An Understated Dominance by Marina Vittori Chapter 2266

Gambling itself is very easy to become addicted, especially after you taste the sweetness, you will get out of control.

People who have no ability to stop will fall into it accidentally.

“Congratulations to both of you for winning. Here, this is the spirit stone you won.”

Huang Yinyin smiled and offered the spirit stone with both hands, with a very enthusiastic attitude.

“I just suppressed the Black Iron Sword and exchanged it for five spiritual stones, right? Then can I redeem it again?” Liu Hongxue asked.

“Of course.”

Huang Yinyin nodded with a smile, and then ordered someone to bring the black iron sword that Liu Hongxue used to bet on.

“Wait!”

Just as Liu Hongxue was about to redeem the sword, Xu Yang raised his hand to stop her and said, “Junior sister, why are you in such a hurry? The gambling has just begun, and the main event is next. If you redeem the sword now After a while, the bet will be less, and the winnings will naturally be less. I think it’s better to wait for now. When we earn enough spiritual stones, it won’t be too late to redeem the sword.” ”

This...” Liu Hongxue hesitated.

“What? You still don’t believe in senior brother’s vision? Betting with me is just picking up money. As long as we win a few more games, the spiritual stones we get will be enough for us to break through!” Xu Yang said confidently.

“Okay! Then I’ll listen to senior brother!” Liu Hongxue smiled, and finally gave up the idea of redeeming the sword.

She now has ten spiritual stones in her hand. If she redeems the sword, only five will be left.

In this way, even if you win, your income will be halved.

So, she chose to wait.

As long as she wins three more games... no, wins two more games, she can redeem the sword.

Seeing the two people in high spirits, Huang Yinyin was still smiling, giving full play to the purpose of the customer being God.

She had already experienced the greed of people.

Most people simply can't hold back such huge benefits that can be obtained without any effort, and will quickly sink into it.

What she is afraid of is not that the gambler will win, but that the gambler will not gamble.

As long as the gamblers continue to gamble, then she is sure that these gamblers will spit out all their winnings.

At the same time, pay a heavy price!

After a fierce battle, the second round of competition officially ended.

Player No. 36 that Dustin bet on won easily as expected.

The hard power is there, even if the opponent tries his best, it will be of no avail.

"Uncle, congratulations, you won another round."

Huang Yinyin presented Dustin's winning spirit stone with both hands.

At this moment, most of the spirit stones in her box have been replaced, some were won, and some were exchanged for various rare treasures.

Judging from the total number, it is indeed a loss, but it is still within the acceptable range.

"Girl, if you open another round, your box of spiritual stones will probably bottom out."
Dustin reminded.

“It doesn’t matter, I still have a few boxes of spiritual stones to spare.” Huang Yinyin smiled and didn’t care.

Spiritual stones are not scarce for the Witch Gu Sect.

Because the Witch Gu Sect has discovered a vein of spiritual stone that can be produced for decades.

A few boxes of spiritual stones were nothing to her, a wealthy and powerful saint of the Witch Gu Sect.

In fact, her main mission this time was to purchase various rare materials through spiritual stones.

It’s just that in her opinion, just using spiritual stones to exchange it is a bit unworthy.

On the contrary, using this method of gambling is the best choice.

Not only can you collect rare treasures from various sects, but you can also save a lot of spiritual stones.

To put it simply, why should we spend money when we can get something for free?
