

An Understated Dominance Chapter 2332 - 2335

Chapter 2332

After refining the elixir, the two of them rushed over non-stop. Fortunately, they arrived not too late.

“Dr. Rhys, are you finally here? Check on my sister quickly. I’m afraid she may not be able to survive now.” Cassidy didn’t have time to be polite, so she grabbed Dustin’s hand and quickly pulled him to the bed, pushing Zizi away at the same time.

Zizi dared not speak out in anger.

Dustin took a closer look and immediately frowned. “Didn’t I tell you not to pull out the needles? Why didn’t you listen?”

“It’s all this quack doctor’s fault!” Cassidy raised her hand, pointed at Zizi, and cursed unceremoniously, “He said that your silver needle sealed my sister’s toxins and would only aggravate her condition, so he pulled out the needle. As a result, something happened as soon as the silver needle was pulled out. However, this quack doctor has not yet dealt with the law. He is really harmful. Trash!”

“You...” Zizi’s face turned blue and white at the shock.

But due to Cassidy’s identity, he did not dare to refute it and could only bear the humiliation.

“Dr. Rhys, you said before that you had a way to cure my sister’s disease, but now it’s all up to you!” Cassidy looked at Dustin with a pleading look on her face.

“If you don’t pull out the needle, I can indeed cure your sister’s disease, but now, the voodoo in your sister’s body has spread throughout the body, and I am not very sure that I can bring her back from the h-e-l-l.” Dustin said.

At this moment, Noemi was already showing signs of running out of gas. Even if he had superb medical skills, he did not dare say that he could save Noemi.

“Dr. Rhys, please think of a way. Remuneration is not a problem at all. As long as you save my sister, I will pay you any amount.” Cassidy said quickly.

Dustin shook his head. “It’s not a matter of money. I can only say that I will do my best to treat your sister. As for the outcome, it depends on her own fate.”

Hearing this, Cassidy looked worried, but she didn’t say anything else.

Unlike Zizi, who was full of confidence, Dustin's words made her feel more real and reliable.

"Guys, please give way."

Dustin motioned to the people beside the bed to step back. Just when he was about to start treatment, Conor stopped him. "Wait! Can you do it? I'm warning you: Noemi is a rich woman. If you want to cure her body, I will not let you go."

"Since you don't believe me, I won't cure her. You can do it yourself." Dustin took two steps back, decisively.

"You——!" Conor was choked, and his face looked a little ugly.

"Brother Conor! You are talking nonsense!" Cassidy glared, and without caring about being polite, she pushed Conor away and shouted, "Dr. Rhys is saving my sister; what do you mean by threatening him?!"

"Kassidy, I'm just worried that if this guy doesn't have good medical skills, he'll be in trouble if he cures Noemi." Conor tried to explain.

He was not optimistic about Dustin's medical skills at all.

After all, Noemi's illness was something that even the famous doctor, Zizi, was helpless to deal with, let alone an unknown young boy?

"My sister is already in danger; how could the situation be worse than now?!" Cassidy shouted.

"I..." Conor was speechless for a moment.

"I don't care what you think; if anyone dares to hinder Dr. Rhys's treatment today, don't blame me for turning against him!" Cassidy said angrily.

Conor frowned, and although his face didn't look good, he didn't say anything in the end and stepped aside obediently.

No matter how much he looked down on Dustin, in this situation, he could only let the other party try. Of course, once there was any difference, he would not give up.

Chapter 2333

After Conor retreated, Dustin stepped forward and began to treat Noemi.

Because Zizi didn't know the cause of the disease and made random diagnoses and treatments, the voodoo in Noemi's body had spread throughout her body.

The elixir, refined alone, was not enough to completely eliminate voodoo. Prior to that, the induction of the poison required the use of silver needles.

Voodoo, on the other hand, was spiritual and knew how to seek benefits while avoiding harm. It was not easy to use acupuncture to induce it.

The best strategy was to use himself as bait.

Dustin needed to use his own body as a container to absorb Noemi's body's voodoo.

Although the process was a bit risky, there was no other choice.

If he wants to save people, he must give it a try.

"Grace, in a moment, I will use silver needles to prick acupoints to force all the voodoo in Noemi's body into one position." Then I will use both hands to absorb most of the voodoo into the body. There can be no mistakes in the whole process. "I need you to protect me and not let anyone harm me."

Dustin looked back at Grace and warned her seriously.

Among all the people present, he only trusted Grace.

After all, the process of introducing poison was very dangerous. He had a good foundation, so there was no pressure, but Noemi couldn't.

If it fails, and the voodoo bites back, Noemi will definitely explode and die!

"You just spent a lot of money refining the elixir; can you withstand it now?" Grace was a little worried.

She was well aware that Dustin's body had used up most of its pure energy to expedite the elixir's refining.

It was necessary to expend energy and induce poison in one's body, which was by no means an easy task.

"It doesn't matter; I have my own sense of discretion; please monitor it for me." Dustin said calmly.

"Okay." Grace nodded seriously.

If anyone dares to disturb Dustin while he is treating illnesses and rescuing people, don't blame her for being rude.

"Miss Marshall, help your sister up first." Dustin winked at Cassidy, who quickly understood and immediately helped the unconscious Noemi sit up.

Dustin took a deep breath, then raised his hand for a moment, and a row of silver needles shot out of his sleeves instantly.

Chapter 2334

Five silver needles, arranged in a row, struck Noemi's left leg precisely.

Then, Dustin raised his hand and waved, and five more silver needles shot out, hitting Noemi's right leg.

The left arm, right arm, and chest follow in order.

Every time Dustin waved his hand, he would throw out five silver needles.

Silver needles covered Noemi's body in just a few breaths.

Because the voodoo in Noemi's body has completely spread, Dustin needs to use silver needles to seal the acupoints, force the voodoo to a limited position, and then absorb it out.

Dustin sat cross-legged behind Noemi and slowly pressed his palms on her back after inserting the silver needle.

"Buzz~!"

Noemi's body began to tremble slightly, along with a slight roar.

Trace after trace of black mist slowly overflowed from its body surface.

Dustin closed his eyes tightly and breathed slowly.

He was using his pure energy to absorb the voodoo in Noemi's body, bit by bit.

Dustin's vitality was significantly stronger than Noemi's. Now that he is taking off his guard and inviting you into the urn, this is an extremely delicious meal for Voodoo.

In order to avoid alerting the snake, Dustin introduced the poison very slowly. He mainly used blood as a temptation. He worked slowly and could not act too hastily.

Time passed little by little.

The black mist overflowing from Noemi's body became more and more intense.

Her face became as pale as paper, her whole body was sweating profusely, and her originally dull expression gradually turned into pain.

Noemi lost consciousness before, but now there is a slight reaction.

Compared to Noemi, Dustin's condition was not optimistic either.

He frowned slightly, and beads of sweat flowed down his cheeks, dripping onto his clothes and making them wet.

On the one hand, Dustin wanted to induce the poison, and on the other hand, he wanted to use his true energy to protect Noemi's heart.

With so much focus on two things, whether it's energy or physical strength, he can't keep up. But now, he could only grit his teeth.

"Doctor Wang, can this guy do it?" He looks quite mysterious." Conor, who was watching, asked Zizi in a low voice.

He did doubt Dustin's medical skills before, but when he saw the black poisonous gas coming out of Noemi's body, he was a little unsure.

It really looked like the other party was doing exercises to heal her injuries.

"The situation is not optimistic."

Zizi shook his head and sighed in a low voice, "Miss Marshall's time has come. She was just a flashback. "Even if the old man tried his best to save her, it was of no use, let alone this unknown person in front of her."

"Could that be it?" Is this guy pretending to be a ghost?" Conor touched his chin, looking suspicious.

"I've seen this type of charlatan a lot." Their usual tactic is to deceive them whenever possible. If deceiving them proves impossible, they simply claim to have done their best and exploited their diligent efforts. Despite his current good behavior, his true intentions will soon come to light." Zizi's tone was a bit contemptuous.

How could a young man in his twenties cure a disease that he couldn't even cure?

To put it bluntly, the other party just wanted to defraud some money.

Of course, after all this trouble, it was a good result for him.

Once Noemi died, he could shift all the responsibility to Dustin, thereby eliminating his own murderous disaster.

Thinking about it this way, it seemed pretty good.

Chapter 2335

While Conor and Zizi were whispering, Cassidy was pacing back and forth anxiously. She wanted to ask several times, but in the end, she held back.

Despite her worry, she feared that if she spoke up, Dustin would become distracted, potentially affecting Noemi's treatment.

As for Grace, she silently stayed by Dustin's side to protect him.

Noemi's expression grew increasingly painful as time passed; she was sweating profusely and her entire body was filled with black energy, engulfing even Dustin.

Just like that, she didn't know how long it took.

Dustin's eyes suddenly opened, and then he took a deep breath.

"Hiss~~!"

A vortex of true energy formed out of thin air in his mouth. Simultaneously, his body absorbed all the surrounding black mist.

Immediately afterwards, Dustin's face turned blue and white, and his brows furrowed deeper.

He forcibly absorbed most of the voodoo in Noemi's body. Even though he was physically strong and had an amazing background, he still felt a little uncomfortable at this moment.

After absorbing the voodoo, Dustin slapped Noemi's back with both palms.

"Pfft~!"

Noemi raised her head, vomited out a large mouthful of black blood on the spot, and then fell limply onto the bed.

“Noemi!”

Seeing Noemi vomiting blood, Conor’s expression changed, and he quickly stepped forward to check on the situation, but Grace reached out to block him.

“Dr. Rhys is treating a patient; no one is allowed to disturb him!” Grace said it coldly.

“Cure? He has already treated people to vomit blood! Get out of the way!” Conor yelled.

“What Noemi vomited out was poisonous blood. Vomiting will make her feel better faster.” Grace tried to explain.

“Nonsense!” Conor looked angry. “I’m warning you, Noemi has a distinguished status. If anything happens to her, your ten lives won’t be enough to compensate her.”

“If you want Noemi to be well, stay away. Don’t affect Dr. Rhys’s treatment.” Grace said it with a straight face.

“Of course I hope Noemi gets well, but I don’t trust this guy’s medical skills. Who knows if he will use some dirty means to fish in troubled waters?” Conor still didn’t give up.

“One last time, I’ll say it: please retreat; if not, please do not hold me accountable for my impoliteness!” Grace issued a warning.

“Hmph! Who do you think you are? How dare you threaten me? Do you believe that I can kill you in a minute?” Conor stared, his face full of evil.
