Gazing at Zephyr Ape, the group hesitated as they eyed the Universe Crystal Dew nestled on the giant lotus leaf.

They all knew that backing off was the smartest move at that moment.

Yet, none were ready to walk away from the Universe Crystal Dew. Such a prize was far too alluring for them.

Among them, Liam's eyes narrowed a bit. He had more at stake than the rest.

So, he chose to bide his time.

When Garrett heard what the Zephyr Ape said, fury overwhelmed him. Having been roughed up by Liam to secure this Universe Crystal Dew only to face its potential theft, his anger flared.

Garrett's anger drove him to recklessly lash out at the Zephyr Ape.

He shouted, "Fuck you! Go to hell! How dare you try to snatch my Universe Crystal Dew? Do you know who I am? I'm from the Glyn family. Beat it if you know what's good for you!"

The only reply Garrett got was a thunderous punch from the Zephyr Ape, which sent him sprawling in from the Zephyr Ape, which sent him sprawling in humiliation.

Fuming, Garrett remembered he had ventured into this mystical realm in search of a chance to grow stronger.

He had believed that his father's influence would protect him from any opposition in the secret realm. Yet, he had already been humiliated first by Liam, and then by the Zephyr Ape.

At that moment, Garrett was so furious that he felt as though his lungs might burst. But when he saw Mateo lying on the ground, unconscious and as helpless as a discarded ragdoll, Garrett smartly opted to keep quiet to avoid further embarrassment.

Nevertheless, the bitterness of defeat burned fiercely within him, and he resolved to seek vengeance through his father, Cillian, once he exited the secret realm.

Unfortunately, Garrett was unaware that he would soon lose even that slim hope of retribution.

Rodney, with a grave look, spoke up. "Aside from Mateo and Garrett, we have four other sixth-tier Primogem Warriors. There's still a chance we could take on the Zephyr Ape. I've got a secret weapon. Doug, I bet you've got some tactics up your sleeve as well. Let's unite, set our past conflicts aside, and fight the Zephyr Ape together! I simply can't stand by and watch as the Universe Crystal Dew falls into the claws of that creature!"

Rodney's unexpected decision caused Liam's face to turn serious.

Liam had discreetly assessed the beast's strength and knew that even an all-out attack by him and the four sixth-tier Primogem Warriors might not suffice.

The Zephyr Ape, at the peak of the sixth tier, was a formidable opponent.

However, the others had something different in mind.

After hearing what Rodney had said, Doug's main concern shifted to the potential rewards. He posed a direct question. "If we manage to drive off or even defeat the Zephyr Ape, how are we going to split the rewards?"

Rodney, with a tone of authority, responded, "Since I possess the greatest strength among us, it's only fair that I contribute the most during the battle. Consequently, I'll claim sixty percent of the loot. Kolton will receive ten percent, and you and your brother will divide the remaining thirty percent between yourselves."

Doug's face tightened into a frown, his dissatisfaction evident. "So, all my brother and I get is thirty percent of the rewards? Rodney, if you're not sincere, I'll leave with my brother right away. You can have our thirty percent, too!"

Worried that Doug might actually walk away, Rodney reached out and caught his arm, his voice urgent as he said, "Alright, I'll take fifty percent. You and your brother can have forty percent. That's the best I can offer. If that doesn't work for you, there's nothing more to discuss."

Doug stayed silent for a moment, understanding the logic in Rodney's stance. Given Rodney's superior strength, it was clear he would be pivotal in the fight.

With a reluctant nod, Doug finally agreed.
