

Chapter 1079 The Wolf Pack

In the next moment, Liam spotted a multitude of Ghost Wolves charging toward Myriad Beasts Valley with formidable force from various directions.

The Ghost Wolves swiftly surrounded everyone.

Those who had departed from Leif's team and were preparing to exit Myriad Beasts Valley found themselves compelled to retreat, refraining from acting rashly.

Meanwhile, a sizable wolf with the same emerald eyes as the previous Ghost Wolf emerged from the pack of wolves.

The big wolf emitted a guttural howl as its razor-sharp claws gouged deep into the earth, fracturing stones.

It was evident that the big wolf was seething with rage now.

It was the sovereign of these Ghost Wolves!

The Ghost Wolf that Santino had killed moments earlier was its only offspring.

Upon witnessing the arrival of the big wolf and its pack, Santino's smug countenance swiftly shifted to one of gloom.

It was evident that the big wolf was seething with rage now.

It was the sovereign of these Ghost Wolves!

The Ghost Wolf that Santino had killed moments earlier was its only offspring.

Upon witnessing the arrival of the big wolf and its pack, Santino's smug countenance swiftly shifted to one of gloom.

Santino hadn't anticipated that the primogem beast he had encountered in the Myriad Beasts Valley would turn out to be the offspring of the big wolf.

His mind raced, thinking about his next move. He believed all he needed to do now was to leave.

If he couldn't escape, then...

Santino's gaze turned fierce as he surveyed everyone else.

If he couldn't escape on his own, he would exploit everyone present as a means for him to flee Myriad Beasts Valley.

Of course, he would sacrifice Leif's team members first.

With this in mind, Santino directed his attention to Liam and the others. Sensing their reluctance to align with him, he issued a threat. "Lead your team and force your way through the encirclement! If you create an opening, I'll ensure your escape! Of course, you're free to decline. But know that refusing me comes with the cost of facing my wrath!"

Liam and the others harbored doubts regarding Santino's sincerity.

After all, in a situation where escape was feasible, Santino couldn't possibly prioritize their survival.

But hearing Santino's menacing ultimatum made them rethink their decisions. They had borne witness to Santino's ruthless dispatch of Leif with a formidable weapon.

They believed they stood no chance of survival in a confrontation with Santino. Thus, despite any inclination to resist Santino's commands, they lacked the courage to do so.

With this realization, everyone's gaze involuntarily shifted to the Ghost Wolves looming around them.

Breaking into the wolf pack posed its own risks, akin to a suicide mission, yet it offered a slim chance of survival compared to facing Santino.

The team members tightened their fists in resolve after reaching their decision. They gritted their teeth and exchanged nods of determination with each other.

And then, they launched themselves at the wolves!

Each member rushed toward the pack, channeling their strength to combat the Ghost Wolves.

If they encountered one or two Ghost Wolves, they could still engage in fight with them.

But now, they were faced with an entire group of Ghost Wolves in the Myriad Beasts Valley.

Furthermore, the Ghost Wolves' combat prowess exceeded their expectations.

Under the relentless onslaught of the Ghost Wolves, many of Leif's team members were swiftly torn apart.

With the growing number of Ghost Wolves, the once-flickering chance of breaking through began to fade.

Among Leif's team, only Liam and Laura remained still.

Santino's complexion paled as he witnessed the swift demise of the people at the jaws of the wolves. Desperation gripped him, yet his gaze hardened as he fixed his eyes on Liam and Laura.

He shouted, "Why are you still standing there? Hurry and go kill these wolves! If you don't, I'll ensure your demise myself!"
