

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3109-From time to time, Matriarch Farrell would give her husband, the butler, some small things to take home to Kathryn.

In the past, her husband also won the trust of Matriarch Farrell at the Farrell mansion.

In that case, if they said that the child was sick, Matriarch Farrell would definitely help.

After much deliberation, they left Kathryn alone and did not strangle Kathryn to death.

But they treated Kathryn very badly. Kathryn was able to live to adulthood only because of her toughness and luck, as well as the concern of her neighbors' uncles and mothers-in-law, so Kathryn did not starve to death.

When Kathryn returned to the Farrell, her grandmother, who had taken care of her when she was a child, had passed away, but her children were still alive. Kathryn later gave them a large sum of money.

She also arranged a stable job for them in the company under her own name.

It was a way of repaying their old mother for protecting Kathryn when she was a child, taking care of Kathryn, and giving Kathryn food.

"After all, You raised her up. Mom, you're old now and has no money. Kathryn is so rich, but she doesn't give us tens of thousands or hundreds of thousands." The elder brother complained.

The little brother is also complaining: "Kathryn is not our biological child, so forget it if we don't give it to her. The biological child, after knowing that she is our child, will not visit us or give us any money, and will not even give it to us brothers. There is no work arrangement.

Give us a high-paying and easy job so that we brothers don't have to travel so hard for three meals a day."

The adoptive mother sighed and said, "Shiloh didn't grow up in our family. She lived a good life. She always thought that she was the successor to Farrell. Suddenly, she knew that we were her relatives. How could she accept this reality? Matriarch Farrell couldn't bear to let her leave and left her to be the second young lady in the Farrell. She just wants to please Matriarch Farrell, and she has no business with us.

Let's go back. Take Shiloh's ashes back with you."

A biological daughter is always a biological daughter. Should she pass away, we must retrieve her ashes.

The boss said disgustedly, "Why are you taking her back? She is an unmarried girl. She can't be included in our family's ancestral graves, even if she dies. Moreover, even if she dies, she won't want to go back with us."

The second child also said, "That's right, she died a violent death, and she might turn into a ghost after her death. What should we do if we take her back and keep pestering us?"

Both brothers were somewhat guilty.

They weren't the ones who pushed Shiloh to fall from the building, but Shiloh fell from the building because she quarreled with them and got into trouble, which led to the accident.

They originally thought that they could take Shiloh back, marry her off, and receive a betrothal gift, but it turned out...

"Let's go; let's go back. This trip is so unlucky. It's the young lady from Farrell. Why did she call us when she had nothing to do?"

The two sons walked away, cursing.

What could Shiloh's biological mother do?

She took a deep look at the Farrell Group office building, then turned around and ran to catch up with her two sons.

Their family's plan truly came to an end when Shiloh died.

The dream of changing their family by exchanging children, climbing up the ladder, and becoming a wealthy family was ultimately shattered.

It also resulted in the destruction of the family.

The adoptive mother also felt regretful.

If they had raised Kathryn well and treated her well, even if Kathryn knew the truth, she wouldn't be so indifferent to their family.

Shiloh, her biological daughter, didn't want to recognize them, and she could understand that.

Knowing that Shiloh didn't want to recognize them, her mother rarely came to Shiloh because she didn't want to disturb Shiloh's life.

As long as she knew that Shiloh was living a good life in the Farrell and was still living a life of good food and clothing,.

Of course, the family still harbors illusions.

They imagined that Kathryn could not hold up the wall. The head of the Farrell cultivated Shiloh, the adopted daughter, as a potential successor. She might have a chance to take over Farrell.

As long as Shiloh took over the Farrell family, their family's life would be easier.

Even if Shiloh cannot take the position, if any young master of the Farrell has the chance to take the position, Shiloh will also get a lot of benefits, and there is still hope for their family.

Their dreams were beautiful, but reality was cruel.
