. He is worthy of being by our side."

After Mrs. Caron finished speaking, she stared at Kiera again. After a long while, she asked her daughter, "Did you run home because Julian confessed to you so abruptly?"

Kiera was very carefree and had always treated Julian as a good friend. It was normal to be frightened when her love was suddenly confessed.

"You didn't reject him, did you?" Mrs. Caron asked nervously, "You cannot accept it for the time being, but you can't refuse it directly. Leave yourself a way out. Look at you; you are twenty-four or five years old, and you don't even have a suitor. You are so good-looking for nothing. It's not easy for someone to like you; you have to seize the opportunity.

Julian is pretty good, too. He's just a few years older than you. Also, he's from far away. It's thousands of miles away from our cloud city. But it's okay. Your parents are both people who can fly and drive. They're not afraid of motion sickness. If I want to see you, I'll fly there. After all, it's only a few hours away by plane. As long as he can marry you off, as long as you can marry a good husband and marry abroad, I will accept it."

Kiera didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "Mom, how don't you want to see me?"

When a mother from another family heard that her daughter was going to marry far away, she was so distressed that she couldn't bear to part with her. Mom, it's better. You also said that you would accept my marriage abroad."

Mrs. Caron hummed, "Who told you that you couldn't get married? You can get married, and you can marry a man as good as Julian. I want to burn incense. There is smoke rising from the ancestral graves of your old Caron family. Finally, you can get married."

Kiera: "Mom, I'm not married yet. If I marry someone, smoke will rise from my ancestral graves. If I have some great potential, won't the old Caron family's ancestral graves be about to explode?"

I didn't think about rejecting Julian. I just felt surprised for a moment and a little embarrassed to face him. I also have no experience with being confessed to. I didn't know how to deal with it, so I could only run out and run home.

Mom, is your food ready? Go and cook. You don't have to do anything to eat hot pot; the rice has already been cooked."

Married At First Sight Chapter 2860-Mrs. Caron also wanted to have a heart-to-heart talk with Kiera. "You and Julian get along very well and can chat well. He is sincere with you. Think about it calmly for a few days, and then you can reply to him."

Kiera agreed but said worriedly, "Mom, do you think Julian is trying something new? His family is so rich, he is a wealthy young master, and he has seen ninety-nine beauties, if not a hundred. I am somewhat pretty, but I don't think it was my beauty that attracted him.

Does he just want to have fun? Maybe he is sincere with me now. What about after marriage? He changes his mind after marriage, cheats, and has mistresses and mistresses. I can't accept it. I won't be able to beat him when the time comes. Wiltspoon is far away from you, and it's hard for you to rush over to support me, so what should I do?"

After Mrs. Caron thought deeply for a moment, she said, "It's really hard to say. However, you are responsible for managing your marriage. If you two manage it carefully, nothing like that should happen. I just don't know if his parents can see it."

The Caron family was also famous in Yonsburg, not because they were rich, but because the Caron family martial arts gym was famous. Of course, the Caron family was also rich—not tens of billions, but tens of millions, barely over 100 million—and they would still have it.

Compared with the Bucham family, the difference was too great.

What if Julian's parents looked down on the Caron family?

“Have you met his parents when you went to Wiltspoon? What is his parents’ attitude towards you? If they have a good attitude and are very enthusiastic, then there is something interesting.

If his parents dislike you, then let’s not try too hard. Your parents are willing to support you for the rest of your life, and they don’t want you to be bullied, disliked, and looked down upon by others after you get married.”

Don’t look at Mrs. Caron, who usually scolds her daughter with all kinds of disgust, making Kiera think that she is not her biological child several times. But if anyone dares to bully Kiera, she will definitely explode.

Of course, Kiera had never been bullied since she was a child, and Mrs. Caron never had the opportunity to get angry. Instead, she often received complaints and complaints, and then she could chase Kiera down several streets with a feather duster.

When Kiera was a few years old, she was famous on several nearby streets.

Thanks to Mrs. Caron, it was obvious that she had been practicing martial arts since she was young, so she had very solid basic skills and could run very fast. However, it turned out that Mrs. Caron also ran very fast and had very good physical strength. She was able to chase her down several streets and become a successful woman. The laughingstock of several streets.

Kiera said honestly, “I haven’t been in Wiltspoon for long. When I attended Zachary and Serenity’s wedding, there were so many people. I didn’t know who Julian’s parents were, and I really didn’t know their parents’ attitudes.

However, we can tell from his words that his parents are still very talkative. He said that he was in his thirties and had not yet gotten married. His parents were very worried and said that as long as he could bring a woman home to get married, it would be fine, and they would not pick a woman. The conditions are as long as she is a woman.”

Mrs. Caron curled her lips and said, “That’s just words. Mother-in-laws are like that. Before they have a daughter-in-law, as long as their son is married, it will be fine. If they have a daughter-in-law, they will cause all kinds of troubles and make things difficult for her.

If your son is not married yet, just say she is a woman. When their son really likes a girl, they will start to be picky.”

Kiera smiled and said, “Mom, are you like this too? You have two sons.”

Mrs. Caron: “That’s not the case. When your two brothers get married, let them move out and live here. They can come back here to eat, but they don’t live with us. If we don’t live together and keep our distance, there won’t be so many conflicts. Everyone, stay safe.”
