

Married At First Sight Chapter 3100

Married At First Sight Chapter 3100-At that home, Kathryn had experienced bullying in the past. Even if she earned some money, someone would take it away or rob her.

That was a family of vampires.

Kathryn was not their biological child, so forget about treating Kathryn like that. But Shiloh was their biological child, so they treated Shiloh like this. Shiloh was pampered and raised in the Farrell family; how could she bear this kind of anger?

They forced Shiloh to die!

Sage didn't believe it at all.

Sage had a strong suspicion that his brother had pushed Shiloh downstairs.

In the ward, Matriarch Farrell took a few sips of the cup of warm water that Sage poured for her. After moisturizing her throat, she put down the water cup and said to Holden, lying on the bed, "Husband, Shiloh is dead, you know?"

Holden's haggard appearance and red, swollen eyes were visible to others. Holden did not dare to lie and answered honestly, "I knew it last night. Sage also went there. Shiloh fell, broke her head, and bloodied her head, so she went there on the spot.

They said that after the doctor arrived at the scene, she was pronounced dead without even resuscitating her."

Because she was already dead, there was no need for resuscitation, so doctors rushed to the scene and declared Shiloh dead after examination.

They sent her directly to the funeral home.

Holden said, "Wife, Shiloh definitely didn't fall accidentally. Her mother and brothers were responsible for her death. They must have pushed her down. Shiloh was not the kind of person who would commit suicide."

Matriarch Farrell said nothing.

Holden continued, "Wife, for the sake of the mother-daughter relationship with Shiloh for more than 20 years, would you like to investigate the real cause of Shiloh's death?" "We can't let Shiloh die in an unknown way. I know you resent Shiloh, but Shiloh has never thought of doing anything to apologize to you. "In her heart, you know how much she respects you as a mother."

"She was calculated and driven to death step by step."

Holden suddenly said bitterly, "It's Kathryn; it's all Kathryn. If Kathryn hadn't come back, our Shiloh wouldn't have been forced to a desperate end.

The person who plotted against Shiloh and me must be Kathryn. She had no feelings for me, her biological father. She was jealous that I loved Shiloh, so she used such a vicious trick to harm Shiloh and me, making Shiloh fall out of favor with you. You should be resentful and take me seriously.

She accomplishes two objectives in one! If Shiloh dies, she will be able to secure her position as heir. No one can compete with her for the position of head of the family."

Matriarch Farrell looked at Holden with cold eyes. She knew that Holden's emotional balance always favored Shiloh.

To be honest, she was also partial to Shiloh at the beginning. Shiloh raised her and trained her to be her successor. She loved her so much, but she separated from her after she was born. She didn't even know that she was her biological daughter; she had no emotions.

Normal people would prefer the person they grew up with.

However, the Farrell family's rules were unbreakable.

It couldn't be broken, either.

If Matriarch Farrell dared to put Shiloh in power, the entire Farrell family would turn against her. No matter how powerful she was, once the entire family united to turn against her, she would have no way to deal with it.

Later, she discovered that Kathryn was pretending to be a pig and eating the tiger. In fact, when it came to business, it was obvious that, compared with her, she was better than Matriarch Farrell.

Matriarch Farrell never imagined that Kathryn, who lived in the countryside and grew up in an environment that was very unfavorable to her, would have much better business acumen than Shiloh.

At that time, Matriarch Farrell had to sigh that the daughter of their Farrell family was really born to do business.

Therefore, Matriarch Farrell began to cultivate her biological daughter wholeheartedly and even cooperated with her daughter to pretend to be a pig and eat the tiger, which confused many people.

However, Holden has always been indifferent to Kathryn and was seriously biased towards Shiloh.

Shiloh was dead; Holden blamed Kathryn.

Matriarch Farrell said, “Do you know what you are talking about? The question of whether Shiloh died in an accident requires investigation, but it has nothing to do with Kathryn!

Yes, Kathryn deceived you and Shiloh, but it was your biological son Marco who did it. He didn’t mean to deceive you. “He didn’t know that his wife had added aphrodisiac to the half bottle of wine.”

Married At First Sight Chapter 3101-Matriarch Farrell continued, “It’s just such a coincidence that you and Shiloh... nothing happened to Kathryn from the beginning to the end!” Holden, Kathryn did not grow up beside us, but she is our biological daughter. She is the blood of you and me, and she is our blood!

When it comes to bad things, you always blame your biological daughter and throw dirty water on her. “Are there any fathers like you?”

Matriarch Farrell scolded Holden, leaving him speechless.

After a while, Holden asked, “Shiloh and I... was there a mistake, and it wasn’t someone deliberately planning it?”

Matriarch Farrell: “It’s a mistake. If it’s a conspiracy, it’s your most beloved eldest son, Marco, who plotted against you. If you can accept that Marco is the one who plotted against you, then you can think of a conspiracy. I can’t limit your thoughts.”

Holden: “...”

He didn’t believe that Marco would plot against him and Shiloh.

Holden had four children. Without knowing that Kathryn was his biological daughter, his eldest son, Marco, and daughter, Shiloh, were the ones he loved most.

Marco also had an excellent relationship with Holden.

How could he possibly plot against himself and Shiloh?

That was a mistake.

Holden said, “Wife, you know that Shiloh and I happened by mistake; why do you want to kill them all? If you hadn’t been too ruthless to Shiloh, Shiloh wouldn’t have died.”

Matriarch Farrell sneered, “You can’t blame your biological daughter, so you start blaming me? You are so jealous; do you want to avenge me? “Do you want to kill me?”

Holden's expression changed drastically, and he denied it repeatedly.

Matriarch Farrell said coldly, "Shiloh was not my daughter in the first place. She grew up beside me, enjoyed the glory and wealth that did not belong to her, and got everything that did not belong to her. They are all my daughter's; she is not mine. My daughter will naturally return everything that belongs to my daughter.

I don't care what happened between her and you. I only saw my husband sleeping with my adopted daughter. I can't accept this anyway. I kicked her out and took back everything that was my daughter's, and of course, I didn't feel wrong.

Holden, I gave you a choice at the beginning: either divorce me and make a clean break, or commit suicide and promise never to cheat again. It was you who chose the latter. Now that you have made the choice, don't regret it or be upset.

If you want to vent your anger on Shiloh's behalf or want to investigate something, you can go ahead and I won't stop you, but don't appear in front of me again and don't go back to my home again. Let's live separately!

I gave birth to children for you, and your children have grown up and have families. After you move out of the Farrell family mansion, where should you live, and where can you take care of your old age? Tell your three sons, Kathryn, they will give you some living expenses every month, but it's impossible to do anything you want Kathryn to do for you!"

"Kathryn is a member of my Farrell family and the future head of the Farrell family!"

Holden: "I didn't, I... I just feel that Shiloh was treated as our daughter for more than 20 years and died inexplicably like this."

Matriarch Farrell said, "Did she die in vain? She died in plain sight. She had a conflict with her brothers and fell to her death. Even her biological mother and brothers did not say that they wanted to find out the truth. You are not blood related. What's the relationship being traced?"

Holden wanted to say that Shiloh was forced to die by her mother and brothers, so how could the family investigate the cause of death for Shiloh?

But he didn't dare say such words again. He thought that debts would disappear after death.

After Shiloh died, Matriarch Farrell would think of Shiloh's kindness and no longer blame Shiloh. Unexpectedly, her reaction was still so intense. Also, she had been a domineering and domineering person.

She didn't love Holden, and Holden knew it.
