

Chapter 835 Educational Ban

Liam made an effort to control his emotions in front of his son.

However, Gabrielle remained oblivious to the gravity of the situation. She remained haughty and said coldly, "I always take my lunch break half an hour earlier. That's my rule!"

The affluent young man beside her grew impatient and said, "Don't engage with him. Let's go. We're running short on time."

Gabrielle, upon hearing this, scoffed and ceased arguing with Liam. Instead, she turned away, grasped the rich young man's hand, and started to walk out.

At the exit, Liam intercepted them again, growing increasingly irritated. He said icily, "Complete my paperwork promptly. I don't want any conflict today. Don't push me!"

The affluent young man lost his temper. He pointed at Liam and yelled, "Who do you think you are? Are you causing trouble for us? If you keep behaving like this, I'll ensure your child won't attend this kindergarten! Get out of my way!"

Undeterred, Liam persisted, "I'm trying to avoid a scene in front of my son. This is your last chance. Complete the procedures now!"

However, the wealthy young man became even more arrogant. He shouted, "Who are you? Know your place! Understand whose territory this is. Your damn son won't ever set foot in the Oracle Kindergarten! Leave!"

At that moment, Liam's demeanor turned menacing.

As a father, he had been trying to shield his son from witnessing a violent confrontation, repeatedly tolerating the two individuals before him. Yet, there was a limit to his patience, and it reached its peak when the young man insulted Asher.

In the next instant, Liam reacted swiftly, gripping the finger of the rich young man and twisting it, causing an audible snap.

The excruciating pain prompted the young man to scream, "My finger! Let go of me!"

Terrified, Gabrielle screamed and fled.

Liam, not wanting to cause severe harm, released

behaving like this, I'll ensure your child won't attend this kindergarten! Get out of my way!"

Undeterred, Liam persisted, "I'm trying to avoid a scene in front of my son. This is your last chance. Complete the procedures now!"

However, the wealthy young man became even more arrogant. He shouted, "Who are you? Know your place! Understand whose territory this is. Your damn son won't ever set foot in the Oracle Kindergarten! Leave!"

At that moment, Liam's demeanor turned menacing.

As a father, he had been trying to shield his son from witnessing a violent confrontation, repeatedly tolerating the two individuals before him. Yet, there was a limit to his patience, and it reached its peak when the young man insulted Asher.

In the next instant, Liam reacted swiftly, gripping the finger of the rich young man and twisting it, causing an audible snap.

The excruciating pain prompted the young man to scream, "My finger! Let go of me!"

Terrified, Gabrielle screamed and fled.

Liam, not wanting to cause severe harm, released

soon!"

He then ordered the guards, "Drive them away! If they resist, throw them out!"

