An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2261

Chapter 2261

When they heard that they could win spiritual stones, the surrounding warriors became very excited.

If they were just curious before, now they are excited.

After all, there are too few opportunities to obtain spirit stones. It is even more rare to be able to exchange items for double the chance of winning like this.

There's no reason for them to miss out.

The most important thing is that Dustin and the other three have just won the spirit stone. With such an example, their last doubts have been dispelled.

So, when Huang Yinyin shouted.

Some brave warriors have already approached.

Although the reputation of the Witch Gu Cult is not very good, the temptation of spirit stones is too great to take the risk.

Besides, this is Longhu Mountain, and people who want to come to the Witch Gu Sect don't dare to default on their debts and cause trouble.

"Can we also bet?"

The first ones to approach were two young men, in their twenties, with somewhat similar appearances. They should be brothers.

The two of them are not contestants, they are just spectators who come to watch the fun.

Now that I encounter such an interesting gambling situation, I can't help but be eager to try it.

"Of course."

Huang Yinyin smiled and nodded: "No matter who is interested, you can bet, but I don't know what items you use as chips? I don't accept ordinary goods here." The two looked at each other and clicked. He nodded, and then took out an iron ball the size of a fist from his arms.

The iron ball is completely black and looks unremarkable at first glance, but those with good eyesight will notice it.

On the surface of the iron ball, there are many fine holes, which look like pinholes.

These small holes are densely packed throughout the iron ball.

"What is this?" Huang Yinyin was a little surprised.

"This is our Tang Sect's special hidden weapon, Hundred Flowers Killer!"

The man on the left explained: "Although this iron ball is very ordinary, as long as you press the switch and throw it out, two seconds later, there will be eight hundred and eighty-eight hidden things in the iron ball. Eighteen poisonous needles will burst out in an instant, full of power!"

"That's not all!"

The man on the right added: "The poisonous needles in Baihuasha can also break the body's protective energy. Warriors below the master, As long as you are hit by a poisonous needle, you will lose the ability to move quickly!"

"Hundred Flowers Killer?" Huang Yinyin raised her eyebrows slightly and said with a smile: "It is indeed a good treasure!" The Tang Sect is good at making poison with hidden weapons, and the Hundred Flowers Killer is one of the eight hidden weapons of the Tang Sect. One, very intimidating in the arena.

"I wonder how many spiritual stones can be exchanged for our Hundred Flowers Killer?" the two asked curiously.

“Although Hundred Flowers Killer is good, it is a consumable after all. Once used, it will be gone. So, one Hundred Flowers Killer counts as three of your spirit stones. What do you think?” Huang Yinyin said.

“No problem!” The two looked happy.

The Tang Sect has so many hidden weapons, it just takes a while to make them.

But treasures like spirit stones are very rare, and they just need them, so there is no reason to refuse.

Two Hundred Blossom Killing stones are exchanged for six spirit stones. If they win another round and the six stones become twelve, then they will make a big profit.

Twelve spirit stones were enough for one of them to break through.
