

Married At First Sight Chapter 3369

Married At First Sight Chapter 3369-Kathryn looked deeply, and she said, “My eldest niece is ten years younger than me, so she is not suitable to be my daughter. If I really want to adopt her, my youngest niece is only a few years old, but she is suitable.”

Her youngest niece was the youngest daughter of Sage, her third brother, who was only six years old.

Of course, she just said that, and she would not really adopt her niece as a daughter. She wanted to have a child of her own.

If she doesn't invite a son-in-law to come, she will ask Pedro. Well, she is doing in vitro fertilization, so she can borrow his seeds to use. With his intelligence and talent, the daughter they raise will not be too bad.

Her nieces were mediocre, and it was difficult to train them to become the successors of the family. If they can be trained, her mother will not be in a hurry to support her. When she knew that Shiloh was not her biological daughter, she had already set her sights on the granddaughter generation.

Pedro was absolutely loyal to her, and he would be even more loyal to the daughter of the two of them and would protect her and her daughter wholeheartedly.

Well, kill two birds with one stone.

Although she was unwilling to admit it, Kathryn looked around at the young talents in Jensburg. There were really few people who were suitable for her and whom she liked. Pedro was the most suitable for her.

There was no rush to have a daughter. Let's talk about it later.

Now they didn't know whether the position of the head of the family could be retained in their branch.

If her eldest aunt was really killed by her mother, Kathryn really didn't want to take over the position of head of the family. She felt uncomfortable and guilty sitting there.

Marco said, “What's wrong with adopting? Girls in ancient times got married and had children in their teens. Your little niece is only a few years old. What can you see? Your eldest niece is better. Think about it if you adopt your eldest niece. If you cultivate her carefully, you can leave all the big and small things to her. You can be relaxed. When she is able to take over, you can retire and travel. How great it is! With a family like ours, you don't have to worry about your retirement.”

Marco urged Kathryn to adopt his eldest daughter.

Marco added, "If you adopt your little niece, what if she grows up to be a little weird? Wouldn't it be a waste of effort? Your eldest niece's temperament is set, and you know what kind of temper she has. She likes you as her aunt, but she is not very close to Shiloh."

This was true.

After Kathryn was found, in the whole Farrell family mansion, only Marco's eldest daughter accepted Kathryn as her aunt the fastest, perhaps because of the blood relationship.

Shiloh grew up in the Farrell family mansion and was not bad to her nieces and nephews, but Marco's eldest daughter just didn't want to get close to Shiloh.

Kathryn said calmly, "Brother, I can't make the decision on adoption alone. Let's talk about it later. When I really take the position of head of the family and really don't want to get married and have no children of my own, I will consider it."

"A niece is also a daughter, and she also has the blood of the Farrell family. I think mom won't object, and the people in the family won't have too many objections. However, I still have to investigate. I have more than one niece. The older nieces have two or three."

Her second brother, Noel, and his wife gave birth to two daughters and then a son. So Kathryn had three older nieces.

It was not necessary to choose Marco's daughter. Besides, she was just dealing with Marco casually and would not really adopt. She would discuss IVF with Pedro in the future.
