

Chapter 1085 The Purple Dots

When Liam heard that, he didn't hesitate to take off his ragged clothes, revealing his perfect figure.

Looking at the muscles on Liam's body, Laura's face turned red. She felt so overwhelmed that she was a little dizzy.

But she quickly shook her head, discarding the inappropriate thoughts in her mind. She walked to Liam's back, took out the healing medicine she brought from the Rhodes family's house, and gently applied it to his skin.

Laura applied the medicine carefully and gently. Her fair and slender fingers slowly swept across Liam's attractive muscles.

While her eyes scanned his well-defined muscles, she unconsciously licked her lips.

But she still felt guilty for Liam's injury.

After all, he wouldn't be seriously injured if not for her.

Laura endured the sadness in her heart and continued applying medicine to the wound on Liam's back. After that, she finally breathed a sigh of relief.

She was about to let Liam lie down again to rest when she suddenly found several small purple dots on the back of his neck.

Laura remembered that this was the part of Liam's neck that had been scratched by the wolf king's claws.

While staring at the purple dots, she frowned and said, "Liam, there are several purple dots on the back of your neck. I'm worried they are poisonous. What can I do to help you treat them?"

Liam's heart skipped a beat upon hearing that. He quickly checked the state of his body by himself.

Fortunately, he didn't find anything abnormal in his body. All his internal organs were functioning well.

He thought about it for a while and said, "These purple dots should not be poisonous. I think they are more like marks."

Laura felt relieved after hearing Liam's words. She trusted Liam's judgment.

Liam closed his eyes and concentrated, trying to remove the purple dots on the back of his neck.

After more than ten minutes, he opened his eyes, reached out, and touched the back of his neck. He felt the purple dots were still there.

Upon realizing that he could not remove them, he had no choice but to ignore them for the time being.

No matter what those dots were, they were not a big deal as long as they were not life-threatening.

The healing medicine Laura applied to Liam's wound was very effective. With the help of his life energy, the wound on his body was almost healed in less than half an hour.

Liam felt his body state for a while. After ensuring his injury was no longer severe, he stood up and breathed a sigh of relief.

Then, he started checking the spoils from the Myriad Beasts Valley.

Most of them were beast crystals.

Liam looked through them and found nothing he could use. He shook his head, sat back, and said to Laura, "You should absorb all these beast crystals. I think you will be able to reach the limit of a level five Primogem Warrior in a short period after you absorb them."

Laura nodded in agreement.

She really wanted to catch up with Liam when it came to cultivation.

She didn't like being weak. Besides, she had a crush on Liam.

Thus, she was eager to improve her strength to be worthy of him.

Without hesitation, she sat cross-legged and began to absorb all the beast crystals.

Noticing that, Liam smiled. He also sat with his legs crossed and started his cultivation, making the wound on his body heal completely.

The next day, Liam suddenly woke up from his cultivation early in the morning. He fixed his eyes on Laura, who was still absorbing the energy of the beast crystals not far away.

At that moment, something strange was happening to Laura's body.

A large mass of energy fluctuation appeared around her. Liam realized he had been awakened from his cultivation because of this huge energy fluctuation.

He furrowed his brows tightly. He found that Laura had absorbed so many beast crystals that her body could not digest such an excessive amount.

If this went on, there were only two possibilities for Laura.

One was that she could successfully break through the limit and reach the sixth level.

But the probability of the second possibility was higher.

That was, Laura might not be able to hold on, and her body would burst because of the energy from these beast crystals.
