

Chapter 7 Diana's Pov Before I could answer, Zoe started crying with red eyes as soon as she saw Nathan... "Nathan, I just wanted to come over and apologize to Diana. I hope she can forgive me... I didn't expect..." Zoe covered her face and sobbed, looking too sad to speak. I rolled my eyes in my heart and withdrew my hand forcefully. your "Really?" I looked at Zoe who was lying on the ground and asked, "None of behaviors or attitude just now showed an apology. And after all, what exactly are you apologizing to me for?" "I...I..." Zoe looked away, and tried to make up an excuse, "I did it because..." I didn't give her any chance to defend herself, so I raised my hand and poured the remaining whiskey in the bottle on her head. Zoe burst into a scream. Nathan looked at me in disbelief. When there was no more liquor left in the glass, I raised the corners of my mouth and said, "Look at you, getting yourself so dirty to have my forgiveness.?" I smiled slightly, raised my hand, and pushed screaming Zoe into the swimming pool. "I'll help you clean the whisky stains. Don't thank me too much." I raised my eyebrows. When Zoe was splashing wildly in the swimming pool, I turned to Nathan, who was looking ashen. "Now, do you know what I'm doing to your precious date?" I asked. Zoe quickly climbed out of the pool, threw herself into Nathan's arms wetly, and cried loudly. Nathan didn't pay attention to her, he just stared at me deeply. "You've changed," he said. "Did you just find out?" I raised my eyebrow. "I never thought that you could be such a vicious-hearted woman." He said coldly. my heart. I squinted my eyes slightly, feeling a slight twinge of pleasure in "Vicious?" I smiled, "When I was with you, you never saw me as someone nice. Now, I punished a bully, and I am being vicious? If this is what it means to be vicious, I am always 'vicious!'" Nathan looked at Zoe with a cold expression, "Are you bullying her?" Zoe froze instantly. "I, I didn't... She is Alpha Marc's sister. Even if I wanted to bully her, I wouldn't dare! Nathan, she is framing me! If you don't believe it, I have a witness here!" Zoe looked at the man she threatened earlier. The man trembled and said immediately, "Yes, yes! I saw it all... The lady in your arms did come to apologize and didn't say anything rude. It was Miss Reist who threw wine at her and beat her." Nathan looked at me coldly. "Now, do you have anything left to defend?" Zoe's eyes flashed with pride. Looking at such a ridiculous scene in front of me, I almost laughed. "Why should I defend something that makes no sense? Alpha Nathan, you can think of me whatever you want to. I don't care about how evil I am in your eyes." I wouldn't waste time explaining myself to a nobody. Nathan's expression turned completely gloomy. He looked at me with cold eyes, as if he wanted to eat me alive. I smirked and turned to leave. Nathan grabbed my wrist again. Now I am seriously annoyed. "Leave me alone, Nathan," I asked with little patience left. Nathan stared at me silently. There were complicated emotions in his eyes. I couldn't understand what he was thinking. I just want to get rid of him quickly. But this time, his grab was so strong that I couldn't even shake his hand away. Just when I thought he was going to crush my wrist, he whispered, "Apologize." "Apologize? To whom?" I asked. "Of course to me!" Zoe stood up impatiently, the expression on her face becoming proud. My last bit of patience ran out. Just when I was about to throw Nathan to the ground with an over-the-shoulder throw, Victor's voice sounded from not far away. "Alpha Nathan, please let go of my mate," Victor said coldly. "Your mate?" Every syllable of Nathan's words seemed to have been squeezed out between his teeth. "What if it's not? Could it be that he is your mate?" Victor did not hide the sarcasm. in his eyes, "It's a pity that Alpha Nathan, you have been rejected by Diana. Isn't it too late for you to regret it now?" The surroundings felt frozen immediately! Nathan's eyes seemed to tear Victor into pieces. There was heated discussion all around, "So, Alpha Nathan is in love with Diana?" "It must be! Didn't you see? Alpha Nathan almost got into a fight with others because of Diana!" "Then what's Zoe?" "It's nothing, it's probably just a pastime for Alpha Nathan when he's bored..." As the gossip became louder, the unwillingness and anger on Zoe's face became more obvious. "You misunderstood." Zoe said to Victor, "Nathan has no regrets! He didn't let Diana go because he wanted her to apologize to me!" "Apologize?" Victor raised an eyebrow, "What did she do wrong?" "Of course, it was because Diana threw wine in my face and slapped me." Zoe's eyes were red and she wiped away tears, acting vividly. "But don't you deserve this?" Victor asked. Zoe froze again, barely keeping the act innocent in front of all. Victor walked up to Nathan and took out his phone. "Alpha Nathan, you call this 'being bullied'?" Victor mocked. I saw a video being played, it was the scene where Zoe just ran over and forced me to drink for her. Even the conversation could be heard clearly- "This guy wants to toast me a glass of wine, and I want you to drink it for me." "Didn't you hear that I asked you to drink this glass of wine for me? Didn't you do a good job a year ago? You won't forget, right? Nathan asked you to drink for me, and even asked you to sleep with Isaac FOR ME!" "It seems that you have remembered it. Then you should also understand the importance of me in Nathan's heart. If you don't drink this glass of wine today, I will tell Nathan that you asked this man to tease me." For a moment, the entire pool area became quiet. Nathan stared at the video playing on his phone without blinking, the chill in his eyes getting worse. When the video ended, Nathan asked Zoe with anger in his voice, "Is this what you call an apology?" "...I..." Zoe turned pale and trembled, "No...that's not the case, I...I am..." "What are you?" Victor sneered, "With the evidence?" People around her accused Zoe of being shameless. "I'm sorry Nathan, I'm really sorry! I just love you too much, and I was afraid that Diana would take you away... I didn't mean to do this... Can you forgive me? Forgive me..." But Nathan's cold attitude made her completely despair. "You disappoint me so much." Nathan withdrew his arm, "Never show up in front of me again." Zoe's collapsed to the ground. At the same time, two men in black walked out of the crowd and dragged Zoe away forcefully despite her yelling. Seeing this, the man who helped Zoe wanted to run but was forcefully pushed to the ground by Victor's men.

"I was wrong! That bitch Zoe forced me to do it. Let me go! Please let me go!" he begged. Victor ignored his pleas and ordered his subordinates, "Break his legs and expel him out of the pack!" "Yes!" When everything was over, the crowd of onlookers dispersed. I looked into Nathan's complicated pupils and said coldly, "Now, can you leave me alone?" I stopped looking at him, took Victor's arm, and was about to leave. Nathan called me from behind. "Wait a minute Diana, I-" He seemed to want to say something, but at this moment, Nathan's Beta Omar quickly walked through the crowd to his side. "Nathan, I have news about the person you asked me to find. She is in Blade Moon Pack." Omar whispered. Nathan's expression changed slightly. Then, he left in a hurry. I stared at his back and frowned slightly. I don't know why, but I have an instinct that it might have something to do with me. "Stop looking." Victor grabbed my hand and took me out, "I have a way to cheer you up." A motorcycle was parked at the entrance of the conference hall. As far as I know, this motorcycle uses the highest-end configuration. There are only three of them in the world, and even those with just money may not be able to buy them. My eyes widened, "Where did you get it?" "Anything my princess wants, I will get it for you." Victor raised his eyebrow at me. I've loved racing since I was a kid. In the past, I would often hide my identity and secretly participate in some racing competitions, and I would get first place every time. However, this hobby was put on hold after I met Nathan. I want to be Nathan's most decent Luna. I took the helmet and put it on skillfully. The wind whistled by my ears, and I felt that my whole soul was being filled with speed and passion. The past two years with Nathan were a waste. I was really crazy to lose myself for a man! Fortunately, I moved on now. Every day from now on, I will only live for myself. I sped along and finally stopped at the coast. "Phew!" After taking off the helmet, I breathed a sigh of relief. Victor parked his motor beside me and asked, "Did you enjoy it?" "It's so cool!" I felt like my whole body was filled with strength, "Thank you, Victor." "It's just a motor, as long as you're happy." "Not just that," I said, "but also today. Thank you." Victor raised his hand and touched my cheek. "I told you, Diana, between you and me, there is no need to say thank you. Besides, I Ring ring! My cell phone rang. I picked up the phone and it was Marc. He asked me to go back quickly because he had something to tell me. I looked at Victor apologetically.. Victor smiled slightly, "It's okay, let's go back." I nodded. Victor and I quickly returned to the conference hall. When I got out of the motor, my foot slipped and I almost fell. Fortunately, Victor took me in time. "What are you doing?" A strong Alpha aura rushed towards his face. I to look. We saw Nathan walking towards us angrily! Before I could react, my wrist was grabbed by a strong force. Immediately afterward, I completely separated from Victor's arms and ran into Nathan's arms!
