

The Mans Decree Chapter 2811

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2811-“Watch what you say. If Mr. Chance hadn’t saved me, I would still be suffering at the hands of the Demonic Cultivators. Hurry up and apologize to Mr. Chance right now!” Gregory roared at Pearl.

Pearl wore an aggrieved expression. However, Kai said magnanimously, “Mr. Stark, don’t be angry. My cultivation level is indeed lower than your disciple.”

Gregory immediately responded awkwardly, “Mr. Chance, please stop being modest. Even I’m not your match. I’m afraid my disciple can’t even withstand a palm strike from you!”

Pearl, standing at one side, was displeased to hear Gregory belittling her. Still, she didn’t dare to say anything.

“Mr. Stark, you flatter me.” Kai smiled faintly.

“Mr. Chance, please have a seat.” Gregory motioned for Kai and Yuven to sit, then said to Pearl, “Pearl, go and prepare a pot of coffee.”

She left reluctantly. In fact, Gregory had deliberately sent her away because he knew Kai must have something to discuss with him.

Following Pearl’s departure, Gregory asked Kai, “Mr. Chance, is there something you need from me? Please feel free to let me know if there’s anything I can help. As long as it’s within my capabilities, I will not refuse. However, if it’s a matter related to the competition, I’m afraid I can’t help. Although I’m the judge, the rules in Jipsdale are very strict, and I dare not cheat.”

Gregory thought Kai had come to him to cheat in the Alchemist Fair. After all, Emerald Cauldron Sect was also there to participate in the contest, and the winner would be rewarded very handsomely.

“Mr. Stark, you’ve misunderstood me. I’m not here to talk about matters related to the Alchemist Fair. My friend here has been poisoned by a strange poison that hinders his ability to exert his strength. I’ve examined his condition but couldn’t find a solution. I came to ask if you could help treat him,” Kai said.

Upon listening to that, Gregory turned to look at Yuven. He scrutinized the latter for a few seconds, then released a strand of aura to envelope Yuven's body.

Moments later, Gregory frowned, and his expression turned somber.

"This is very strange. He's poisoned and can't exert his powers, but why can't I detect anything in his body?" Gregory uttered in bafflement.

"Mr. Stark, this poison affecting my friend targets and damages his consciousness field, so it's not detectable in his physical body," Kai said.

Upon learning that, Gregory released a strand of spiritual sense into Yuven's consciousness field.

This time, Gregory made a discovery. He retracted his spiritual sense and said, "I see. This is the first time I've encountered this type of poison. I can't make a firm judgment! How about this? You can stay here for a while longer. When my seniors return, we can all examine your friend's case and see if we can get rid of the poison."

"In that case, you have my gratitude, Mr. Stark," Kai said.

At that moment, Pearl had finished brewing the coffee. She poured everyone a cup and then continued to study Kai.

"Mr. Chance, have you completed the alchemist level assessment?" Gregory asked.

"Assessment? I haven't taken it yet." Kai hadn't undergone any evaluation.

"Mr. Chance, only alchemists who have passed the assessment can participate in the Alchemist Fair this time. The Alchemist Fair is about to begin, yet you haven't even been assessed yet," Gregory said anxiously.

"What?" Kai was slightly bewildered. Ghaylen had never mentioned that to him. "What should I do now?"

"Don't worry, Mr. Chance. There's an assessment center here in Jipsdale. I'll have Pearl take you there now. With Pearl accompanying you, the assessment staff will likely do you a favor. If all goes well, you may be able to get your certificate today," Gregory said.

Pearl was displeased when she heard that. “Master, I have other things to do. I’m busy!”

The Mans Decree Chapter 2812

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2812-“Shut up. You dare to disobey my orders?” Gregory demanded, glaring at Pearl.

“Master, one must be at least a Third Level Top Tier alchemist to enter Jipsdale’s alchemist evaluation site. Do you think that brat qualifies? I’ve only just advanced to that level in alchemy, and that guy definitely isn’t at that level. Taking him will only be a waste of time.” She looked down on Kai, thinking he had a low cultivation level and pitiful alchemy skills.

“I told you to go, so just do as I say. What’s with all the excuses?” Gregory grew angry, and his expression darkened.

Seeing that her master was genuinely furious, she fell silent.

“Don’t mind her, Mr. Chance. I’ve spoiled this disciple of mine,” Gregory said to Kai apologetically.

“It’s okay,” Kai replied. Then, he continued with a smile, “However, I’ll need to trouble you to attend to my friend.”

“Don’t worry about it, Mr. Chance. When my seniors return, we’ll check on him immediately,” Gregory promised.

After that, Kai left with Pearl, and they headed toward Jipsdale’s alchemist evaluation site.

Since he was unfamiliar with Jipsdale, he could only follow her the whole way.

Pearl wore an icy expression and did not utter a single word to him.

While on their way to the evaluation site, they suddenly saw an elegant man in white robes with a sword in his hand. Several ladies were laughing and fooling around with each other beside him, and they appeared to be shopping.

As soon as Pearl spotted him, her eyes lit up, and she hurried after him without hesitation. “Roderick...”

The man turned around and smiled when he saw her. “Pearl, why do you have time to come out shopping? Doesn’t your master forbid you from coming out?”

“I’m taking someone to participate in the alchemist assessment. I wasn’t expecting to bump into you. What a pleasant surprise. I... I’ve missed you these last couple of days. I even dreamed of you last night.” After she said that, a blush spread across her cheeks.

Realization instantly dawned on Kai as he observed her reaction. She must like this guy!

However, the man’s gaze was indifferent. He changed the subject and asked, “Is this a new disciple your master has taken to be under your wing? He must be an outstanding young man.” The man walked up to Kai and looked the latter up and down. “Hello, I’m Roderick Gale.”

“Hi, I’m Kai Chance,” Kai responded, having no choice but to introduce himself.

When Roderick heard that, he paused for a moment and furrowed his brows slightly. “Kai Chance. Why does that name ring a bell?” Then, his eyes suddenly widened, and he fixed his gaze on Kai. “You... You’re the Kai Chance Mr. Stone says has three heavenly thunder fruits?”

Kai gazed at Roderick silently, neither confirming nor denying. I knew the news that I possess heavenly thunder fruits would soon be known to everyone. Roderick, however, has never met me before, yet he also knows about it. He must’ve heard it from someone.

Seeing that Kai made no response, Roderick guessed that it was true. There was envy in his eyes as he said, “I can’t believe you already have three heavenly thunder fruits at such a young age. I’m so envious...”

Pearl asked curiously, “What’s this heavenly thunder fruit, Roderick?”

“So, it’s just some medicinal herb. If you like it, I’ll give it to you. Solaris Sect has all kinds of medicinal herbs,” she responded naively.

Roderick merely smiled at her wordlessly.

Kai turned to her and said, "We should hurry and be on our way."

She rolled her eyes at him, then said to Roderick with a besotted expression, "I'll be taking him to the examination site, then. I'll come and find you when I have time."

Roderick nodded and left with the ladies beside him.

She watched him walk away like a lovesick puppy, and it was not until he disappeared from sight that she snapped back to reality.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2813

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2813-"You can't even see him anymore. We should go," Kai said to the lovesick Pearl.

"What's the rush? How annoying..." She rolled her eyes at him. "Look, even if you go, it'll only be a waste of time. I don't trust your alchemy skills. Just look at Roderick. He's young and already a Fifth Level Low Tier alchemist. He's almost on par with my master. What's more, he's elegant and very gentle and caring."

She seemed capable of talking endlessly about Roderick and kept singing his praises.

Kai smiled and said, "It appears you have a thing for Roderick."

"Of course! Who wouldn't like someone like him?" she admitted readily.

"But it doesn't seem as though he likes you, and he has so many women around him." Kai could tell from Roderick's eyes that the latter had no feelings for her.

"What utter nonsense! How rude can you be? If you have nothing nice to say, keep your mouth shut. Roderick likes me, of course. Those women hanging around him are merely an act. I'm the one he truly likes. It's just that my master watches me like a hawk. Otherwise, we would have been a couple already." With that, she walked straight ahead and paid no more attention to him.

They soon arrived at the evaluation site. Many were already queuing up to take the exam. They were probably also those who were hoping to attend the Alchemist Fair but had yet to pass the exam.

Using her position as a disciple of Solaris Sect, Pearl led Kai in through the back door, skipping the queue entirely.

She led him straight up to an examiner and said, "We're here for the evaluation."

The examiner glanced at them. "Someone from Solaris Sect, eh? I didn't think there was anyone from that sect who hadn't taken the exam."

"Please don't misunderstand. This person isn't from Solaris Sect. I brought him here, that's all. Please go ahead with the exam as usual. There's no need to take my sect into account." She did not wish to let Kai rely on Solaris Sect's reputation. The examiner would be a little lenient if Kai was one of them.

The examiner looked at her and nodded before turning to Kai. "Come in, young man."

Kai followed the examiner into a room. However, the room was completely transparent to prevent anyone from cheating.

Pearl stood outside to watch him take the evaluation. She wanted to see just how skilled he was.

"Here are nine evaluation boxes, one for each of the three tiers—Top, Middle, and Low—under the Third, Fourth, and Fifth levels. Think about which tier you'd like to take the test for based on your capabilities, then open the corresponding box. Don't overestimate yourself. Otherwise, not only will you suffer, but you also won't pass the test," the examiner cautioned.

Kai nodded, then headed straight for the box for Fifth Level Top Tier.

"Young man, you must be clear of your capabilities. If you're thinking of trying your luck, this isn't the place to do so!" the examiner hurriedly reminded upon seeing that.

Outside, Pearl furrowed her brows when she saw Kai walk straight toward the Fifth Level Top Tier box.

“What does that brat take this evaluation for? I can’t believe he’s trying to be a show-off and taking the test for Fifth Level Top Tier. He must be out of his mind,” she muttered to herself.

However, Kai could not hear her and proceeded to pick up the box.

“Young man, you should know that Fifth Level Top Tier pills can be considered high-grade medicine. Creating it consumes a lot of spiritual energy, and the alchemist must have a certain level of mental energy. Should you insist on selecting a Fifth Level Top Tier test, we won’t bear responsibility if you get hurt or damage your consciousness field,” warned the examiner.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2814

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2814-“Rest assured. No matter what happens, I’ll take responsibility,” Kai said with a faint smile.

Hearing that, the examiner had no choice but to take Kai’s box and slowly open it.

Inside was a pill recipe for a Fifth Level Top Tier pill. The pill recipe was randomized to prevent any possibility of cheating.

After presenting the pill recipe, the examiner casually waved his hand, and they found themselves in an area filled with herbs. There were thousands of varieties, and some herbs were incredibly rare.

However, Kai was aware that these were mere illusions. The possibility that Jipsdale had such a treasure trove of herbs was close to zero. Otherwise, it would have attracted cultivators from every corner of Ethereal Realm like ants to sugar.

“Well, you can now search around here for the herbs needed based on the pill recipe,” the examiner said to Kai.

Kai nodded, then leaped into the air, soaring above the lush sea of herbs.

He only scoured through the landscape of herbs once before returning to the examiner’s side.

Seeing that Kai had returned so soon, the examiner was surprised. He reminded him, "There's a time limit for collecting the herbs. If you don't gather the correct ones within the given time, you'll fail the assessment."

"I understand. I've already gathered them," Kai replied, extending his hand. Sure enough, he was holding several different types of herbs.

The examiner was taken aback. He did not notice when Kai had finished collecting the herbs.

How could he have gathered them so quickly?

"Speed doesn't matter. They must be correct," the examiner said, scrutinizing the herbs in Kai's hand.

How could anyone collect all the herbs correctly in such a short time?

Yet, when the examiner finished checking the herbs, he froze.

Kai had gathered all the herbs accurately according to the recipe.

"H-How could you be so fast? Did you cheat?"

The examiner was utterly astonished.

He had assessed countless alchemists and had never witnessed such speed before.

"Sir, I didn't cheat. You should know best since we've been together the whole time," Kai said with a calm smile.

"Sorry, I was just surprised. Your speed is unprecedented," the examiner apologized, realizing his mistake.

"Does that mean I've passed this stage?" Kai asked.

"You've not only passed, but you've also broken the record. No one here will likely surpass your record in the future."

The examiner nodded. With a wave of his hand, they were back in the room.

The examiner led Kai out of the room.

Seeing this, Pearl stepped forward and asked, "How did it go? Did he pass this stage?"

Pearl couldn't see what had happened within the illusion, so she was curious.

"Not only did he pass, but he also broke the record," the examiner said, still in shock.

"He broke the record?" Pearl was taken aback. She turned to Kai, her face filled with disbelief.

She couldn't believe that Kai had managed to pass the Fifth Level Top Tier alchemist assessment's first stage!

She had heard that the first stage of the assessment involved thousands of different herbs, and candidates had to find the required herbs within an extremely short time.

How could Kai have possibly passed this stage?

Not only did he pass, but he also broke a record?

"Could it be beginner's luck? Let me tell you, while luck can play a role in the first stage, crafting pills has no room for luck. You'll only officially succeed if you craft a Fifth Level Top Tier pill. So, don't be too conceited yet," Pearl said to Kai.
