

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3375-The only people who dared to attack Kathryn were her three brothers and her father. Others would not attack her easily.

Pedro said, "Okay, let's do this for now. I'll see if I can finish my work sooner and pick you up then."

Kathryn did not refuse.

After ending the call, Kathryn was silent for a moment. She felt that she was becoming more and more dependent on Pedro and could not leave him anymore. Moreover, he was the only person she could trust.

Kathryn sent another message to Liberty, asking her if she had arrived and telling her that she would be there soon.

Liberty replied quickly, saying that she had arrived at her company and a manager had received her.

Kathryn sent Liberty an OK expression in reply.

Putting her phone away, she restarted the car and quickly drove away.

Forty minutes later,

Kathryn's car drove into her own company.

Her company was developing well and had become quite large.

Hayden was willing to cooperate with her, which showed that her company had good prospects. However, she hadn't been back to the company for some time.

The people in the company also knew that Kathryn, their young female boss, had become the real daughter of the famous Farrell family in Jensburg and was going to take over the Farrell family's business. She didn't have much time to come back to work here, but Kathryn would still hold video conferences frequently and control everything remotely.

Even if Kathryn were not in the company, the company would still operate as usual, and nothing serious would happen.

"boss."

“boss.”

The employees who hadn't seen Kathryn, their boss, for a long time, when they saw her coming back near the end of the get-off-work day, all greeted her with a smile.

Kathryn smiled back. She asked the front desk, “Where is Ms. Hunt now?”

The front desk: “She should be in the VIP room on the top floor. The manager is receiving her.”

Kathryn nodded and walked towards the elevator. Soon, she took the elevator to the top floor.

Although her company was quite large, it still had a gap compared with big companies.

The office building was only five stories high.

Her general manager's office was on the fifth floor. In addition to her office, the fifth floor also houses Manager Gauthier's office. Manager Gauthier was the brother of her former roommate and a professional manager.

In addition to her and Manager Gauthier's offices on the fifth floor, there were also conference rooms and VIP rooms.

After walking out of the elevator, Kathryn went straight to the VIP room, because only the VIP room had its door open and the lights on.

Maybe the front desk clerk sent a message to Manager Gauthier. As soon as Kathryn walked into the VIP room, Manager Gauthier came out.

“Boss, you're back. Ms. Hunt has been waiting here for a long time.”

Kathryn's company was not in the city center; it was still several minutes' drive away from the city center, but since they were both in Jensburg, Manager Gauthier had heard of Liberty.

Liberty had just entered Jensburg's business world, but her identity and the powerful families behind her meant that she attracted everyone's attention the moment she first entered Jensburg's bustling world.

As for Liberty's identity and her relationship with the Farrell family, everyone in Jensburg knew it.

Since it involved his boss, Manager Gauthier naturally paid attention to Liberty. So when Liberty came over, he recognized her.
