Chapter 1346

Chapter 1346 After Marcellus left, Luna looked up at the sky which was clear blue with the occasional cloud.

"I don't care what plans and conspiracies you have," Luna muttered to herself, her killing intent soaring to the heavens. "If you dare to lay on my husband, then you're my enemy! If you dare to hurt him, I'll exterminate your entire faction!"

"I hope you won't force me into a killing spree!"

Rumble-

Thunder rumbled faintly in the clear sky, giving an unreal feeling.

At the Lycantroops' base, Noir brought a large group of people to Andrius with a smug expression.

"Andy, all the members of the Lycan Manor are gathered."

"Not bad, not bad." Andrius looked over the people and could not help but nod in approval. They were all lively and spirited.

During this period of development, the martial realm experts in the Lycan Manor had exceeded a hundred. They were in no way inferior to many ancient martial families. Among them were even some majestic auras that surprised Andrius.

"Everyone, stay focused." Andrius' eyes were sharp and boundless, sweeping across everyone in the audience. No one dared to meet his gaze. "I'll check how your cultivation is going."

"Yes!"

The members did not dare to slack off when the Wolf King was checking their progress. They all stood tall and proud with a mix of anticipation and nervousness, like elementary school students waiting for a teacher to check their homework.

Andrius nodded and instructed loudly, "Attack me in groups of ten!"

"Hyah!"

"Rah!"

"Woah!"

Then, the members formed groups of ten and used their utmost strength to attack Andrius. As for whether they could injure the Wolf King...

That was simply a joke.

Andrius with his hands in his pockets and exerting just a slight effort was already their limit. A few minutes later..

"Not bad at all." Andrius looked quite pleased. "Five people have reached the level of Martial Emperor, and more than twenty have reached Martial King. That's quite remarkable."

Given this, it was already impressive for them to produce Martial Emperor realm experts. Furthermore, the Lycantroops were made up of the finest in Florence, and there were over a billion excellent soldiers. With that as a comparison, it was much easier to understand.

Furthermore, as the Lycan Manor continued to expand, it would likely give rise to more and stronger soldiers. They would shine brightly after obtaining secret techniques.

At that point, Andrius' gaze turned serious. "However, I hope that

His gaze scanned over everyone again.

"Yes!" the experts responded spiritedly.

"Also..."

Andrius continued, "Remember to report to Noir and register whatever techniques or moves you want. I'll arrange for him to negotiate with the Medicine Sect periodically.

"In any case, I'll do my best to provide you with the best resources. How far you can go will depend on your efforts." The experts were filled with excitement. "We won't disappoint the Wolf King's expectations!"

"Mm..." Andrius nodded and dismissed them. "Go back and cultivate. I'll get Noir to notify you if there are any tasks." Then, Andrius called Harpy.

After breaking through to the martial realm, the Black Hawk devoted himself to cultivation and left everything related to intelligence to Harpy to take over.

"Harpy, I have a mission for you." Andrius said seriously, "This mission is a high priority. I need you to find the descendants of a mysterious family

"About a hundred years ago, a person called the Flame Emperor appeared among the ancestors of this mysterious family. He was a master surpassing the ordinary Martial Saint realm."

Surpassing the Martial Saint realm! If those words were to be spread in the outside world, it would cause a global sensation. Harpy immediately realized the importance of the mission and agreed, "I understand, Wolf King. I'll take care of it right away."

After arranging everything, Andrius did not return immediately. He consolidated his own strength while keeping an eye on the situation in Florence.

The next day, when he woke up from meditation, Harpy came back with news.

“Wolf King, after a brief investigation, I found no traces of such a splendid family that produced a master surpassing the Martial Saint realm or was called the Flame Emperor.

“There’s no hint anywhere or even a trace of hearsay. It’s as if this family simply doesn’t exist.”

Harpy’s news immediately troubled Andrius. He had made an oath in front of the ashes on Praxis Island. However...

“I understand. Continue to investigate and report to me.” Andrius waved his hand and let Harpy retreat.

Then, he contemplated for a moment and went to the Medicine Sect.

At Mount Cura, a joyful smile appeared on Kate’s face when she saw Andrius again. “Andrius, what are you doing here?”

“I wanted to ask you about something.” Andrius went straight the point. The Mediaine echo h Sits own intelligence system. Have you heard any rumors about an ancient family?” Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

Kate frowned slightly. “What ancient family?”

“This family had an ancestor named the Flame Emperor. He was a top master who was a Martial Saint, or perhaps even surpassed the Martial Saint realm.”

“The Flame Emperor? Surpassing the Martial Saint realm?” Kate’s sexy lips parted in a tempting curve, her eyes flickering in surprise.

After thinking for a moment, she shook her head and said, “No, I’ve never heard of him.” Andrius was immediately puzzled.

Even the Medicine Sect had never heard of him.

Andrius and Kate exchanged a look and saw the astonishment on each other's faces. Something was happening!

"Let's go!"

With Andrius' words, the duo immediately headed behind the mountain.

A group of people rushed toward them. It was Tobias and several other elders who had detected the commotion as well. "Maiden!"

"Maiden!"

Before Wade went into seclusion, he entrusted everything in the Medicine Sect to Kate. Therefore, Tobias looked at Kate, waiting for her orders.

"Let's go!" Without another word, Kate led the group to the mountain.

Not long after that, Andrius, Kate, and the others arrived at the halfway point of the mountain. They could feel a majestic and massive inner energy.

"It's the aura of a Martial Saint..." Andrius had a lot of experience fighting against Martial Saints and was able to tell quickly. "Martial Saint!"

"Hiss- did the Sect Master break through?"

"The Medicine Sect has a Martial Saint as well now."

"That's great..."

Tobias and the other elders and disciples were ecstatic.

Kate explained to Andrius, "This is where Grandpa went into seclusion. He must have broken through to the Martial Saint realm." As soon as she finished speaking...

Rumble-

A massive burst of inner energy suddenly erupted.

Even though they were dozens of meters away, Andrius, Kate, and the other Medicine Sect experts felt the overwhelming wave of energy.

The surrounding flora and trees all bowed. Rocks and sand flew, and the wind roared like thunder.

"What..."

Seeing this, Kate felt that something was going on and frowned. "No, I need to go in and see what happened. Then, she was just about to rush forward.

"No!"

However, Andrius stopped her before she could take another step.

Kate looked at Andrius in confusion.

Andrius stared at the center of the explosion with a serious expression. Then, he explained without turning around, "The situation inside is very complicated. You mustn't act recklessly!"

However, the person in there was her grandfather. How could Kate remain indifferent? Swoosh...

Whoosh, whoosh...

Just as Kate was about to argue, a figure rushed out from inside.

It was a familiar face and appearance. It was none other than Wade Klein.

However...

At that moment, he did not seem as dignified as before. His snowy white long hair scattered in all directions, and his eyes faintly revealed a blood-red color. He looked like a ferocious lion.

Seeing this, Kate immediately prepared to go forward and asked what happened, "Grandpa! What's going on..."

Before she could finish her words, Andrius once again held her back and interrupted her, "Something's wrong!"

Kate frowned again and asked in confusion, "Andrius, what did you sense? Why aren't you letting me go?"

Swoosh

Before Andrius could answer, Wade responded with action.

His legs twisted and shot into the air when he saw these people. In the blink of an eye, he crossed the distance and arrived in front of them.

Whoosh!

Vigorous inner energy churned in his hands, rushing directly toward the first person in front of him—Kate.

"Grandpa!" Kate never expected her grandfather to attack her. She froze on the spot and forgot to react, only shouting loudly. Fortunately, Andrius sensed that something was off. He quickly pulled Kate behind him and confronted the incoming attack. Bam!

The next second, the powerful inner energy exploded.

Wade stopped and turned a full circle in the air before landing on the ground gracefully.

Andrius took several steps back before stabilizing himself.

To the side, Kate finally realized that something uncontrollable must have happened to Wade. She asked in confusion and anxiousness, "Grandpa! What happened to you?"

However, Wade did not answer.

In fact, when he heard Kate's voice, a strange dark red flashed in his eyes again. He only stared at Andrius in front but did not attack again.

"He seems to be controlled by a powerful outside force." Andrius discerned the clues and asked in a low voice, "Kate, tell me honestly. What did the Sect Master do before this?"

The matter had to do with Wade's safety, so Kate did not dare to conceal anything. Thus, she immediately explained in detail.

"After the battle at Valdez Village, the Guardian returned with severe injuries and knew that his end was near. Thus, he decided to do one last thing for the Medicine Sect.

"He transferred all the inner energy techniques to Grandpa."

So, that was it! he accumulated for a hundred years as well as all his

Wade was only a late-stage Martial Emperor, but the Medicine Sect's Guardian was a late- stage Martial God and approaching Martial Saint.

From the Martial Emperor realm to the Martial Saint realm...

It was too large a step. Not only was it prone to failure, but it was easy to fall into deviation!

"What should we do now?" Kate instantly became anxious at Andrius' words.

Deviation...

The Guardian was gone. If something happened to Wade, then the Medicine Sect would be in trouble!

"Let's stop him first."

Swoosh!

As soon as he spoke, Wade seemed to understand that this group of people wanted to subdue him, so he took the initiative to launch an attack.

After falling into deviation, he did not have many techniques. He simply used powerful inner energy to confront them head-on.

Andrius did not want to engage in a direct confrontation (Wut Mar aly) Seintnse ke bged- and Countered when he could. For a while, he engaged in a back-and-forth with Wade. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel

However, Wade had received all of the Guardian's inner energy and advanced to the Martial Saint realm. His inner energy overwhelmed Andrius'.

Neither did Andrius have the Argentum Qilin Spear nor could he use the Fire—breathing Palm. He could only rely on his inner energy...

Soon, Wade quickly suppressed him.

'No, I need to do something about this!'

That thought flashed in Andrius' mind, and he held a bunch of silver needles in his hands. Swish-

Swish-

Within the fierce battle, the silvery streaks of light shot straight toward Wade's various acupoints.

Andrius wanted to use this method to seal Wade's inner energy and subdue him, thus putting an end to this unnecessary and meaningless fight.

However...

There was no way to get close.

Andrius' situation became increasingly dangerous.

Chapter 1349

Chapter 1349 “I have an idea!”

Seeing Andrius' movements, a bright idea flashed in Kate's mind, and she suddenly shouted, “All the elders and disciples of the Medicine Sect, follow me and activate the Galaxy Matrix to trap Grandpa.

“Then, we'll work with Andrius to perform acupuncture and remove the demonic influence. from Grandpa's body!”

That was indeed an effective solution.

Tobias and the others immediately agreed, “Alright!”

Then, the dozens of members formed a mysterious formation, surrounding Wade from all directions like a dazzling constellation. “Now!”

With Kate's command, all the experts, whether in the Martial Emperor or Martial King realms, took action.

Boom-

Avast aura descended, boundless and endless like a bright moon in the sky. It enveloped Wade at its center with no gaps. Whirr!

Whirr!

Wade was naturally unwilling to be restrained, especially since his demonic nature had been triggered. He struggled with all his might to break free.

“Put more effort into it! Don't give Grandpa a chance to break free!” Kate gritted her teeth and ordered the experts.

Thus, the Medicine Sect experts held their ground. Even when they were hit in the chest and blood flowed from their mouths due to Wade's Martial Saint energy, they did not loosen their grip in the slightest.

Andrius was using a special technique to neutralize the demonic influence

Chapter 1350

Chapter 1350 At the same time, Wade panted like a bull.

Inner energy visible to the naked eye was expelled from his mouth with such force that it caused a slight distortion in the surrounding space.

Andrius knew that this was the excess power that led to Wade falling into deviation. Thud! Thud!

Then, Andrius struck Wade's body, reinserting one silver needle after another to stabilize his inner energy. It was to prevent his Martial Saint inner energy from leaking out due to the deviation.

Wade's eyes, complexion, long hair, and breath gradually calmed down, and he fell into a deep sleep. The whole process lasted about half an hour.

"Hiss..." Wade woke up slowly, scanning the situation in front of him, and said with lingering fear, "The inner energy of a Martial Saint is truly terrifying."

Wade's tone was complex, and he looked at Andrius with gratitude. "If it weren't for you today, I'm afraid I would've gone into deviation. Not only would my life be in danger, but I might have caused severe danger..."

At that thought, Wade could not help but feel a stab in his spine. Although he still had memories of what happened. Visit to read the latest chapter of this novel
