Chapter 1121 Old Hagstorm and Old Ophis met those attacks.

However, they had just battled the full-strength demon snake and were besieged by the Insect Ruler and numerous forebearer- level figures, so their remaining inner energy was not enough. They were clearly no match for three Martial Saints now.

Soon, they were forced to retreat and almost reached the cave again. "Heh..."

Just then, a vaguely familiar and mocking voice echoed from the cave.

It was the Insect Ruler who had followed them closely.

After dissecting the important parts of the demon snake's corpse, he left some for the remaining forbearers to prevent them from coming after him and then followed the two out.

"Old Hagstorm..." The Insect Ruler looked at Old Hagstorm with a vague smile and said sinisterly, "Go on, run. Why aren't you running now? After all your painstaking efforts, why stop now?"

At those words, a cold gleam flashed in the Insect Ruler's eyes. However, when his gaze fell on the demon snake's heart in Old Hagstorm's hand, it turned exceptionally greedy.

"Insect Ruler..." Old Hagstorm also sneered. "I was just short one. move.

"Unexpectedly, you dug up the previous Insect Ruler who had died for many years and should have long dissipated in this world. You're truly a filial grandson who's honored your ancestors!"

Yes, the three experts blocking Old Ophis and Old Hagstorm were. previous Insect Rulers from the Murrfield cordillera. After their death, their descendants used mysterious methods to refine their corpses, ensuring they would not decay over time despite being buried in the earth for centuries.

Unexpectedly, the Insect Ruler had sinister intentions toward his own ancestors. He used vicious methods to control the three corpses with insects, 'reviving' them for a short time and serving him as zombies, neither dead nor alive.

The Insect Ruler remained unaffected by Old Hagstorm's sarcastic words.

He glanced at the three Insect Rulers and said with a smug expression, "These ancestors have died long ago and were buried in the ground. They would only rot away in the river of time.

"I dug them up to make the most out of them and let them go out with a bang, for the sake of the insect path and the reputation of Murrfield.

"They should be thankful to me."

Old Hagstorm instantly choked and shook his head in a ridiculing manner. "I've never seen someone able to preach such shamelessness so righteously."

Old Ophis was much more concise. "Wow!"

"Hahaha..."

The Insect Ruler burst into laughter at Old Hagstorm's words.

His laughter was contemptuous and sinister.

"Old Hagstorm, you've been in the martial world for so many ye How can you speak such naive words? Only children make choice like that.

"The demon snake's heart and your lives. Today, I want them all!"

Chapter 1122

With that, the Insect Ruler held something in his hand. It was the method to control the insects inside the three forebearers' bodies.

"Insect Ruler!" Old Hagstorm's expression turned cold when he saw the Insect King refuse to listen. "Are you really going to fight the two of us? Don't regret it!"

"What if I am? What are you going to do about it?" the Insect Ruler spoke gleefully as if the hatred from before was released at this moment.

"Then, don't blame me for fighting back!" Old Hagstorm's eyes flashed with coldness, and he quickly said, "Inside the demon snake's heart is a few drops of the demon snake's blood. It's a great supplement.

"At worst, we two will drink these drops of blood and then des heart.

"By then, the demon snake's heart would be destroyed, and our strength would recover significantly. Even if you and your three forebearers force us to exhaustion, we'll inevitably severely wound you.

"Once the forebearers and fighters inside come out, we'll surely be able to exterminate your lineage.

“Think carefully!”

The Insect Ruler fell silent.

Old Hagstorm’s strength was indeed extraordinary, and his companion was not to be trifled with either. If they made up their mind to fight to the death, it would not be easy for him.

As Old Hagstorm said, not only would he fail to obtain the demon snake’s heart, but there was also the risk that he would die. It was extremely irrational.

The Insect Ruler had planned for many years not just to come here and be wiped out.

“You win, Old Hagstorm!” The Insect Ruler’s expression went from dark to clear several times. In the end, he gritted his teeth and agreed. “Hand over the demon snake’s heart, and I’ll let you two leave.”

With that, he waved his right hand.

The three Insect Ruler forebearers immediately made way. Swoosh-novelbin

Old Hagstorm threw the demon snake’s heart far away.

“Hmph.”

The Insect Ruler instantly ordered the three forebearers to grab the heart. He also rushed over at the fastest speed.

Three seconds later, he obtained the demon snake’s heart.

“Old Hagstorm...”

The Insect Ruler and the three forebearers looked at Old Ophis and Old Hagstorm from a distance and said coldly, “I’ll remember what you did this time. One day, I’ll shred your corpse into ten thousand pieces to avenge this grudge! “Let’s go!” With that, the Insect Ruler led his group and left.

Old Hagstorm did not care about the Insect Ruler’s fierce words at all. He looked at the leaving Insect Ruler, and a meaningful smile curled on his lips.

Then, he clapped his hands thrice with anticipation and excitement,

The two exchanged a grin.

"Let's go."

"Yes!"

Then, the two headed back in the direction of Valdez Village.

In the sealing area, Andrius did not follow the crowd to kill the demon snake and plunder treasure. Instead, he searched for Luna. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel Soon, he saw something resembling a pupa in a remote corner. A pupa?

How could there be a pupa here?

Andrius frowned and walked forward with suspicion.

Riiip... After probing, he used the tip of the Argentum Qilin Spear to gently cut a slit in the surface membrane. Then, he placed the spear aside and tore off the remaining membrane.

Luna had long since fallen unconscious.

Andrius checked her pulse and frowned deeper.

Then...

Chapter 1123

Andrius placed Luna down and took out silver needles to perform acupuncture for her.

Time slowly passed.

The distribution meeting below gradually concluded, and people started leaving one after another.

Kate arrived at the sealing area and chose to wait quietly on the side when she saw the situation.

Ten minutes later...

“Ugh...”

Luna suddenly opened her eyes.

Her eyes were like rubies forged in fresh blood, emitting a blood murderous intent. Her whole body exuded an extremely astonishing demonic aura.

It was as if she had fallen into deviation.

Kate only glanced at her and felt a buzzing sound in her head.

“Watch out!” she instinctively shouted to warn Andrius.

However, it was too late.

Luna raised her hand and delivered a fierce punch, slamming it into Andrius' chest.

Andrius' sword wound had not fully healed, and he felt like he had been heavily hit. He spewed out a mouthful of blood and was pushed back.

Having successfully struck, Luna was aggressive and continued to attack Andrius mercilessly without care for her own life.

“Ms. Crestfall, what are you doing?” Kate shouted, trying to wake Luna 1.

At the same time, she rushed over from a distance to stop her.

Boom!

Luna’s eyes were filled with a bloodthirsty light, devoid of any emotion or color. She struck a palm at Kate’s chest without hesitation.

Kate only felt inner energy far beyond the Martial King realm assaulting her. She was instantly sent flying and crashed into the cave wall, then fell to the ground.

“Gah...”

Kate struggled to stand up and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Swoosh...

Swish...

Boom...

Kate’s actions bought some time for Andrius.

He immediately took out his silver needles and inserted them into Luna’s acupoints. He wanted to use the needles and inner energy to control her and make her calm down.

However, the next second...

Swoosh-

Without any visible movement, the silver needles on Luna's body flew out, shooting toward the cave wall. Some of them narrowly missed Andrius. Fortunately, he evaded them skillfully. Bam!

Luna did not stop. Her blood-red eyes stared straight at Andrius as she mercilessly charged at him.

The next moment, a flash of bloodthirsty radiance appeared in Luna's eyes, and her right hand stabbed toward Andrius' abdomen like a steel knife.

Andrius instinctively gathered his inner energy to prepare to use the Argentum Qilin Spear to block Luna. However, doing so would inevitably hurt Luna.

Looking at the beautiful face before him, Andrius' heart softened, and his hand slowed for a moment.

Spurt...

Luna's right hand pierced into Andrius' abdomen.

Whoosh...

A strange sensation washed over Andrius. He felt that his inner energy was continuously disappearing.

In an instant, his face turned extremely pale, and he also felt the intense pain from his abdomen. He instinctively lowered his head to look.

Luna's delicate hand was already stained with fresh blood, piercing through his dantian. A strange force immediately surged through his meridians and swept through his entire body.

The inner energy was like a punctured balloon, with the gas inside dissipating instantly. However, Luna absorbed it all without leaving a single drop. "U-ugh..." Andrius could not endure the inhuman pain anymore and cried out, collapsing to the ground weakly. "Andrius!" Kate did not know what was happening inside his body, but she knew that having the dantian pierced was extremely dangerous. She shouted out his name. Andrius raised his eyes slightly, but he was unable to resist the drowsiness and fell unconscious. "No." Seeing this, Kate let out a hysterical scream and rushed at Luna. Along the way, her hands had already gathered inner energy into a powerful gust. Bam! However, after absorbing Andrius' inner energy, Kate's current strength was completely incomparable to Luna's. With just a slight move, Luna once again sent Kate flying, crashing to the ground without any chance of retaliation. "Luna! "Luna Crestfall!"

* Chapter In desperation, Kate could only shout Luna's name over and over, trying to awaken her consciousness. However, it was all in vain. The bloody light in Luna's eyes had become as thick as a curtain, showing no signs of herself. There was only an endless bloodthirst. The next moment, Luna lifted a huge rock beside her, ready to smash it onto Andrius' body. If this struck him, with Andrius' currently crippled body, he would undoubtedly die! "No." Kate let out a heart-wrenching scream when she saw this.

Luna seemed not to hear. Her hands continued moving without slowing down in the slightest.

Swoosh-

Whoosh-

At the critical moment, Old Ophis and Old Hagstorm appeared. Old Hagstorm flew forward and kicked the large stone away.

"What's going on?"

After kicking away the rock, Old Hagstorm immediately supported Andrius, who was on the ground.

However, just as he touched Andrius' wrist, his expression instantly changed. He sensed the ruined meridians inside Andrius' body.

"It's very serious." Old Ophis solemnly explained Luna's condition." Before the demon snake died, it transferred all its demonic power into her body. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

At that point, Old Ophis shook his head pessimistically. "Then, she'll completely fall into deviation, lose her conscience, and become a killing machine driven by demonic energy, unable to turn back."

Upon hearing this, the always-calm Old Hagstorm showed a troubled expression. A glint flashed in his eyes, and he asked, "Is there any way to get rid of the demonic energy?"

"It's hard to say."

Chapter 1125

Old Ophis shook his head and sighed. "Let's go back to Valdez Village first. Andrius' injuries are severe. We need to stabilize him first." "Okay."

The group immediately returned to Valdez Village.

There were only a few people left here in the Sentinel Tower.

After the families, sects, and other factions obtained enough benefits from the demon snake's corpse, they all chose to return immediately to enhance their strength and avoid trouble in the future.

"This is..."

The Sentinel Tower Master, Nile Orior's expression changed slightly when he saw the group returning, especially the two injured people. Without waiting for Old Hagstorm and the others to answer, he immediately ordered, "Maisie, go prepare two rooms for the Wolf King and Ms. Crestfall to heal."

"Yes!"

"Old Hagstorm, please come with me," Maisie spoke to Old Hagstorm and took the lead to make the arrangements.

Old Ophis brought Luna into one of the rooms while Old Hagstorm. took Andrius to another.

"Old Hagstorm..."

Nile took the initiative to bring many elixirs and walked into Andrius' room.

Was

Old Hagstorm inserting needles into Andrius' body and did not turn, only nodding slightly in acknowledgment. He performed acupuncture and used the elixirs provided by Nile in various ways to help Andrius.

"It's not working..." Old Hagstorm felt Andrius' weakening aura and said in a low voice, "Tower Master, please lend me some inner energy."

Old Hagstorm's inner energy was approaching exhaustion after several consecutive battles.

Now was the time he needed it the most.

"Sure!"

Nile immediately went behind Old Hagstorm. As his hands waved, entire body's inner energy surged like a river, pouring ceaselessly in

Old Hagstorm.

Old Hagstorm used this inner energy in a special way, entering Andrius' body and protecting his meridians, then wrapping around his dantian.novelbin Luna's blow had directly pierced Andrius' dantian. That part was a crucial point for a martial expert! If it was not restored, then things.

Old Hagstorm needed to handle this well.

Chapter 112

After a while, more than half of Nile's inner energy was used, and there were fine beads of sweat on Old Hagstorm's forehead. It showed how dire Andrius' situation was.

"Phew..."

After completing this final step, he let out a long breath.

Kate, Maisie, and the others immediately looked at Andrius, who was lying on the bed.

Andrius' face was still pale, but it was not as deathly as before.

However, he remained in a state of unconsciousness. His eyes were tightly closed with no signs of awakening. "Old Hagstorm, how is Andrius now?" Maisie asked worriedly.

After knowing that Andrius played this act in collaboration with Old Hagstorm, the major families and sects, and even her own Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

Old Hagstorm explained briefly, and his expression became particularly solemn. “Once his inner energy is depleted, he’ll be reduced to a cripple, and there’ll be no possibility of continuing cultivation.”

At those words, it was as if the room had fallen into an ice cellar, instantly freezing.

Kate paled and muttered, “T-then, what should we do? What can we do?”

“At present, there’s only one way left,” Old Hagstorm spoke slowly.

Kate immediately looked at him and asked, “What is it?”.

Chapter 1126

“The Klein family’s technique!” Old Hagstorm’s gaze was profound and distant. “As long as Andrius can learn the technique on the Klein.

family mural before his inner energy is depleted, there’s still hope for recovery.”

“That's...”

Upon hearing this, the hope that had ignited in Kate’s eyes instantly dimmed. “Old Hagstorm, there’s something you don’t know. “Before the Ancient Martial Assembly began, Andrius and I once tried to comprehend the technique on the mural, but each attempt ended in failure.

“Andrius said that the technique on the mural is profound and mysterious, and there are definitely points that he hasn't noticed too hard to learn the technique of the mural before solving the problems.

“This method is probably...” Kate sighed and trailed off.

Old Hagstorm said faintly, “I have an idea.”

Kate raised her brows and looked up. Old Hagstorm’s expression was relaxed and full of mystery, without the intention of explaining. Creak...

At that moment, a faint sound came from the side.

Old Ophis also came to this room after dealing with Luna’s injuries. Choppent

He did not speak and only gave Old Hagstorm a look.

Old Hagstorm understood and immediately went out as well.

“Its bad.”

In a secluded place, Old Ophis said in a low voice, “Luna’s deviation was not only related to the demonic power of the demon snake but also because of her inner thoughts.” Luna did not know Old Hagstorm’s plan.

She did not know that the meal she ate contained the pill that faked her death. Then, Andrius pierced her in the chest, and she entered a false death state to deceive the Insect Ruler and the others.

She did not know the truth, so it became an obsession. She wanted to know why Andrius would have done this to her.

After she woke up, she was taken away by the demon snake before anyone could explain the truth to her, and she was forcibly in with the demon snake's vast power.

During the process, those obsessions became turbulent, leading Luna falling into deviation. The situation was very complicated.

After briefly explaining Luna's situation, Old Ophis sighed and said, There's only one way to expel the demonic energy inside her!

However, this method may cause her hard-earned inner energy to dissipate completely."

"There's no need to expel the inner energy inside Luna," Old Hagstorm suddenly spoke.

Old Ophis frowned and asked, "What do you mean?"

"Andrius' meridians are completely destroyed. There's only one way left for him-cultivate the technique on the mural.

"Only in that way does he have a chance of preservation," Old Hagstorm said softly. Just as he spoke, Old Ophis' frown deepened. "But learning the cultivation technique on the mural won't be easy for him."

"That's true."

Old Hagstorm replied, then said seriously, "However, Andrius already possesses most of the conditions.

“The demon snake passed all its power to Luna. Although it seems to have caused a big problem, it’s actually a blessing in disguise.”

Old Hagstorm’s words made Old Ophis fall into contemplation.

As the Prophet of the Right from the Klein family, he knew many secrets of the Kleins as well as the secrets of the mural..

After a moment of silence, he looked at Old Hagstorm and asked worriedly, “But what if the demon snake's power inside Ms. Crestfall Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

A moment later, a flash flickered in Old Hagstorm’s eyes.

Chapter 1127

He turned to Old Ophis and asked, “Do you remember the Sanguis Blade that Master left behind back then?”

The Sanguis Blade?

Old Ophis’ eyes flickered as he fell into reminiscence.

Back then, the strength of the demon snake was much stronger than it was now. Its evil aura was so overwhelming that it could make people terrified and greatly diminish their strength.

Even Martial Saints like them were no exception.

Back then, when they were helpless against the demon snake, it was the old master who came with the Sanguis Blade.

The Sanguis Blade was a demonic weapon with a peculiar shape, origin, and function. Its surging and sinister aura could cause a chill to go down one's spine.

Even the experts on the scene back then had to hold their breaths to resist the evil aura.

It was strange.

As soon as the Sanguis Blade appeared, it dissipated much of the demon snake's evil aura. It used evil to control evil and suppressed the snake, eventually sealing it in the Azure Pool.

Old Ophis looked at Old Hagstorm and asked, "Of course, I remember the Sanguis Blade, but you..."

Old Hagstorm said calmly, "I'm planning to repeat history.

"Back then, the master was able to use the Sanguis Blade to suppress the demon snake's aura. We can use it now to help Luna suppress the demon snake's power inside her.

"The dagger must still be in the cave.

"As long as we can find it and give it to Luna after handling it, letting her carry it with her, then everything will be solved." That was Old Hagstorm's idea.

However, Old Ophis frowned. "Hagstorm, you should know that the Sanguis Blade itself has a strong aura of death and evil. If you give it to Luna, wouldn't it make her situation more complicated? It's too risky."

It was true that the Sanguis Blade could use evil to control evil and restrain the demon snake's power.

However, both parts would have a significant impact on Luna.

If she lost control, she would lose her conscience in an instant. That would be troublesome.

Old Hagstorm was well aware of that.

However, he had no other choice.

He smiled wryly and said, "If you can find a better way, I'll refrain from using the Sanguis Blade to suppress the demon snake's power inside.

Luna." Old Ophis shook his head with a bitter smile.

If he had a way, he would not have called Old Hagstorm out alone.

As they discussed, a figure walked over from a distance.

Old Hagstorm looked straight at Wade and said truthfully, "Yes." Since the goal was achieved and the current situation was a win-win for everyone, there was nothing for him to hide.

Wade's expression darkened at Old Hagstorm's answer, and he continued to ask, "What are you planning?"

"Twenty years ago, the Klein family was annihilated in Kiyoto. H tragic was it? How many people died?"

"Were those lessons not enough?"

loudly.

Chapter 1128

Old Hagstorm raised his brows slightly and said, “This matter is related to the master’s century-long plan. It has significant implications. Please forgive us for not disclosing it.”

Wade had wanted an answer, so Old Hagstorm’s indifferent tone made him extremely displeased. He stared at the two coldly and said firmly, “If you won’t talk, then don’t think about leaving Valdez Village today!”

As he spoke, experts from the Medicine Sect appeared from all directions.

The one leading them was Tobias. Their momentum was overwhelming.

“Grandpa!” Kate suddenly ran over and said, “We’re all family.

Whatever the matter is, let’s discuss it calmly. There’s no need such hostility...”

She was worried about Andrius, and Old Hagstorm was Andrius’ master. If her grandfather had a falling out with him, it would only complicate the situation further. However, before Kate could finish speaking, Wade interrupted her mercilessly, “Step back, Kate. This is none of your business. Leave this place quickly.”

As Wade spoke, he used his peak Martial Emperor inner energy that was almost approaching the Martial God realm to push Kate away and remove her from the battlefield.

“I’ll say this one last time.” Wade’s expression turned completely cold as he stared straight at Old Ophis and Old Hagstorm. His eye narrowed, and he said firmly, “Tell me all the reasons, or today’s events won’t end nicely!” With those words, the Coiling Dragon Spear in Wade’s hand emitted a dazzling brilliance.

The Klein family experts behind him gathered their inner energy and formed a powerful pressure, pressing toward Old Ophis and Old Hagstorm.

Old Hagstorm’s expression also darkened, and he said in an emotionless tone, “Sect Master Klein, you’re as stubborn as ever. Are you sure you’ve thought it through?”

In Old Ophis and Old Hagstorm’s heart, the master’s grand plan was above everything else. Anyone who dared to obstruct it must be crushed.

That was an unquestionable fact since Wade led half of the family away from the Klein family twenty years ago. The two sides confronted each other, the atmosphere tense.

Any movement could trigger a massive battle.

“Help! Help!”

Just then, someone rushed over from a distance, shouting anxiously,”

Ms. Crestfall is attempting suicide!”

Old Ophis and Old Hagstorm’s expressions instantly changed. Chapter 432

“Master Wade...” Old Hagstorm looked at Wade and said slowly, “Each generation has its own grievances. Andrius and Luna’s situations are special now. If you have any problems with me and Old Ophis, please address them later.”

Old Ophis and Old Hagstorm immediately went to the room where Luna was.

“Let me die... Let me die. I’m sorry, Andrius... | hurt my husband. | harmed him...”

From a distance of about a dozen meters from the room, Old Ophis, and Old Hagstorm could already hear Luna’s voice full of despair, accompanied by boundless guilt and regret.

They exchanged a glance and hastened their steps.

In the room, several maids were struggling to restrain Luna.

Old Hagstorm sighed and waved his hand, signaling the maids to let go. He looked at Luna with a complicated gaze and said, “Child, this Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

Luna was extremely excited upon hearing this. She immediately rushed up to Old Hagstorm and stared into his eyes. “Master, is what you said true? You’re not lying to me, right?”

“It's true!” Old Hagstorm met her gaze and said sincerely, “It just depends on whether you're willing or not.” As soon as he spoke, Luna said without hesitation, “I'm willing, Master! I'll do anything! As long as I can save my husband, I'm willing to pay any price!”

She loved Andrius to the bone.

Even though he stabbed her before, she did not hate him. She just did not understand.

Therefore, if she could help Andrius recover, she was willing to sacrifice everything.

Old Hagstorm said to Old Ophis, “You stay here and don't move. Take care of Andrius. I'll handle something with Luna.”

Old Ophis knew that Old Hagstorm wanted to take Luna to find the Sanguis Blade. Although he hesitated, he knew that there was no other choice. Thus, novelbin he nodded and said, “Leave this place to me. You can go without worry.”

“Luna, come with me.”

Chapt6 1129

Old Hagstorm led Luna out of Valdez Village and went straight to the sealing area.

Then, he started to look around. He searched for clues about where the Sanguis Blade was hidden. “Master, what are you looking for?” Luna watched for a long time before asking curiously.

“A dagger.” Old Hagstorm replied, then instructed, “Luna, don’t go anywhere. Stay here and wait for me to come back.” “Okay, Master,” Luna replied obediently.

Old Hagstorm expanded the search range until he disappeared from Luna’s sight.

“Ugh...”

Not long after, Luna felt a burning sensation all over her body. It was a strange feeling that seemed to come from inside her body. It was as if there was something influencing her, making her feel anxious and uneasy. It was like a mouse encountering a cat, or a beast facing its natural nemesis.

Luna subconsciously followed the direction of the sensation, walking step by step. Soon, she reached a wall.

Although it appeared solid, she was certain that the unsettling feeling came from within.

Boom!

Without hesitation, she gathered her inner energy and punched the wall.

Crack...

The wall was shattered, revealing a dagger embedded in the rock inside.

The dagger looked fierce and exuded a bloody aura. It looked like it was made up of some kind of stone or mineral, but she could not figure out what it was.

Luna only glanced at it briefly before her head buzzed, and she almost fainted on the spot.

“Come here! Come closer and grab me-”

Faintly, like in a dream, she seemed to hear a voice coming from the dagger, echoing vividly in her mind, strange yet clear.

Chapter 1130

“What's... going on?”

Luna held her head in her hands, trying to understand.

However...

“Come here!

“Come closer and grab me-”

Luna could not hear a voice.

However, those two sentences continued to echo in her mind, becoming more intense as she stared at the dagger.

Rumble...

The next moment, Luna struck again and completely broke the wall. Then, her body stepped up to the dagger without her control. Buzz...novelbin

The dagger seemed to sense Luna's approach and began to vibrate slightly as if conveying something or urging her on.

“I want to see...” Luna knew in her heart that this was the dagger that Old Hagstorm mentioned. “What secrets you hold!”

At that thought, she reached out to grab the dagger.

Whirr...

Just then, the demon snake's power in her body suddenly erupted, Chapter 11.8) pouring into her arm and preventing her from moving an inch.

The force originated from the demon snake after it sensed the presence of its nemesis.

Thus, it acted on its own to stop Luna from taking it.

Luna was shocked and quickly understood.

The mysterious dagger was likely the nemesis of the demon snake's power. The demon snake's power knew about this, which was why it had stopped her.

“In that case, I must get hold of this dagger!”

When Luna remembered how she crippled Andrius because the demon snake had controlled her, she was determined to grab the dagger.

“No! You don't want to take it. You cannot take it!” The aura of the demon snake's power affected Luna

The powerful summoning of the dagger, the fearful aura of the demon snake's power, and Luna's own consciousness constantly intertwined in her mind.

“Abhhhh-”

The next moment, she was pulled by the three different voices to the brink of collapse, screaming madly.

She alternated between holding her head in her hands and waving her hands around, already in a state of madness.

Chapter 117

Swoosh...

At that moment, a figure arrived behind her.

It was none other than Old Hagstorm. He was attracted by the two terrifying auras and Luna's cries. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

“It's the Sanguis Blade!”

Old Hagstorm immediately saw the dagger on the wall and understood Luna's situation. The power of the demon snake and the Sanguis Blade must be struggling. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel
