

The Mans Decree Chapter 2861 -

Chapter 2861 Phoenix Feather

Inside the cave, Josephine, Feenix, and Aislin huddled together. All three of them were exhausted. They had been chased by Kaison's group for the past few days and could only hide.

At that moment, they were shivering from the cold and feeling hungry. Their mounts were also already dead.

"We need to keep moving, Josephine. That guy's probably going to catch up with us soon," said Feenix weakly. "I don't have any strength left to run. I want to sleep!" Josephine was struggling to keep her eyes open.

"You can't sleep right now, Josephine. Just hold on a little longer!" Aislin promptly shook Josephine, keeping her awake.

However, Josephine eventually closed her eyes.

"Josephine! Josephine!" Aislin shook Josephine even more violently, but the latter didn't react.

"Take a look at her, Feenix!" said Aislin in a panic. "What's wrong with her?"

Feenix rushed to Josephine's side and examined her. She was so startled that she paled. "This is bad! Josephine's aura is incredibly weak right now, and her bodily spirit is fading."

"What? What's going on?" Aislin couldn't understand why Josephine was in such a state despite not being injured.

"Josephine has a fiery constituent. We've been traveling in the northernmost land for days, and we didn't have time to recover our strength properly. Right now, the cold is seeping into her body, which is antithetical to her fiery constituent."

"What do we do, then?" Aislin was getting anxious. During the time they were together, they had formed a deep bond with each other. It pained Aislin to see Josephine in that state.

“There’s nothing I can do. Besides, my spiritual energy is lacking as well. If we have a campfire, perhaps I can bind Josephine’s bodily spirit together, preventing it from scattering apart!” Feenix furrowed her eyebrows.

Her idea was difficult to accomplish because, for one, they didn’t have anything to help them start a fire in an icy land. For another, if they did start a fire, Kaison and his group would reach them quickly, preventing them from escaping altogether.

Just as Feenix and Aislin were wondering what to do, they heard a sound coming from the outside.

They knew that Kaison was about to reach their cave with his people. “That pervert is after us again! What do we do, Feenix?” Aislin panicked. They couldn’t escape while Josephine was in a coma.

Feenix surveyed the cave and pressed her palms on the stone wall. Gradually, a fire enveloped her body.

As she pressed both of her palms onto the stone wall, it started to melt because it was actually a thick layer of ice. After she created a large pit by melting the ice wall, she turned to Aislin. “Quick, place Josephine inside here.”

Soon after, Feenix stretched her wings, her crimson feathers glowing. Hastily, she plucked a feather from her wing and placed it on Josephine’s body. Then, she covered Josephine in ice.

Due to the icy weather, Josephine was soon frozen inside. No one outside could see someone hidden inside the wall.

“I hope my Phoenix Feather can protect Josephine’s life.” Feenix glanced at Josephine one last time before running out of the cave with Aislin.

Her plan was to lure Kaison’s somewhere else. group Indeed, right after the two women escaped the cave, they were spotted by Kaison.

“Godd*mmmit! They’re getting away! Get them!”

Kaison’s men immediately pursued Feenix and Aislin. Unfortunately, Feenix and Aislin were slowing down due to their depleted stamina.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2862 -

Chapter 2862 The Other Girl

“Feenix, go on without me. I can’t run any longer...”

Aislin’s stamina had been severely depleted. The spiritual energy in her body had long been drained. “Aislin, just hold on a little longer...”

Feenix held onto Aislin, trying to support her.

“Don’t worry about me. At this rate, neither of us will escape. If you have a chance to reach the mundane world, tell my father not to worry about me!”

Aislin pushed Feenix away so that she could escape.

“Aislin, I won’t leave you behind...”

Feenix wanted to carry Aislin, but at that moment, Kaison and his followers had caught up and surrounded the two of them.

“Hmph, you think you can still run? I told you, there’s no escape from me here.” Kaison looked at Feenix and Aislin with a smirk on his face.

“If you dare lay a finger on us, you’ll regret it. My master won’t let you go.”

Feenix glared at Kaison.

“Hahaha, master? From now on, I’m your master. Both of you will become my servants.”

Kaison laughed, amused by Feenix’s response. He thought that she enjoyed such a role-playing kink as he had no idea that Feenix was actually a celestial beast.

Feenix and Aislin exchanged glances and then spoke in unison. “Even if we die, we won’t let you have what you want...”

With that, they released a powerful aura, initiating self-destruction.

“Are you self-destructing? It won’t be that easy.”

Kaison waved his hand, and several Tall family members stepped forward, restraining Feenix and Aislin to prevent them from self-destructing.

Despite their attempts to self-destruct, the vast power gap made it impossible for them to succeed. "Where's the other girl?" Kaison questioned Feenix and Aislin.

Both of them remained silent, glaring at Kaison without saying a word.

"Mr. Kaison, the other girl should still be in the cave," a Tall family member said.

"Go! Search for her..." Kaison ordered his men to search the cave. However, despite their thorough search, they couldn't find any trace of Josephine within the cave.

"Kaison, perhaps that girl has already escaped. Two women should be enough for you. Let's go back soon. Otherwise, Mason will be angry," Jerison urged Kaison.

"All right, let's go back. But when we do, make sure you don't tell him anything, you understand?" Kaison instructed Jerison.

Jerison nodded reluctantly. "I understand."

Soon, Kaison left with Feenix and Aislin.

Shortly after their departure, a figure dressed in a black robe passed by the area. As the figure approached the cave entrance, they paused all of a sudden. Then, the figure swiftly entered the cave.

After surveying the surroundings, they looked at the frozen area where Josephine was trapped. With a wave of their hands, they melted the ice and saw Josephine.

"Phoenix Feather? There's actually a feather belonging to a celestial beast here?" The black-robed person collected the Phoenix Feather and then examined Josephine.

"She's alive. The fiery constituent truly is a rare constitution! Hahaha, Lady Luck is on my side..."

The black-robed person burst into laughter. They then lifted Josephine and swiftly disappeared. After the black-robed person left, peace returned to the cave. The deep pit was slowly frozen again in the wind and snow.

It looked as if no one had ever been here before. The wind continued to howl outside in the snow.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2863 -

Chapter 2863 A Familiar Aura

“Mr. Chance, at our current speed, we’ll reach our clan in about three days. However, on this journey, it’s best not to encounter anyone, especially those from the Tall family. Otherwise, things will get complicated,” Vasily said to Kai.

After a night’s rest, Kai and his group resumed their journey. As they were cultivators, the harsh weather and snow didn’t hinder their progress.

“Let’s stick to the inconspicuous paths to avoid trouble,” Kai suggested. He was well aware that many people came to this place in search of the treasure. If they were to encounter enemies, it could lead to trouble.

As they traveled, they came across a cave, the one where Josephine and the others had taken shelter the day before. Just as he passed by the cave, Kai suddenly stopped in his tracks and looked inside the cave in a daze.

“Kai, what’s going on?” Viola asked. Kai didn’t respond immediately. He walked toward the cave entrance. The rest of the group followed, intrigued by his actions.

Upon entering the cave, they found it empty, devoid of any signs of life. “Mr. Chance, what are you searching for?” Vasily’s curiosity got the better of him.

“There’s a familiar aura here. They were here.”

Kai’s emotions were evident on his face.

“Who? Who were here?” Viola asked. Kai remained silent. He placed his hands gently against the cave wall, feeling the familiar aura that he hadn’t felt for a long time.

Unbeknownst to him, tears began rolling down his cheeks. Ever since his arrival in Ethereal Realm, Kai had never given up on searching for Josephine and the others.

In this vast realm, finding them seemed nearly impossible. However, for the first time, Kai had felt Josephine's and Feenix's auras. He recognized them intimately.

Looking at him being emotional, Viola instantly knew who those individuals he was referring to. She stepped forward and wiped his tears away. "Kai, are you talking about those girls?"

Viola knew Kai's girlfriend was also in Ethereal Realm, but they had been separated. Kai had told her everything. After all, they were already sexually involved, so there was nothing to hide from each other.

However, Viola didn't mind. She was happy to be one of his many women. "Kai, if you can sense their auras here, it means they must have been here recently. Maybe if we search around, we can find them," Viola said.

At the side, Vasily remained perplexed, unable to grasp why Kai was crying, and even more puzzled by Viola's encouragement to search for these girls. Vasily could discern the special connection between Kai and Viola. The two must be a couple.

However, how could anyone possibly encourage their boyfriend to search for other girls?

"The Three Bandits..." Kai called out.

"Mr. Chance, how can we help?" They promptly stepped forward.

"Search the areas nearby. If you find those girls, ask for their names and report back to me immediately," Kai instructed.

"Understood!" The Three Bandits acknowledged the order and departed swiftly. After spending a bit more time in the cave, Kai finally left. He knew that staying there was not an option. They still needed to find the treasure.

Josephine, Feenix, where are you? Please be safe!

Kai prayed that they would not be in danger. However, his sensing their auras in the cave indicated that they were alive and not in immediate danger.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2864 -

Chapter 2864 Deliberately Setting Us Up

Kai and the others continued their journey. Meanwhile, the Three Bandits found no signs of Josephine and the others even after searching for a long time.

In the end, Kai could only choose to take a break and wait for news from the Three Bandits. After all, traveling in such a harsh environment exhausted a lot of spiritual energy. While they were resting, a figure suddenly sprinted in their direction in a panic from a near distance away.

When Kai and the others saw that, they promptly frowned. On the heels of that, they assumed defensive stances.

It was the first time they had encountered another person after entering the northernmost land. The route Vasily picked was exceedingly secluded, yet they still bumped into someone.

In no time, the figure drew increasingly closer. Only then did Kai and the others notice a beast chasing after the person. The beast was massive, its body coated with white fur. With every step it took, a few icicles formed on the ground.

“Watch out, everyone! It’s an ice bear!” Vasily hurriedly warned. By then, the figure had already reached them. The instant the man made out Kai and the others, he was overjoyed. “Help! Please save me!”

Kai recognized him as Beau, who had introduced himself to him at Vasker’s. Right then, Beau’s burly body was blanketed in frost, and he kept calling out to Kai for help. He was at Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm, and the ice bear behind him was also of the same cultivation.

Despite the equal cultivations, the capabilities of a demon beast were generally above those of a human. On top of that, the northernmost land was the ice bear’s territory. Beau could only flee.

“This fellow is damn contemptible to lead the ice bear in our direction!” Vasily snarled upon seeing that turn of events.

It would be difficult for them to deal with an ice bear at Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm even if they were to join hands. Their capabilities were all mediocre, with none of them above Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm.

“Save me! Please save me!” Beau pleaded when he reached Kai. “What a b*stard! You’re no match for the ice bear even when you’re at Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm, but you ran to us, whose capabilities are beneath you, to save you. Aren’t you deliberately setting us up?” Vasily bellowed at Beau with immense dissatisfaction.

Beau flushed bright red. He swept his eyes over Kai and the others, only to find that they were either at Second or Third Level Body Fusion Realm, none beyond his level.

“I’m sorry. I’ll go and lead the ice bear away right this instant!” After apologizing, he swung his hand out, whipping up wind and snow everywhere. Then, he sprinted in another direction.

“Wait, Beau! You’re not this ice bear’s match and will get eaten sooner or later. Let me deal with it instead!” Kai hollered, stopping the man in his tracks.

“You?” Bafflement was written all over Beau’s face. He’s at Second Level Body Fusion Realm, so how could he possibly be able to defeat an ice bear at Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm? Furthermore, the ice bear has a boost of capabilities here in the northernmost land, making the gulf between them even more insurmountable!

He then continued, “I appreciate your kind offer, Kai. But considering your capabilities, I’m afraid you’d be dead with a single strike by the ice bear. Hurry up and flee as well!”

As he said that, he raced toward the side. No sooner had he taken two strides than the ice bear lunged at him with a roar. At once, Beau blanched. He lifted his hands and shot them out to block its attack.

However, the ice bear’s massive body, coupled with the countless frost coating him, made it so that he was wholly powerless to stop it.

In the nick of time, Kai appeared out of the blue and pushed Beau away. At the same time, he whipped out Dragonslayer Sword with a hand. A brilliant glint swiped across the air.

“Die!” Kai barked.

Infinite light burst forth from Dragonslayer Sword, instantly lighting up the sky.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2865 -

Chapter 2865 Exactly The Same

Whoosh! Rays of light flashed in the sky, cutting through the air as they slashed the ice bear. The ice bear let out an ear-splitting roar. Gusts of wind and snow swirled around its body, and it charged toward the light.

Beau was totally stunned upon seeing the swing of the sword by Kai. He had never expected the man, who was only at Second Level Body Fusion Realm, to be capable of unleashing such a powerful strike.

Even Vasily and the others were shocked at that sight since they had never witnessed Kai's true capabilities.

As the ice bear charged toward the rays of light in the air, icicles shot out from its body without warning. Like bullets, they whizzed toward Kai at lightning speed.

Kai flicked his wrist lightly. Immediately, the icicles turned into powder and scattered into the air like snowflakes.

Seeing that, the ice bear promptly screeched to a stop in its initial forward charge. It whirled around and took off. It seemed to have sensed danger, knowing that the man before it was not easy prey.

"Where do you think you're going?"

With a sneer, Kai leaped into the air. He brought the Dragonslayer Sword in his hand down, and a brilliant light shot out. Before the ice bear could even cry out in agony, it was cut in half by that sharp ray of light.

Subsequently, Kai waved his hand. A beast core brimming with spiritual energy fell into his palm. Everyone gaped at the ice bear that had been severed in half by a swing of the sword. Beau especially was shocked.

"Let's go!" Having said that to Vasily, Kai started walking forward. He had just taken a few steps when Beau snapped back to his senses and quickly chased after him.

"Wait a moment, Mr. Chance! Please wait!" he shouted at the top of his lungs. "Is something else the matter?" Kai asked.

“Mr. Chance, you’re also searching for the treasure, aren’t you? We can travel together. While you have the treasure map, it’s no use even if you were to find it. A special key is required to unlock it. Without the key, there’s no way to enter the place,” Beau whispered.

Kai was taken aback for a moment. He had never thought the man was also aware of the need for a key to unlock the treasure.

“Oh, you sound as if you have the key to unlock the treasure?” Kai questioned in feigned curiosity. “Of course! Otherwise, I wouldn’t have gone in search of the treasure.”

Beau took out an emerald badge from his pocket. Not only was the emerald badge whole, but it was exactly the same as the one in Kai’s hands. It was as though they were carved out of the same mold.

Kai was absolutely stumped as he stared at the emerald badge in Beau’s hand. He could not fathom what exactly was going on.

He glanced at Vasily, hoping that the latter could provide an explanation as to why Beau also had an emerald badge. However, Vasily likewise wore an expression of befuddlement on his face. He shook his head at Kai, seemingly lost as well.

“This emerald badge of yours is the key to the treasure, Beau?” Kai asked in feigned skepticism.

“Of course! Without this, you can’t unlock the treasure even if you find it!” Beau said with confidence etched across his features.

“Where did you get this, then?” Kai asked further.

“I can’t tell you that. Anyway, you only need to know that without me, you can’t enter the place even if you find the treasure.”

Beau was still somewhat wary of Kai, so he did not reveal the emerald badge’s origin.

“Can I have a look at it?” Kai asked.

“Sure!” Without hesitation, Beau handed the emerald badge to him. Kai infused a strand of spiritual sense in the emerald badge. A moment later, he returned it to the man.

Although that emerald badge was exactly the same as his, there was still a difference. There was no demonic aura in it.